

OHIO STATE FOOTBALL

MEDIA SERVICES

ATHLETICS COMMUNICATIONS

Associate AD Dan Wallenberg directs the Ohio State athletics communications office, which is located on the 6th Floor of the Fawcett Center (2400 Olentangy River Road). Leann Parker is Director of Athletics Communications. Associate Director Jerry Emig is the primary contact for the sport of football and Associate Director Adam Widman is the secondary football contact. For information regarding credentials, interviews, etc., please call the athletics communications office at (614) 292-6861.

GAME CREDENTIALS

Working press credentials for 2014 Ohio State football home games must be requested online through Ohio State's Sports Systems account. Contact the athletics communications office for login information.

OHIO STADIUM PRESS ENTRANCE

All single game credentials will be held at Ohio Stadium. The press will call window is open three hours prior to kickoff and is located inside the Huntington Club entrance on the west side of Ohio Stadium and just to the left of Gate 23. You must display a valid driver's license or a government issued ID to receive your credential.

PRESS PARKING

Parking passes will be mailed out to media (for those requests received within two weeks of the game). Press parking area is expected to be in the Neil Avenue Garage this year. Access from the south of Ohio Stadium off John Herrick Drive. Parking garages open at 5 a.m. on game day.

WWW.CAMPUSPARK.COM

Visit <http://www.campusparc.com> for parking maps, additional garage locations and for all your parking needs.

OHIO STADIUM PRESS BOX

The Ohio Stadium Press box will open three hours before home games and it will remain open for approximately three-and-one-half hours after each game.

OHIO STADIUM FIELD ACCESS

Go straight off the elevators, veer to the left and access the playing field through Gate 17AA. Media passes allow for field access before the game, at halftime and with six minutes to play in the fourth quarter.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Coaches' post-game interviews take place simultaneously in respective media areas above the team locker rooms. Quotes from each session are included in the postgame media packet. Additionally, Coach Urban Meyer's press conference is carried live on press box monitors and a complete transcript of his postgame comments will be posted to www.OhioStateBuckeyes.com after the game.

VISITOR LOCKER / MEDIA AREAS

The visitor lockerroom is located in the southwest tower (same side as press box) and post-game interview area is on the second floor. Go right off the elevator and follow signs to the interview area. From field level, follow the team ramp up and around to the right and past the locker room for interview room access.

HOME LOCKER / MEDIA AREAS

The Ohio State locker room is in the southeast tower (across the field). The press conference area is located on the third floor of the southeast tower. From field level, follow the team ramp up and around to the left and enter media area lobby at the red covered awning. Following Coach Meyer's remarks, select players will be brought upstairs for 10-minute interview sessions.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Urban Meyer's weekly press conference will be held on Mondays in the team meeting room at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center (535 Irving Schottenstein Center Drive). A box lunch will be served in the Biggs Lobby at 11 a.m. Note: no press conference on Oct. 26.

A multibox and backdrop will be set up in the team meeting room. The flow of each Monday is expected to be as follows (all times approximate):

- 11:45 a.m. – Coach Urban Meyer Q&A;
- 12:15 p.m. – Three-to-four student-athletes available each week at individual round tables on the WHAC indoor field. A list of players available will be distributed Sunday evening.

TRANSCRIPTION / VIDEO SERVICE

A full transcript of Coach Meyer's weekly press conference will be posted to OhioStateBuckeyes.com as soon as possible Monday through ASAP Transcription Services. Video of Meyer's Q&A will be streamed live and archived on OhioStateBuckeyes.com. HD quality video will be available on an FTP site. Contact athletics communications for access information.

BIG TEN TELECONFERENCE

Coach Meyer will be on the Big Ten weekly coaches teleconference each Tuesday at 1:36 p.m. (Eastern).

CALLS TO OUT-OF-TOWN MEDIA

Tuesdays will be an opportunity for Ohio State student-athletes to return phone calls to out-of-town media. Please make requests on Monday.

WEDNESDAY AVAILABILITY

Coach Meyer will meet with the media on the WHAC indoor field after each Wednesday practice. Approximate time is 6:30 p.m. A selection of student-athletes will also be available on the WHAC indoor field for interviews after each Wednesday practice. The list of players available will be distributed Sunday evening.

URBAN MEYER CALL-IN SHOW

The Urban Meyer Call-In-Show airs Thursday during the season at noon on Sports Radio 97.1 The Fan and throughout the 64-station Ohio State IMG Sports Network. The show originates from the Woody Hayes Athletic Center and is hosted by Paul Keels and Jim Lachey.

GAMETIME WITH URBAN MEYER

The regional Emmy Award-winning GameTime with Urban Meyer television show airs on Saturdays at 9 a.m. in Columbus on WBNS-10TV and statewide on FOX Sports Ohio. Coaches Earle Bruce and John Cooper, and Jim Lachey join host Dom Tiberi to preview each week's game and provide exclusive, in depth interviews with Ohio State players and coaches.

A LOOK AT 2015

125 SEASONS OF RICH HISTORY

The Ohio State football program celebrated its 125th season last year in grand fashion: by winning the eighth national championship in school history. Varsity football was first played on campus in the spring of 1890 and since then the program has achieved tremendous success, including:

- Eight national championship seasons, in: 1942, 1954, 1957, 1961, 1968, 1970, 2002 and 2014;
- The fifth-most wins in Division I history and the fifth highest winning percentage;
- 44 bowl games, including 14 Rose Bowls and all-time highs for BCS bowls (9) and BCS wins (5);
- Winning the first-ever College Football Playoff with a semifinal win in the Allstate Sugar Bowl over No. 1 Alabama, 42-35, and a title game win at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas, over No. 2 Oregon, 42-20;
- 35 Big Ten Conference championships;
- 24 College Football Hall of Fame honorees;
- The most Heisman Trophy winners (7; tied with USC and Notre Dame);
- 79 Consensus All-Americans;
- 69 first-round NFL Draft picks (second-most, all-time);
- 416 NFL Draft picks (third-most, all-time);
- 49 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans; and
- 20 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Scholarship winners.

NATION'S LONGEST WINNING STREAK

Ohio State carries the nation's longest winning streak – 13 consecutive games – into the 2015 season. The team will open the season against the last team to defeat it: Virginia Tech. The game will be the final game of the opening weekend of the college football season: 8 p.m. Monday evening, Sept. 7, in Blacksburg, Va., with ESPN broadcasting it nationally.

CURRENT WINNING STREAKS

1.	Ohio State	13 games
2.	Boise State	9 games
3.	TCU	8 games
4.	Memphis	7 games
5.	Appalachian State	6 games

Ohio State will also carry the nation's longest road winning streak into its season opener at Virginia Tech. The Buckeyes' last loss on the road was the 2011 regular season finale vs. Michigan at Michigan Stadium.

ROAD WINNING STREAKS

1.	Ohio State	13 games
2.	Florida State	12 games

NUMBERS – OHIO STATE RUSHING

Number of Ohio State offensive linemen who started in the NFL as rookies in 2014 (Corey Linsley, Green Bay; Jack Mewhort, Indianapolis; Andrew Norwell, Carolina).

Number of 1,000-yard rushers the school has produced the last three years (Braxton Miller in 2012; Miller and Carlos Hyde in 2013; Ezekiel Elliott in 2014).

5TH

Ohio State's national ranking in rushing yards in 2013 with 308.6 yards per game.

9TH

Ohio State's national ranking in rushing yards in 2014 with 264.4 yards per game.

10TH

Ohio State's national ranking in rushing yards in 2012 with 242.2 yards per game.

13

300-yard rushing games by Ohio State in the last three years.

38

Number of 100-yard rushing games by an Ohio State runner the last three years.

40

Number of games the past three years in which Ohio State has scored one or more rushing touchdowns (41 games).

12,280 RUSH YARDS, 123 RUSH TDS SINCE 2012

Ohio State has been one of the premier rushing teams in all of college football in Urban Meyer's three years as coach and Ed Warinner's three years coaching the team's offensive linemen. The Buckeyes are among the Top 5 nationally between 2012-14 in – cumulative – average yards per carry (No. 3 at 5.9 yards per carry), rushing touchdowns (No. 4 with 123) and yards gained (No. 5 with 12,280). Ohio State is No. 7 in that time in yards per game at 273.0.

PASSING & TOTAL OFFENSE MARKS FALL IN 2014

Behind two quarterbacks – J.T. Barrett and Cardale Jones – who weren't even slated to play much (before Braxton Miller re-injured his shoulder), the Buckeye passing attack was as good as it has ever been in 2014. Single season school records for passing yards (3,707), touchdowns (42) and completions (260) were all set and, coupled with the team's power running game, school records for total offensive yards (7,674), points scored (672), touchdowns (90) were also set.

BACK TO THE BULLETS

Ohio State's defense returned to "silver bullets" status in 2014, ranking 19th nationally in total defense (342.4 yards allowed), 26th in scoring (22.0), 29th against the pass (201.1 yards per game) and 34th vs. the rush (141.3). Total defense, scoring and pass defense averages were the best figures in the past three years with passing yards per game making the largest statistical improvement, moving from 268 yards per game in 2013 and a ranking of 112 to 201.1 yards per game in 2014.

MORE 2014 BULLET POINTS...

- Ohio State led the Big Ten last year and ranked fourth nationally with 25 interceptions, a total that ranked second in school history behind the 29 picks by the 1986 team.
- Ohio State was tied for second nationally with six defensive touchdowns.
- The defense had school Top 5 totals in quarterback sacks (45, third-most all-time), tackles-for-loss (110, fifth) and loss-yards (449; fourth). The Buckeyes were 13th nationally in sacks and 14th in tackles-for-loss.

URBAN MEYER

HEAD COACH ★ ★ ★

Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer is building the kind of resume – THREE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS and an 11-VICTORY PER YEAR PACE for his entire 13-year career – that has him positioned among the best collegiate coaches. EVER. His winning ways and his team's achievements are at or near the top of all the major collegiate coaching records. Consider:

- In leading Ohio State to the 2014 national championship for his third national title – he won titles in 2006 and 2008 at Florida – Meyer became part of an elite group of two coaches in history to win national titles at two different schools;
- He is the only coach to win national championships in two different conferences;
- He has the highest winning percentage – .845; 142-26 – among active FBS coaches with at least 10 years of experience as a Division I coach;
- He has the fourth-highest winning percentage all-time among FBS college coaches;
- He has the eighth-highest winning percentage all-time among all coaches with at least 10 seasons at a Division I school with only two other Power Five school coaches – Notre Dame's Knute Rockne and Frank Leahy – ahead of him;

- Meyer is the first coach in modern history – since 1937 when the NCAA began keeping records – to win at least 13 games in consecutive years (in 2008 and 2009), three times (2006-08-09) and four times (2006-08-09 at Florida and 2014 at Ohio State);
- He is second in the history of college football with four 13-plus win seasons (tied with Penn's George Woodruff), trailing only Walter Camp's five from 1888-92;
- Meyer is the only coach in major college history to have three different winning streaks of at least 20 games (22 at Florida; 20 with Utah/Florida; 25 with Florida and Ohio State). Only nine coaches have had two winning streaks of at least 20 games;
- Meyer won more games his first 10 years - 104 - than all but two coaches in college football history;
- He reached 100 wins faster than all but one coach – Bud Wilkinson – in the last 57 years and faster than all but five coaches all-time; and
- He is on a pace to have the most victories as a head coach after his first 15 seasons and to reach 200 victories faster than any other coach.

MAKING THE GREAT STATE OF OHIO PROUD

In addition to his impressive career mark of 142-26, Urban Meyer enters the 2015 season with a 38-3 record as coach at Ohio State. His 2014 Ohio State Buckeyes captured the eighth national championship in school history to cap its 125th season of football. Led by eight senior starters, the Buckeyes won their final 13 games to win the first College Football Playoff national championship while tying the NCAA record for wins in a season with 14.

A youthful 2014 team that featured four new starters on the offensive line, a freshman quarterback, a new running back and a defense that improved every week took each game one at a time and dismantled its opponent week after week by an average margin of victory of 23 points.

The Buckeyes stayed perfect in Big Ten play under Meyer by winning all eight games to extend their conference record-winning streak to 24 games. Then with Cardale Jones replacing the injured J.T. Barrett, who replaced the injured Braxton Miller at quarterback, the Buckeyes defeated Wisconsin, 59-0, to win the Big Ten Conference championship; a win so convincing the team earned one of four positions in the first College Football Playoff.

In the CFP semifinals at the Allstate Sugar Bowl, Ohio State came back from 21-6 deficit behind outstanding defense and 230 rushing yards from Ezekiel Elliott to defeat No. 1 Alabama, 42-35, and claim the Sugar Bowl championship and a date in the national championship game vs. No. 2 Oregon.

And 11 days later in the CFP National Championship game at Reliant Stadium in Arlington, Texas, the Ohio State defense was again dominant and Elliott led an offensive charge with 246 rushing yards and four touchdowns in the 42-20 victory.

Meyer's Ohio State Buckeyes are the 2014 national champions, and Meyer was named the Rawlings 2014 Football Bowl Subdivision Coach of the Year, The Dispatch Ohio College Coach of the Year and the Phil Steele Coach of the Year.

BACK HOME TO OHIO

Born in Toledo, raised in Ashtabula and with degrees from Cincinnati and Ohio State, Urban Meyer made it clear from the day he took the Ohio State position - Nov. 28, 2011 - what his intentions are: "We're going to make the great state of Ohio proud with everything we do."

Ohio is proud. Meyer & Co. made history in his first season as Ohio State coach in 2012, guiding the Scarlet and Gray to only the sixth undefeated and untied season in school history with a 12-0 record and also to a Big Ten Conference Leaders Division championship. He was awarded the Woody Hayes Trophy as national Coach of the Year by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. He was also a finalist for four additional national Coach of the Year Awards: the FWAA's Eddie Robinson Award, the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year, the Paul "Bear" Bryant and the Bobby Bowden Coach of the Year awards.

The winning and the history making continued for Meyer and the Buckeyes in Year 2, with Ohio State extending its winning streak to school-record status (24 games) and ultimately finishing a 12-2 season with a second consecutive Big Ten Leaders Division title, a berth into the Big Ten championship game and an invite to the Discover Orange Bowl.

Then in Year 3 his Buckeyes shook off the loss of two starting quarterbacks and an early season loss to win the 35th Big Ten Conference championship in school history and qualify as one of four teams for the first College Football Playoff. And then in the playoffs the Buckeyes rolled to a CFP semifinal win over No. 1 Alabama in the Sugar Bowl and then to a CFP national championship game win over No. 2 Oregon.

REAL LIFE WEDNESDAYS

But winning games, competing for championships and developing outstanding young men to succeed in life is what Meyer came home to Ohio to do as coach of the Buckeyes. The wins and championships are well documented. The efforts that Meyer and his staff engage their student-athletes in to ensure they are prepared for life after football are equally important and impressive.

Wednesday afternoons in the winter and spring are a time for guest speakers – CEOs, wealth management experts, professional athletes, senior leaders from athletics, national media and former Buckeyes – to address the team in a life experiences forum initiated by Meyer called "Real Life Wednesdays." A month after Ohio State's championship game win, JPMorgan Chase & Company chairman and CEO Jamie Dimon visited the Woody Hayes Athletic Center and addressed the team on leadership.

Dimon's discussion with the team was the first this year of about a dozen such lectures and activities for the Ohio State players to learn from in the program. The goal each year is to introduce the team to influential individuals who can share insight into succeeding in life after football is over. Other speakers typically address the job interview process, finances, starting and building a successful business, parenting and other career endeavors.

This year there will be an "application" part to the lectures vs. just theory. If a financial manager comes in to talk about credit scores, the players are going to actually learn what their scores are. They are also going to learn about lease payments for cars and apartments and how people get into trouble with leases.

INTERNSHIPS & JOB FAIRS

As winter turns to spring and into early summer, the players continue to develop their minds and portfolios for life after football. Everyone gets a professional, leather binder and prepares or updates their resumes. The month of May is an opportunity for internships for juniors and seniors – 23 players completed an internship last year – and there will be field trips to various businesses that interest the players.

Additional speakers will come through the Woody Hayes Athletic Center to speak during a spring practice or at a team meeting. Past guests have included Lou Holtz, NFL coaches like Marvin Lewis, Chip Kelly and Greg Schiano, NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell, Ohio Governor John Kasich, Columbus Mayor Michael Coleman, Big Ten Commissioner Jim Delany and retired Navy SEAL and "Lone Survivor" Marcus Luttrell.

The third-annual football Job Fair took place on May 29. More than 50 companies across all sectors, including hospitality, law enforcement, broadcasting, medical sales, athletic administration, finance and business, will send human resource representatives to meet with and ask questions of the Buckeye student-athletes. Contacts are made. Relationships are built. Life after football is in motion.

24TH COACH IN OHIO STATE HISTORY

Meyer, who is in his 30th season as a collegiate coach, is married to the former Shelley Mather. The couple are proud parents to daughters Nicki (a 2013 graduate of Georgia Tech) and Gigi (who will graduate this spring from Florida Gulf Coast) and a son, Nate (a high school sophomore).

Meyer became the 24th head coach in the storied history of Ohio State football when he signed a six-year agreement to coach the Buckeyes on Nov. 28, 2011. He was the only candidate interviewed by a five-member search committee of senior Ohio State leaders, headed by then-President E. Gordon Gee and Director of Athletics Gene Smith.

Meyer had sat out the 2011 football season to devote time to his family and to work as an analyst for ESPN prior to his return to collegiate coaching.

"In Urban Meyer we have found an exemplary person and remarkable coach to lead the University's football program into the future," Gee said. "As an alumnus, he understands and believes in the core academic mission of the University. As an Ohioan, he shares our common values and sense of purpose."

Smith said that Meyer is "known not only as one of the nation's most successful coaches, but also as a leader and mentor who cares deeply about the young men who are his student-athletes. He brings with him an understanding of the University – both the important traditions of its football program and the excellence of the institution."

It's easy to see why he was the No. 1 choice of the search committee.

Meyer had already won two national championships – in 2006 and 2008 with the University of Florida – and no less than three national coach of the year honors, including The Sporting News honor in 2003 and the Eddie Robinson and Home Depot Coach of the Year awards, respectively, in 2004.

Meyer had not only won big at each of his three previous head coaching positions, but he had won immediately. He led Bowling Green to the best turnaround season in the nation in 2001 with an 8-3 record and he went 9-3 in Year 2. He was 22-2 in two seasons at Utah, including a 16-game winning streak and a 12-0 campaign in 2004 when he led the first-ever non-Bowl Championship Season program into a BCS game.

He was 65-15 in his six seasons at Florida with the two national titles, two Southeastern Conference championships and three 13-win seasons, including consecutive 13-win seasons in 2008 and 2009 to become the first coach ever to accomplish that feat.

IT ALL STARTED IN OHIO

After graduating from Saint John High School in Ashtabula, Meyer was a 13th-round MLB draft pick of the Atlanta Braves and spent two years in minor league baseball. He matriculated to Cincinnati and played one year at defensive back for the football program and graduated in 1986 with his bachelor's degree in psychology.

Meyer's first football coaching experience was as an intern at St. Xavier High School in Cincinnati in 1986. The following year, he joined Coach Earle Bruce's staff at Ohio State and spent two years as a graduate assistant – coaching tight ends in 1986 and receivers in 1987 – while pursuing his master's degree in sports administration. Ohio State won a Big Ten title in 1986 and 1987 was Bruce's final season as coach.

It was during his time as a Buckeye when he forged a relationship with Bruce that has only been strengthened through the tests of time and change.

"My relationship with him [Earle] is extremely close, second only to my father," Meyer said during the news conference to announce his hiring at Ohio State...17 days after his father, Bud, passed away.

"Every step of my career, every part of my family life, Coach Bruce has always been there. So close that he was gracious enough to speak at my father's funeral just last Friday."

Meyer, as every young coach does who aspires to be a head coach and who thirsts for knowledge, then moved on to a series of assistant coaching positions – Illinois State for two years under Jim Heacock, Colorado State for six years under Sonny Lubick and Bruce, and Notre Dame for one year under Lou Holtz and five years under Bob Davie – before getting his first head coaching assignment at Bowling Green.

I AM HONORED AND HUMBLLED BY THE OPPORTUNITY TO RETURN TO OHIO STATE," MEYER SAID DURING HIS INITIAL PRESS CONFERENCE. "THIS UNIVERSITY AND THE STATE OF OHIO HAVE ENORMOUS MEANING TO ME. MY DUTY IS TO ENSURE THAT OHIO STATE'S FOOTBALL PROGRAM REFLECTS AND ENHANCES THE ACADEMIC MISSION OF THE INSTITUTION. I AM PART OF IT, I BELIEVE IN IT, AND I WILL LIVE IT."

FIRST YEAR: COACH OF THE YEAR

Taking over a team that was 2-9 in 2000 and that had not had a winning season in seven years, Meyer guided the Falcons to the top turnaround in the nation in 2001 with a six-win improvement and an 8-3 record that included wins over Missouri, Northwestern and BGSU's rival to its north, Toledo. He was named Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year.

He followed that first year with a 9-3 record in his second season with the Falcons, including another win over Missouri. After BGSU opened the season with eight consecutive wins, the program cracked both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Top 25 polls for the first time in school history, peaking with an all-time school best No. 16 national ranking by ESPN/USA Today.

Meyer's BGSU teams were anything but one-dimensional. His 2002 team led the nation in red zone production with 61 scores in 63 trips inside the 20 (.968) and was ninth in total offense (448.9 yards per game). Defensively, his 2001 team ranked first in the MAC in scoring, rushing and total defense and his teams led the MAC both years in turnover margin.

MADE PLAYERS BELIEVERS

Josh Harris, who became a starter at quarterback in the ninth game of the 2001 season and reeled off 11 consecutive wins as a starter, told Plain Dealer reporter Elton Alexander that his former coach simply made players believe they were as good as any other team.

"One thing for sure, when coach Meyer believes in a guy, he might even believe in him more than the guy believes in himself," Harris said. "There was a time when I had to get my belief in Josh Harris up to where Urban Meyer believed that Josh Harris was. That really propelled me, and my game, to new levels.

"That's one of the things he did for me that I will always be thankful for."

THE MOVE OUT WEST

Meyer moved on to the University of Utah following the 2002 season and in two seasons led the Utes to a 22-2 record. He was named national Coach of the Year in 2003 by The Sporting News and in 2004 he was named the Football Writers Association of America's Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year and the Home Depot Coach of the Year.

In his first season in Salt Lake City, Meyer coached the Utes to their first outright conference championship since 1957, a 17-0 Liberty Bowl win over Southern Mississippi, and a final national ranking of No. 21. In addition to his national coach of the year honor by The Sporting News, Meyer was named Mountain West Conference coach of the year and thus became the first coach in Utah's 111-year football history to earn such an honor in his first year.

Utah then enjoyed the finest season in program history in 2004. The 12-0 record was the first 12-0 season in 75 years and a second-consecutive outright MWC championship represented the first consecutive championships by one school in conference history.

The 2004 Utah offense was unstoppable, finishing in the Top 5 in six categories, including No. 3 in scoring (45.3), total offense (499.7) and turnover margin (1.25). The team also led the MWC in 11 statistical categories and was No. 2 in passing, scoring and total defense.

Following Utah's 16th consecutive win, a 35-7 pummeling of Pitt in the Fiesta Bowl, Meyer's record was a sterling 39-7 as a head coach and he was established as a proven winner. And the University of Florida was in need of a coach.

SIMPLY GREAT IN GAINESVILLE

"Urban's accomplishments speak for themselves," Florida Athletics Director Jeremy Foley said. And this was before Meyer had even begun to blow his previous coaching accomplishments out of the water with the even-greater success he would experience coaching the Gators.

Meyer coached Florida to a 9-3 record in his initial season, a record that included wins over four nationally ranked opponents, making Meyer the first first-year coach in UF history to accomplish the feat.

Meyer's Year 2 success – he was a combined 21-3 in his second season at Bowling Green and Utah – continued in Gainesville as he led the Gators to a school-record 13 wins, and SEC and national championships against the toughest schedule in the nation. Florida played six ranked teams and 11 of its opponents went to bowl games. The BCS Championship game win: 41-14 over No. 1 ranked Ohio State in Glendale, Ariz. Meyer was named national Coach of the Year by the All-American Foundation at the conclusion of the season.

The 2007 Gator team went 9-3, featured Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Tim Tebow and ranked third nationally with an average of 42.5 points per game.

Consecutive 13-win seasons followed in 2008 and 2009, a first in major college history. The 2008 team was the most prolific offensive unit in SEC history with 611 points scored against the nation's second-toughest schedule. Meyer won a second national championship this season, with Florida defeating Oklahoma, 24-14, in the BCS Championship game in Miami, Fla.

The only blemish on an otherwise spectacular 13-1 2009 season was to eventual national champion Alabama in the SEC championship game. This Florida team's senior class departed with the best record for a class in SEC history: 48-7.

Meyer coached his last Florida team to an 8-5 record in 2010. His last game as Florida coach was 37-24 win over Penn State in the Outback Bowl, in Tampa, Fla.

MEYER IS A BUCKEYE

On Wednesday, Nov. 23, Ohio State Director of Athletics Gene Smith first talked to Meyer about returning to coaching after spending the year in an ESPN analyst booth. On Sunday, Nov. 27, Smith presented Meyer with terms for a six-year contract. Less than 24 hours later Meyer was a Buckeye.

And the rest of this story is future history.

MORE ON URBAN MEYER ...

- His teams are 23-3 in "rivalry games." Bowling Green was 1-1 vs. Toledo; Utah was 4-0 vs. Utah State and BYU; Florida was 16-2 vs. Florida State, Tennessee and Georgia; and Ohio State is 3-0 vs. Michigan.
- His teams are 84-18 in conference play with five championships (two apiece at Utah and Florida and 2014 at Ohio State). They are also 3-2 in conference title games and 9-2 in bowl games, including a 2-0 mark in College Football Playoff games and a 4-1 record in BCS bowl games.
- Meyer has coached his teams to six double digit winning streaks: 11 games (Bowling Green), 20 games (16 at Utah and four at Florida), 11 games (Florida), 22 games (Florida), 25 games (Florida and Ohio State) and 13 games (Ohio State... current).
- His teams have 21 wins by 40-or-more points and another 23 wins by at least 30 points.
- Meyer's teams are 4-2 vs. the No. 1 team in the nation, 9-3 vs. Top 5 teams, 14-5 vs. Top 10 teams and 31-12 vs. Top 25 teams.
- His teams are 40-3 when having more than one week to prepare for an opponent (includes season openers, games after "off" weeks and post-season games).
- In first-time matchups vs. an opposing coach, Meyer's teams are 82-15.
- Both the Sporting News and Sports Illustrated named Meyer "Coach of the Decade" in December 2009.
- Meyer has watched as a total of 45 players he coached the previous season get selected in the NFL Draft, including 11 first-round draft picks.
- Of those 45 NFL Draft picks, three were quarterbacks, including first-round picks for Utah's Alex Smith (San Francisco, 2005) and Florida's Tim Tebow (Denver, 2010) with Smith the overall No. 1 pick.
- Between 2006-10, Meyer and Florida had more first round NFL Draft picks – eight – than any other school.
- In addition to Smith and Tebow, Meyer's first-round draft picks include UF offensive linemen Maurkice Pouncey (Pittsburgh, 2010) and Mike Pouncey (Miami, 2011); UF defensive linemen Jarvis Moss (Denver, 2007) and Derrick Harvey (Jacksonville, 2008); UF defensive backs Reggie Nelson (Jacksonville, 2007) and Joe Haden (Cleveland, 2010); UF wide receiver/running back Percy Harvin (Minnesota, 2009); Ohio State linebacker Ryan Shazier (Pittsburgh, 2014); and Ohio State cornerback Bradley Roby (Denver, 2014).

ED WARINNER

Offensive Coordinator Offensive Line

Ed Warinner was promoted to offensive coordinator by Ohio State coach Urban Meyer in January 2015.

"Ed Warinner is certainly deserving, experienced and well-qualified for the offensive coordinator position," Meyer said. "I'm pleased to be able to promote from within our program and I believe he is going to be an excellent coordinator for us."

Warinner, co-offensive coordinator the past three years in addition to his offensive line duties, has been instrumental in Ohio State's record-setting offenses that have set dozens of school and Big Ten records, including season marks – twice – for points (672 in 2014 after scoring 637 in 2013) and touchdowns (90 in 2014 after 87 in 2013), a Big Ten record for rushing yards (4,321 in 2013) and school records for passing yards (3,707 in 2014) and passing touchdowns (42 in 2014).

Ohio State has averaged 37.2, 45.5 and 44.8 points per game the past three seasons and the team's offense has been among the best in the nation each year. Behind an offensive line coached by Warinner that has produced four NFL players in the last three seasons, including three rookie starters in 2014 – Corey Linsley for Green Bay; Jack Mewhort with Indianapolis; and Andrew Norwell at Carolina – the Buckeyes have ranked in the Top 10 nationally in rushing in each of the past three seasons.

Warinner represents the sixth offensive coordinator to work under Meyer and the previous five have all become head coaches, including Tom Herman, now the University of Houston coach.

Warinner's coaching career includes coordinator positions for three record-setting Kansas Jayhawks teams, including the 2007 unit that averaged 479.8 yards and 42.8 points per game. He also has two seasons as offensive coordinator experience at Army.

Warinner was named the 2014 FootballScoop offensive line coach of the year. He is the first coach to earn offensive line coach of the year honors from FootballScoop twice and he joins a short list of three other coaches – Mark Helfrich, Kliff Kingsbury and Philip Montgomery – to be named a FootballScoop positional coach of the year twice. He also won the award in 2012.

Warinner's honors also include being named a 2014 Rivals.com Top 25 recruiter. In 2012, Rivals.com named Warinner one of the Top 20 "hottest assistant coaches" in the nation and prior to coming to Ohio State in 2011, he was a finalist for the FootballScoop offensive line coach of the year.

Warinner has coached at eight different schools: Akron, Michigan State, Army, Air Force, Kansas, Illinois, Notre Dame and now Ohio State. In addition to his 11 years in coordinator positions, he has spent 18 of the past 23 seasons coaching the offensive line.

TIM BECK

Co-Offensive Coordinator Quarterbacks

Tim Beck, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Nebraska the past four years, joined the Ohio State coaching staff in early January 2015 as co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. Beck has a 26-year coaching resume that includes 16 seasons in the collegiate ranks and another 10 seasons in high school coaching, including nine years as a high school head coach.

"I have known Tim for several years and have also watched and competed against him," Ohio State coach Urban Meyer said. "I have always respected his knowledge of the game and he is respected in the profession. I always look for coordinators and co-coordinators who will mesh with our staff, our style and can make us better. I believe Tim will do just that."

"I am extremely excited to be joining the Ohio State coaching staff," Beck said.

"It's quite an honor, being an Ohio guy and growing up here and now having the opportunity to work at The Ohio State University. Words can't explain it. I'm just really excited and I'm looking forward to working with coach Meyer, and to learn from him and to help the coaches there continue with the successes they have already started."

Beck's Nebraska offenses the past four years (2011-14) have ranked fifth, first, sixth and fourth in the Big Ten Conference, respectively, and his passing attack has amassed more than 10,000 yards during that time with 86 touchdowns. Beck directed Nebraska's passing to two of the Top 6 single season totals in school history and he has coached two of the four Nebraska quarterbacks who have topped 3,000 yards of total offense in a single season.

During this time, quarterback Taylor Martinez developed into a record-setting quarterback for the Cornhuskers and was the league coaches' choice as the all-Big Ten Conference quarterback following the 2012 regular season. Nebraska players broke more than 50 individual records in Beck's four seasons running the offense and the quarterbacks, including:

- Career passing yards;
- Career passing completions;
- Career passing touchdowns;
- Career yards from scrimmage; and
- Career total offense.

A two-time nominee for the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach (2012 and 2013), Beck has worked on the Nebraska staff, under Bo Pelini, for the past seven years. His first three seasons there he was the Cornhuskers' running backs coach. Nebraska never won fewer than nine games during his seven seasons on staff, advanced to the 2012 Big Ten title game and played in seven bowl games. The Cornhuskers played in the Big 12 championship game in 2010 and the Big Ten championship game in 2012.

Another Ohio native on the Buckeye staff, Beck is a graduate of Cardinal Mooney High School which has produced no less than five major college head coaches recently, including Bob Stoops (Oklahoma), Bo Pelini (former Nebraska coach now at Youngstown State), Mark Stoops (Kentucky), Mike Stoops (former Arizona coach now at Oklahoma) and Carl Pelini (former Florida Atlantic coach).

After graduating from Mooney, Beck played one year of football at Central Florida (1985) and he graduated from there in 1988 with a degree in liberal studies. He also has a master's in counseling and guidance from Kansas State University (1992).

Beck started his coaching career as an assistant coach at Miramar (Fla.) High School for the 1988 and 1989 seasons and then moved to Illinois State as outside linebackers and punters coach in 1990.

He then spent two seasons on Bill Snyder's Kansas State staff (1991-92) as a graduate assistant.

Beck was a high school head coach in nine of the next 12 seasons, positions that were sandwiched around a three-year stay at Missouri State where he was offensive coordinator between 1996-98. He was head coach at Saguaro H.S., in Scottsdale, Ariz., from 1993-95; at R.L. Turner High School in Carrollton, Texas from 1999-2001, and at Mansfield (Texas) Summit H.S. from 2002-04.

His high school accomplishments included leading Summit to the state playoffs, Carrollton to back-to-back playoff appearances for the first time in 35 years, and Saguaro to the 1995 4A state championship. He was the 2003 Dallas Fort Worth District coach of the year while at Summit and the 2000 district coach of the year while at Turner.

Beck then moved on to the University of Kansas. He was the Jayhawks' receivers coach each of his three seasons in Lawrence, and he was promoted to pass game coordinator in February of 2007 where he worked under current Ohio State co-offensive coordinator/offensive line coach Ed Warinner. Kansas finished second nationally in scoring offense in 2007 (42.8 ppg), eighth in total offense (479.8 ypg) and 17th in passing (291.0 ypg) and went 12-1 with a 24-21 victory over Virginia Tech in the Fed Ex Orange Bowl and a final national ranking of No. 7.

In 2008, Beck was hired at Nebraska.

Beck and his wife, Tamara, have two children: a son, Jordan, and a daughter, Haylie Marie. Beck has family throughout Ohio: parents in Hudson; a sister in Macedonia; a brother in Youngstown; and aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews scattered around the state.

TONY ALFORD

Assistant Head Coach for Offense Running Backs

Tony Alford, who has coached collegiate running backs for 18 years and who is called an “exceptional” person and coach by Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer, is in his first season as assistant head coach for offense/running backs coach at Ohio State University.

“I’ve known Tony Alford for a long time and I am very pleased to be adding him to our staff,” Ohio State coach Urban Meyer said when announcing the hire in early February. “He is an exceptional person and coach who is going to work really well with our staff and who will be an outstanding mentor and teacher for this football program.”

Alford and Meyer’s relationship dates to Meyer’s first year as an assistant coach at Colorado State University in 1990. Alford was a senior running back on a team coached by Earle Bruce. Meyer was in his first year as a receivers coach for the Rams.

Alford has numerous coaching ties with a number of Ohio State coaches. He and offensive coordinator Ed Warinner and tight ends coach Tim Hinton were on the Notre Dame staff together in 2010 and 2011. He and Chris Ash spent five seasons together at Iowa State (2002-06), where they worked under Dan McCarney, a close friend of Meyer’s.

“The history of the Ohio State program speaks for itself, and I am extremely humbled and flattered that I was the guy who Coach Meyer wanted,” Alford said. “And for that, I feel deeply indebted to Notre Dame ... to Brian Kelly, Jack Swarbrick and Father Jenkins, and to the many players who I was able to work with, build relationships with and know. They were all great to me.”

“And now I look forward to the new challenges and experiences and growth opportunities at Ohio State, and I’m excited to start helping them win another championship.”

Alford, a 2015 Rivals.com Top 25 recruiter, a finalist for 247Sports’ 2011 national recruiter of the year and also one of the top 25 recruiters in the nation that year by Rivals.com, was born in Akron and lived in Ohio for over 16 years before moving to Colorado Springs as a high school senior. His father, Robert, was a three-year letterman in football at Kent State and coached high school football in Ohio for 10 years. Thus, most of his 22 years in coaching has been in the Midwest and central United States, including his first two collegiate jobs at Mount Union, in 1995, and at Kent State the following season.

In 1997 Alford joined McCarney's staff at Iowa State as running backs coach and spent the next four seasons in Ames developing running backs and helping the Cyclones to be one of only three Division I schools to produce a 1,000-yard rusher for six consecutive seasons between 1995-2001. The Cyclones improved their national rushing from rankings of 103rd to 17th in Alford's four years and won their first-ever bowl game to cap a 9-3 season in 2000.

Following one season – 2001 – as running backs coach at Washington under Rick Neuheisel, Alford returned to Ames as McCarney's assistant head coach and running backs coach, a position he held for the next five seasons. During this tenure with the Cyclones, Alford guided Stevie Hicks to a 1,000-yard rushing season, the fifth running back to do so under Alford's tutelage.

When McCarney was let go following the 2006 season, Alford moved on to the University of Louisville where he spent two years as running backs coach under Steve Kragthorpe. In 2008, Cardinal running back Victor Anderson topped 1,000-yards rushing and was named the BIG EAST Conference rookie of the year and a freshman All-American.

In 2009 Alford joined Charlie Weiss' staff at Notre Dame as running backs coach and the next season he was the only coach retained by new Irish coach Brian Kelly. Alford worked with Notre Dame's wide receivers his first two seasons under Kelly and helped Michael Floyd to consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons and a subsequent first-round selection by the Arizona Cardinals in the 2012 NFL Draft.

In 2012 Alford returned to coaching running backs with the added responsibility of slot receivers and recruiting coordinator. This past season he was running backs coach and recruiting coordinator. Six different Irish running backs topped 500 yards during a season in Alford's four years as RBs coach, including four with more than 700 yards.

Alford was a 1,000-yard rusher and a Doak Walker Award nominee while at Colorado State from 1987-90. He gained 1,035 yards in 1989 as a junior under first-year Rams coach Earle Bruce. He had an 80-yard run that year vs. Hawai'i and also set the conference record with 310 yards vs. Utah, a school mark that stood for 24 years. Alford was named first-team all-Western Athletic Conference that season and honorable mention All-America by USA Today. During Alford's senior season Colorado State went 9-4 and went to its first bowl game in 42 years.

A 1992 graduate of Colorado State with a degree in exercise and sport science, Alford went on to play for the NFL's Denver Broncos in preseason action and the Birmingham Fire of the World League prior to entering the coaching profession.

Alford and his wife, Trina, have three sons: Rylan, Kyler and Braydon.

TIM HINTON

Tight Ends Fullbacks

Tim Hinton, who has coached in or recruited the state of Ohio for 33 years, is in his fourth season as the Ohio State tight ends and fullbacks coach.

Hinton is in his 20th collegiate coaching season this year and his 34th year of coaching overall. His coaching resume includes 11 highly successful seasons as the head coach at Harding High School in Marion, Ohio. He led Harding to five state playoff berths and five conference titles and he was the 1995 Ohio Division I co-Coach of the Year.

"Tim is an awesome coach," Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer said. "He and I worked together on the Ohio State staff in 1986, but what I am most impressed with is his time spent as a high school coach in Ohio. He had some outstanding teams at Harding and his extensive experiences coaching in the state were crucial in my desire to want him on our staff."

Hinton's coaching experience includes 19 prior seasons in the collegiate ranks with positions at Ohio State, Wilmington, Ohio, Cincinnati and Notre Dame, where he coached for two seasons prior to coming to Ohio State. Hinton also has 14 years as a head coach at three Ohio high schools: Zane Trace (1987-88); Van Wert (1989) and Harding (1993-2003).

"I have always felt it would be an honor to have an opportunity to coach for and to represent Ohio State," Hinton said. "This is a once in a lifetime opportunity to be able to work with great people and great coaches at such a wonderful place."

While coaching running backs at Notre Dame, Cierre Wood rushed for over 1,000 yards one season and in another year his players fumbled only twice...and in the same game.

Excellent ball protection was also evident among Hinton's running backs at the University of Cincinnati, where he coached six years between 2004-09, including three seasons under former Ohio State assistant and current Michigan State coach Mark Dantonio. Neither of his two leading rushers during the 2009 UC season lost a fumble in 195 carries.

Hinton spent his first three seasons as running backs coach for Dantonio's Bearcats teams. After coaching linebackers for the first year of the Kelly administration, he moved back to running backs for the 2008 and 2009 seasons.

Dantonio pulled Hinton from the high school ranks and back into the college ranks after Hinton's 11-year run at Harding High School, where in addition to directing his teams to five state playoff appearances, he developed 13 players who would go on to major college programs. He was extremely active in the Ohio High School Football Coaches Association, serving as an officer for six years, including vice-president of the organization in 2003.

Three seasons at Ohio University, coaching the wide receivers in 1990 and the defensive line in 1991-92, preceded Hinton's position at Harding and followed his first two head coaching positions at Zane Trace and Van Wert high schools, respectively.

While attending Wilmington College (from which he graduated in 1982 with a degree in industrial education), Hinton was an assistant coach at Amanda-Clearcreek High School for three seasons (1978-80) and then parlayed that experience into a student-assistant position at Wilmington that started in 1981 and concluded in 1984. Wilmington won two conference titles during that time and made two appearances in the NAIA playoffs.

Hinton then enrolled at Ohio State to coach in a graduate assistant capacity for two seasons (1985-86) under Earle Bruce and to work on his master's degree (educational policy and leadership, 1987). The Buckeyes went to two bowl games and earned a share of the 1986 Big Ten championship.

Hinton and his wife, Bev, have two daughters: Dawn and Drew.

ZACH SMITH

Wide Receivers

Zach Smith is in his fourth season as Ohio State's wide receivers coach, and the 2015 season is his fifth year of coaching in a fulltime capacity on the collegiate level. He's developing into a fine coach on and off the field. Consider:

- Three of his 2014 receivers – Evan Spencer, Devin Smith and Michael Thomas – were named honorable mention all-Big Ten Conference;
- Spencer was a team captain and the team MVP; Smith led the nation in yards per catch (28.2); and Thomas led Ohio State in catches (54);
- Smith's leading receiver his first two years at Ohio State – Corey Brown – played for the Carolina Panthers as a rookie in 2014 after serving as a team captain and all-Big Ten Conference selection for the Buckeyes. He also was just the second receiver in Ohio State history to record over 60 receptions in back-to-back seasons; and
- On the recruiting trail, Smith was named as a 2015 Top 25 recruiter by Rivals.com – for the second consecutive year – and he was named in 2014 as the Scout.com Big Ten recruiter of the year.

Smith was hired by Urban Meyer in early 2012 after he previously had been hired by former Meyer assistants Doc Holliday and Steve Addazio. Smith worked for Holliday at Marshall and for Addazio, who is now at Boston College, at Temple. He coached the positions of wide receivers and special teams at each stop.

"I know what a quality coach Zach is," Meyer said. "He knows my system inside and out and he teaches the system the way I want it to be taught."

Smith spent five years as a graduate assistant and quality control assistant for Meyer at Florida, during which time Florida won a pair of national championships while producing some of the best offensive and special teams units in the country. Smith was a special teams quality control coach for three years (2005-07) and an offensive graduate assistant for the 2008 and 2009 seasons. He assisted with coaching the UF wide receivers, including Percy Harvin and Louis Murphy, quarterbacks and special teams during his time in Gainesville.

Smith left Florida to work on Holliday's staff at Marshall for the 2010 season. He then moved on to Temple when Steve Addazio took over in 2011.

LUKE FICKELL

Defensive Coordinator Linebackers

Luke Fickell is Ohio true and true. Born, raised and educated in Columbus, and a proud graduate of The Ohio State University, Fickell is now in his 14th consecutive season coaching at his alma mater, serving in the position of defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. Fickell has been at Ohio State coaching since the 2002 season, and he was the first assistant coach named to Urban Meyer's Ohio State staff in November of 2011.

He has also has the distinction of being a part of two national championship coaching staffs: the 2002 and 2014 Ohio State Buckeye staffs.

During Ohio State's undefeated, 12-0 season of 2012, his defense capped a season-long path of improvement by ranking second-nationally in total defense during the month of November, allowing just 269.7 yards per game. In 2013, Ohio State was 10th against the rush after ranking 14th against the run in 2012.

And last season the Buckeyes cracked the Top 20 in total defense behind a unit that continued to improve each week until, by season's end, it had returned to its "silver bullets" status. The unit recorded the first shutout in Power Five conference history in a conference championship game during a 59-0 victory over Wisconsin. The team limited Heisman Trophy finalist Melvin Gordon to 2.9 yards per carry with a long run of 13 yards and the team to just 258 total yards.

In the College Football Playoff semifinal win over No. 1 Alabama, the defense forced seven Alabama punts and had three interceptions in the last 18 minutes of the game.

And finally, in the national championship game vs. Oregon and Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Marcus Mariota, the defense held the Ducks 100 yards below its total offense average and allowed just 10 points off four Ohio State turnovers.

Ohio State has had some truly outstanding defenses during Fickell's time with the team. In 2005 the unit was fifth in the NCAA in total defense and first in rushing defense. In 2007 the team was first in total defense, first in scoring defense and first in pass defense. In 2009 and 2010, the Buckeyes were fifth and fourth, respectively, in total defense.

Fickell, who was named the American Football Coaches Association assistant coach of the year in 2010 and who has also been named a top recruiter in 2012 by both Rivals and ESPN, was Ohio State's head coach in 2011, a position he accepted on May 30, 2011 without demands, without questions and without any prior head coaching experience. He was asked to step forward and take over a program in need of a steadying influence, and he was just that through a 6-7 campaign.

Fickell was much more than a just a steadying influence. He was a leader through one of the most difficult times in Ohio State athletics history. He kept the team focused and, despite 53 games missed by starters, the constant molding of two first-year quarterbacks and inexperience and youth up and down the lineup, he had the Buckeyes in control of their Big Ten championship destiny going into November.

Prior to Fickell's appointment to head coach, he had been promoted to assistant head coach in March 2011. He also coached the Buckeye linebackers and has served as co-defensive coordinator.

Fickell's coaching career began at Ohio State. After spending a year on the injured reserve list with the New Orleans Saints, he was hired in 1999 as a graduate assistant at Ohio State by his college coach, John Cooper.

Fickell's first full-time coaching position came in 2000 under Lee Owens at Akron, spending two years as defensive line coach. Jim Tressel brought him to Ohio State as special teams coordinator in 2002 and he also worked with the defensive front. He was named linebackers coach in 2004 and added co-defensive coordinator duties to his resume in 2005.

Fickell is a graduate of DeSales High School, where he was a three-time, undefeated state wrestling champion, and he is a 1997 graduate of Ohio State. He played for the Buckeyes from 1992-96, redshirting the first year and then starting the next four seasons at nose guard. He started a school-record 50 consecutive games between 1993 and 1996.

Fickell concluded his Ohio State career with 212 total tackles, including 26 tackles-for-loss and six sacks. During his four years in the starting lineup, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 41-8-1 overall and 26-5-1 in Big Ten play with a pair of Big Ten co-championships. With the win over Arizona State in the Rose Bowl, the Buckeyes finished the 1996 season with a sparkling 11-1 record and were second in the nation in both major polls in the final rankings.

Luke and his wife, Amy (an Ohio State physical therapy graduate), have six children: Landon, Luca, twins sons Aydon and Ashton, and twin sons Laykon and Lucian.

CHRIS ASH

Co-Defensive Coordinator Safeties Coach

Chris Ash was hired by Urban Meyer in January 2014 to help a proud Ohio State defense return to its status among the nation's elite after it had fallen to a ranking of 112 in pass defense in 2013 and to additional rankings of 83rd in pass efficiency and 47th in total defense.

One year later – a year that included Ohio State winning the national championship plus Sugar Bowl and Big Ten Conference championships – and Ash and his defensive coaching peers had the Buckeye defenders back to their “Silver Bullet” status with national rankings of 13th in efficiency, 19th in total defense and 29th against the pass.

In addition, the Buckeyes ranked fourth nationally with 24 interceptions, a total that is topped by only one previous Ohio State team.

“We’ve competed against a Chris Ash defense before and I have respect for him as a coach,” Meyer said when announcing the hiring of Ash. “I like the fact he has experience in the Big Ten Conference and that he is a great recruiter. He was highly recommended by everyone I spoke to.”

A Midwesterner who grew up in Iowa, Ash has coached collegiately for 19 years, including 14 years in the defensive secondary and with five years as a coordinator.

Ash spent 15 years coaching in his home state and in the state of Wisconsin. The defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Arkansas in 2013 and with the same responsibilities in 2011 and 2012 at Wisconsin, Ash viewed the Ohio State opportunity as a once-in-a-career move.

“I was attracted to this position because it is Ohio State,” Ash said, “and I had to wonder if I ever would have this opportunity again. This is one of the top five college football programs in the country. It has tremendous history and tradition, and it is a great academic institution.

“The opportunity to work for Coach Meyer and to learn as a part of his staff will absolutely enhance my knowledge of the game and my coaching experiences.”

KERRY COOMBS

Cornerbacks Special Teams Coordinator

Kerry Coombs is the Ohio State Buckeyes' cornerbacks coach and the team's special teams coordinator. He is in his fourth season as coach of the cornerbacks and he was given the additional responsibility of special teams coordinator by Coach Urban Meyer in February 2013.

The 2015 season will be Coombs' 33rd in coaching, a tenure that includes a highly successful 16-year run as head coach at Colerain High School, located just outside of Cincinnati. As successful a coach as he was in high school, Coombs likes the collegiate coaching experience.

"This team is full of Ohio kids wanting to win a national championship for their state school," Coombs said upon being hired. "It's hard for me to imagine having a better opportunity than this."

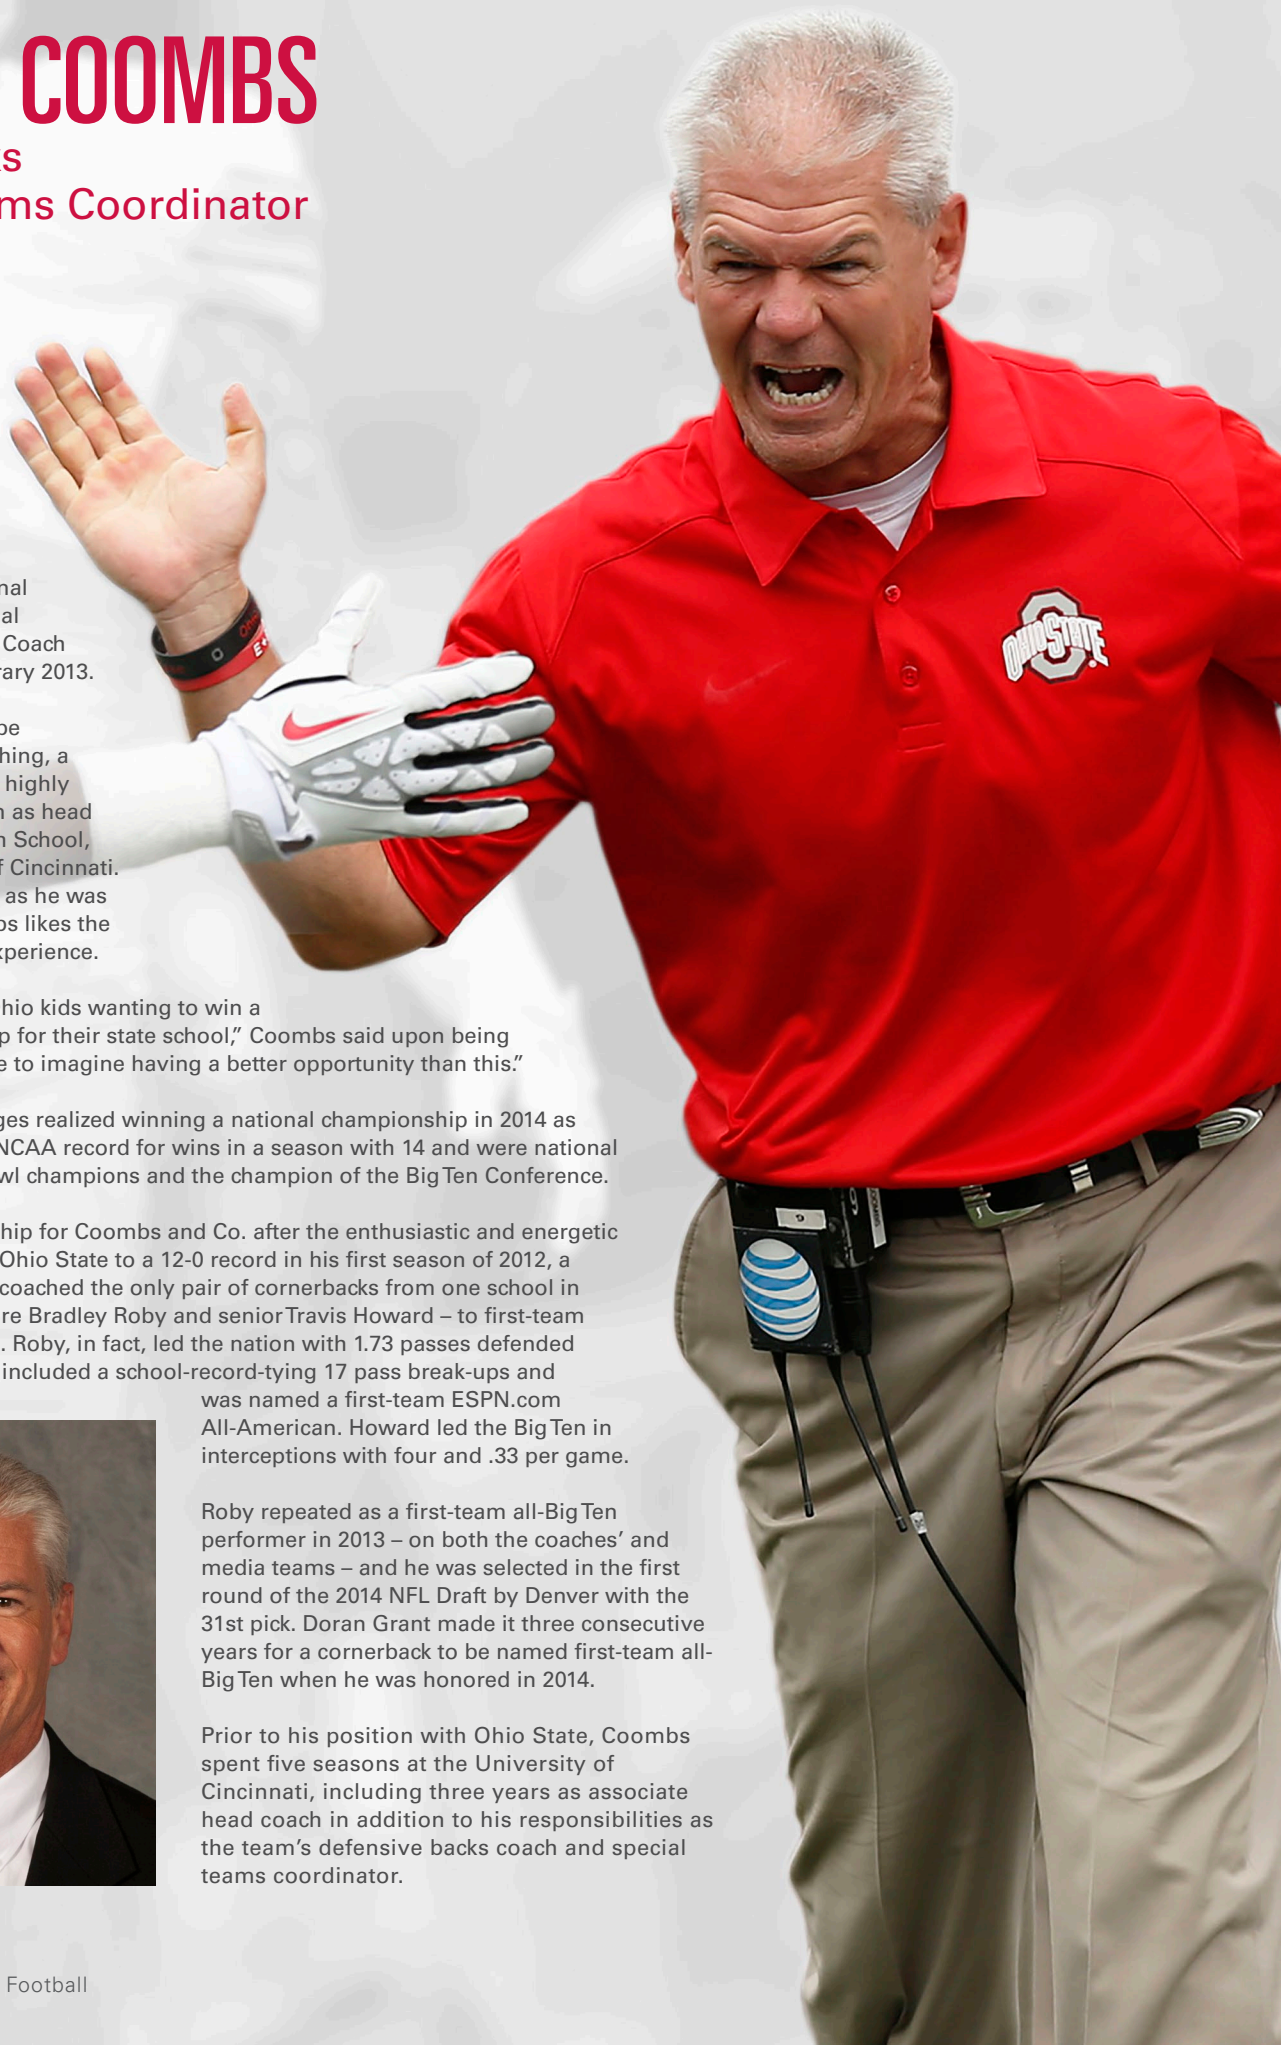

Coombs and his charges realized winning a national championship in 2014 as the Buckeyes tied an NCAA record for wins in a season with 14 and were national champions, Sugar Bowl champions and the champion of the Big Ten Conference.

A national championship for Coombs and Co. after the enthusiastic and energetic Ohioan helped coach Ohio State to a 12-0 record in his first season of 2012, a year in which he also coached the only pair of cornerbacks from one school in the nation – sophomore Bradley Roby and senior Travis Howard – to first-team all-conference honors. Roby, in fact, led the nation with 1.73 passes defended per game, a total that included a school-record-tying 17 pass break-ups and was named a first-team ESPN.com All-American. Howard led the Big Ten in interceptions with four and .33 per game.

Roby repeated as a first-team all-Big Ten performer in 2013 – on both the coaches' and media teams – and he was selected in the first round of the 2014 NFL Draft by Denver with the 31st pick. Doran Grant made it three consecutive years for a cornerback to be named first-team all-Big Ten when he was honored in 2014.

Prior to his position with Ohio State, Coombs spent five seasons at the University of Cincinnati, including three years as associate head coach in addition to his responsibilities as the team's defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator.

Hired away from Colerain by Brian Kelly after the 2006 high school season, Coombs was part of Kelly's three Cincinnati teams that were 33-7 overall and played in BCS bowl games after the 2008 (Orange Bowl vs. Virginia Tech) and 2009 (Sugar Bowl vs. Florida) seasons.

After Kelly left UC for Notre Dame after the 2009 season, Coombs stayed on new UC coach Butch Jones' staff. After an initial 4-8 season under Jones, Cincinnati went 10-3 in 2011 with a Liberty Bowl win over Vanderbilt.

While at UC Coombs mentored three NFL draft picks: second-team All-American and UC career interception leader Mike Mickens (Dallas Cowboys), 2007 NCAA interception leader DeAngelo Smith (Dallas Cowboys) and all-BIG EAST performer Brandon Underwood (Green Bay Packers). He also coached Haruki Nakamura in 2007, his first year at UC and a year the Bearcats led the nation with 26 interceptions.

Coombs is a lifelong Ohioan. He grew up in Colerain, graduated from Colerain High School in 1979 and from the University of Dayton in 1983, and has a master's degree from Wright State (1996).

"Kerry Coombs had an incredible record of achievement as a high school head coach and he is highly regarded as one of the great coaches in Ohio high school football history," Meyer said when he hired Coombs. "I have watched him coach in high school and at the University of Cincinnati and I have great respect for the way he works. He is a strong recruiter. He knows defense and special teams. And he is an excellent teacher."

Coombs was a member of the University of Dayton's 1980 Division III national championship team while studying secondary education. He then charged through the high school ranks: spending two seasons as an assistant at Greenhills High School and four at Lakota before taking over as head coach at Loveland in 1989. Two years later – 1991 – he took over at Colerain.

In 16 seasons at Colerain Coombs' teams went to 10 state playoffs, including five state semifinal berths. His 2004 team won the Division I state championship with a 15-0 mark that included a record-setting title game win over Canton McKinley, 50-10. It was – and still is – the most points scored and the largest margin of victory in the Ohio "big school" state title game.

Colerain won seven consecutive Greater Miami Conference championships under Coombs from 2000-06, and Coombs had a 161-34 record as head coach. His overall head coaching record through 18 seasons is 167-48.

Coombs sent five of his Colerain players to Ohio State, including Jefferson Kelley in the mid-1990s and most recently Connor and Spencer Smith and Tyler Moeller.

Coombs and his wife, Holly, are the parents of three grown children: son Brayden played collegiately at Miami (Ohio) and is currently on staff with the Cincinnati Bengals; daughter Cortney played soccer at Ball State; and son Dylan is in the Lindner Honors Plus business program at the University of Cincinnati.

LARRY JOHNSON

Assistant Head Coach Defensive Line

Highly regarded defensive line coach Larry Johnson is in his second season with the Ohio State football program. During his first season with the Buckeyes, he helped the team win Big Ten, Sugar Bowl and national championships while two of his student-athletes – Joey Bosa and Michael Bennett – earned first team All-America honors. Bosa was a consensus All-American and was named the Big Ten Conference's defensive and defensive lineman of the year as well.

Johnson, who spent 18 years coaching talented student-athletes and recruiting the east coast as a member of the Penn State University coaching staff, was named assistant head coach and defensive line coach at The Ohio State University in early January, 2014.

"I am very pleased that Larry Johnson is an Ohio State Buckeye," Ohio State coach Urban Meyer said upon hiring Johnson. "I have great respect for him as a family man, as a coach and mentor of young men, and as a recruiter. He is an outstanding addition to our coaching staff."

Johnson, who grew up in Williamston, N.C., and is a 1973 graduate of Elizabeth City (N.C.) State University with a degree in health and physical education, coached along the defensive line for 18 years at Penn State, including the last 14 seasons (2000-13) overseeing the entire unit. He spent his first four seasons at Penn State – 1996-99 – as defensive ends coach and special team's coordinator.

Ohio State is Johnson's second collegiate coaching stop. His career includes 20 years of high school coaching in Maryland and Virginia.

"In just a few hours I can tell that Ohio State cares about football," Johnson said. "There is a winning tradition that is important here. They care about academics and they care about players, and I like the way Coach Urban Meyer approaches things. He's a great teacher. He is very organized and this is what I was looking for."

Johnson's list of coaching accomplishments while at Penn State was impressive:

- Six of his defensive linemen were first-round NFL draft picks, including No. 1 overall pick Courtney Brown in 2000 and also featuring Jimmy Kennedy (2002), Michael Haynes (2003), Tamba Hali (2006), Jared Odrick (2010) and Aaron Mabin (2009).
- Seven of his defensive linemen achieved first-team All-American status (the six in the first note above and Devon Still).
- PSU defensive linemen earned 22 Academic All-Big Ten Conference honors.
- Three of his position players earned Academic All-American status (Tim Shaw in 2006 and Pete Massaro in 2010 and 2012).
- Fifteen Nittany Lion defensive linemen were named first-team all-Big Ten Conference.

No Big Ten team (since 1996) had as many players from one position earn Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors then the five Nittany Lion honorees that Johnson mentored. Bosa is his sixth such award winner.

In addition, he coached on a Penn State defense that led the nation in sacks between 2005 and 2009 and was No. 5 nationally in rushing defense from 2004-10. And between 1996 and 2013 Penn State's defense was a Big Ten Conference statistical champion 14 times, including four times in quarterback sacks and three times in scoring defense.

"I'm a relationship guy and I think in order to get the best out of your players you have to develop relationships," Johnson said. "I'm also a teacher. I like to teach the basic fundamentals of football. I want guys who are fundamentally sound and have the ability to play fast and to play relentless."

Johnson spent the first 20 years of his career as a highly successful high school coach. Six times chosen as the Washington Metropolitan Area coach of the year, he guided McDonough High School in Pomfret, Md., to three Maryland state championships and to a 139-36 record between 1975-91, and he also was coach two seasons (1992-93) at T.C. Williams High School in Alexandria, Va. He started his coaching career in 1974 at Lackey High School in LaPlata, Md.

As a player, Johnson was an NAIA All-American and all-conference performer at Elizabeth City State University. He was inducted into the school's sports Hall of Fame in 1990. He played one year in the NFL, with the Washington Redskins in 1973.

Johnson and his wife, Christine, are the parents of two sons – Larry Jr. and Tony – and a daughter, Teresa. Larry Jr. and Tony both played football at Penn State with Larry Jr. rushing for a school record 2,087 yards in 2002 and later becoming a first-round draft pick of the Kansas City Chiefs and a two-time Pro Bowl selection. Teresa played softball for the Nittany Lions.

MICKEY MAROTTI

Assistant AD for Football Sports Performance

Mickey Marotti is in his fourth season as the assistant athletic director for football sports performance at Ohio State and his 29th season as a coach. He is the person Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer trusts in the critical area of strength and conditioning training and overseeing sports performance, and he is an individual Meyer has worked with or hired four times.

"There are times in the year when the strength staff has more contact with the team than the coaching staff," Meyer said, "and I have complete trust in Mickey Marotti's abilities to prepare our student-athletes to be the strongest, fastest and mentally toughest football players they can be."

Marotti, called a "master" of motivation and mental preparation by Meyer, is indeed that: he has coached three teams now that have won national championships: the 2006 and 2008 Florida Gators and the 2014 Ohio State Buckeyes.

His work with the Buckeyes last season earned him American Football Monthly's FBS Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year award.

Marotti first worked with Meyer when the two were graduate assistants at Ohio State, in 1987. Marotti earned a master's of arts degree in strength and conditioning from Ohio State before moving on to the University of West Virginia to be a strength assistant. He spent two years at WVU and graduated with a master's of science degree in sports medicine.

From there he went on to the University of Cincinnati, where he spent seven seasons (1990-97) as head strength and conditioning coach for UC's 20-sport program. He also worked in the areas of diet analysis and planning and assisted in student-athlete rehabilitation from injuries.

Midway through Meyer's five-year run as an assistant coach at Notre Dame, Marotti had the opportunity to work with him again when he was named Notre Dame's director of strength and conditioning in 1998. He spent seven seasons in South Bend, coordinating all aspects of the strength and conditioning program for the 26-sport department, including developing a year-round program for the football team, coordinating camps, clinics and special events, and developing policies and regulations.

Marotti was then one of Meyer's first hires when he took over as head coach of Florida in early 2005. And from 2005-11 Marotti oversaw the complete strength and conditioning programs for all of Florida's intercollegiate sports. He also served as the director of the football athletic performance team.

Unique in the fact he is one of approximately 100 strength trainers to hold a Master of Strength and Conditioning – the highest honor in his profession – certification, Marotti is also atypical in the things he has his players do that all lead to developing a mental and physical edge.

"I believe the strength staffs that Mickey has led have been the best staffs in college football," Meyer said. "He is the best there is at developing physically and mentally tough football players."

Marotti's talents helped Florida develop 22 All-Americans and eight first-round NFL draft choices during his seven years in Gainesville. And there is no disputing the team accomplishments the Gators achieved: two national championships, two Southeastern Conference championships and three 13-win seasons.

The well-conditioned and mentally tough Ohio State Buckeyes have been one of the best teams in the nation over the past three seasons. The team's 38-3 record from 2012-14 includes a school-record 24-game winning streak, only the sixth undefeated season in school history in 2012 (12-0) and a national championship in 2014.

Six Buckeyes have been named first-team All-American during this time: CB Bradley Roby and DT Johnathan Hankins in 2012; LB Ryan Shazier and OT Jack Mewhort in 2013; and DE Joey Bosa and DT Michael Bennett this past season. Additionally, Buckeyes were named the Big Ten Conference's Defensive Player of the Year (John Simon in 2012 and Joey Bosa in 2014), Defensive Lineman of the Year (Simon and Bosa in 2012 and 2014, respectively), Offensive Player of the Year (Braxton Miller in 2012 and 2013), quarterback of the Year (Miller in 2012 and 2013 and J.T. Barrett in 2014), Running Back of the Year (Carlos Hyde in 2013) and Chicago Tribune MVP (Miller in 2012 and 2013).

A native of Ambridge, Pa., Marotti was a four-year letterwinner as a fullback for West Liberty (W.Va.) University, serving as a team tri-captain in 1986 and winning first team NAIA All-Academic honors in 1987. He is a 1987 graduate of West Liberty with a degree in exercise physiology.

Marotti and his wife, the former Susan Laffey, have a son, Mitchell, and a daughter, Maddie, both of whom attend Ohio State. Maddie is a member of the OSU softball team.

VINCE OKRUCH

Quality Control Coach – Kicking Game / Defense

Vince Okruch joined the Ohio State football staff in the spring of 2013. He assists with quality control for the kicking game and the defense, and he also provides administrative responsibilities.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y. and a graduate of Culver-Stockton College in Canton, Mo., Okruch brings a wealth of collegiate coaching and administrative experience to the Ohio State program. He has 34 years of coaching experience on the collegiate level, including most recently, a three-year stay at the University of Akron where he coached on the defensive side of the ball from 2009-2011 and also served as special teams coordinator.

Okruch has 15 years of experience coaching in the Big Ten with stops at Minnesota, where he coached under Lou Holtz and John Gutekunst, Northwestern (Gary Barnett) and Illinois (Ron Zook). Okruch coached alongside Barnett for a total of 12 years, including five seasons at the University of Colorado.

Okruch earned four letters playing both quarterback and tight end at Culver-Stockton, and he also was a member of its baseball team. After completing his bachelor's degree in physical education, he went on to earn his master's degree at Northeast Missouri State in 1980.

He and his wife, Janet, have two grown children; a daughter, Taylor, and a son, Jordan.

MATT THURIN

Quality Control Coach – Defense

Matt Thurin is in his first season with the Ohio State Buckeyes football program and is working as a defensive quality control staff member.

A native of Louisville, Ohio, Thurin attended Baldwin Wallace University where he played football and baseball before an injury ended his playing career. He played for Baldwin Wallace's 2003 Division III playoff team and graduated in 2007 with a degree in early childhood education. He has a master's in sports science and coaching from Akron (2009).

Thurin comes to Columbus after working the past three seasons as secondary coach and special team's coordinator at Columbia University. In 2011, Thurin was a graduate assistant at the University of Colorado, working along the offensive line and on special teams. Prior to that, he spent three seasons at Akron as a defensive graduate assistant working with the Zip linebackers and secondary. Thurin's coaching career also includes a year at Walsh University.

Thurin is a newlywed. He and Elizabeth Tinto, who is from Chesapeake, Va., were married July 4, 2015.

JIM CORDLE

Graduate Assistant – Offense

Former Ohio State Buckeye Jim Cordle is in his first season as a graduate assistant. He works with coach Ed Warinner and the team's offensive linemen and offers a unique perspective to the Buckeye lineman as he played and started at three positions in college: tackle, guard and center.

Cordle was a three-year starter on Ohio State teams that won Big Ten championships in 2007, 2008 and 2009. Cordle started 33 times during those three seasons and played in 41 games as a Buckeye. Ohio State, in fact, won a Big Ten title every year Cordle was with the program, a run that started during his true freshman campaign in 2005 and extended five years through his senior year of 2009.

After graduating from Ohio State in 2009 with a degree in business administration, Cordle was signed by the New York Giants, where he played four seasons with the National Football League club. He played in 33 games along the offensive line, started seven times and was part of the Giants Super Bowl XLVI championship team.

Cordle, who is married to the former Kerry McNally, from Canfield, Ohio, is working on his master's degree in Ohio State's sports management program. The couple has a young son, Hunter.

BRIAN MASONGraduate Assistant – Defense

Brian Mason is in his first season as a graduate assistant coach for the Buckeyes. He works with coach Luke Fickell and the team's linebackers.

Mason is in his seventh year as a football coach, having previously worked six seasons in the collegiate ranks with positions at Bluffton (2009-11), Kent State (2012) and the past two seasons as a graduate assistant coach on Darrell Hazell's staff at Purdue University. He also worked with Hazel at Kent State.

A native of Zionsville, Ind., Mason is a 2009 graduate of Denison University with degrees in economics and history. He spent two seasons as a running back with the football program before an injury forced him from the game, but into coaching as he spent his final two seasons in Granville as a student coach.

Mason has master's degrees from Bluffton in education (2012) and from Purdue in recreation and sports management (2014). He is continuing post-graduate studies in Ohio State's sports management program.

MATT MERRITTGraduate Assistant – Offense

Matt Merritt is in his third season working with the Ohio State football program and his first year as a graduate assistant coach for the offensive skill positions. He works closely with wide receiver's coach Zach Smith in this position after previously having worked with running backs coach Stan Drayton and his unit during the 2013 season and the 2014 national championship-winning season.

Born and raised in Frankfurt, Germany, Merritt attended the International School of Brussels in Belgium before spending his last two years of high school and, graduating from, Indian Hill H.S. in suburban Cincinnati.

Merritt attended Capital University and was a four-year member of its football team, a three-year letterman and a three-year starter as a running back/wide receiver. He had 542 rushing yards for an NCAA-playoff Capital team in 2007 and he had six rushing touchdowns in 2009. He finished with 1,099 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns (three receiving) and Capital qualified for the Division III playoffs twice during Merritt's time with the team.

Merritt graduated from Capital in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in education. He is working on his master's degree in kinesiology at Ohio State.

VINCE OGHOBAAASEGraduate Assistant – Defense

Vince Oghobaase is in his third season as a graduate assistant coach with the Buckeyes. He joined the Ohio State staff in 2013 and works with the team's defensive linemen, under the direction of coach Larry Johnson.

A native of Houston, Texas, Oghobaase was a four-year letterman, a team captain and a two-time honorable mention all-ACC performer at Duke University between 2006-09. He played in 44 games and is among the school's all-time leaders in sacks (14.0) and tackles for loss (36.5).

Oghobaase graduated from Duke in 2010 (sociology) and signed a free agent contract with the Miami Dolphins. He also spent time on the Washington Redskins' practice squad. He was a member of the Duke graduate assistant staff in 2011. He is working on his master's degree in sports administration at Ohio State.

16 J.T. BARRETT

Quarterback | 6-1, 225, So.

Wichita Falls, Texas | Rider H.S.

Ohio State Overview: J.T. Barrett is the reigning Big Ten Conference quarterback of the year who went 11-1 as a freshman starting quarterback while setting 19 school and Big Ten Conference records, and he will be competing to win the job as Ohio State's starting quarterback in fall camp ... is coming off an injured ankle that occurred in the last game of the 2014 regular season vs. Michigan and caused him to miss the remainder of the season ... competed in some throwing drills during spring ball while continuing to rehabilitate the ankle ... is a third-year junior academically who is a sophomore eligibility-wise after a red-shirt season in 2013 ... he is majoring in communications.

2014 Season (Freshman): Barrett earned the back-up quarterback role during fall camp and two days later was elevated to No. 1 signal caller when two-time Big Ten player and quarterback of the year Braxton Miller re-injured his shoulder and was lost for the season ... Barrett was outstanding in relief of Miller ... he went 11-1 as the starting quarterback, including an 8-0 record in Big Ten starts to position the Buckeyes into the Big Ten championship game for the second year in a row ... before breaking an ankle against Michigan on the first play of the fourth quarter with the Buckeyes leading 28-21, Barrett had set 19 school records – two Big Ten and 17 Ohio State – and had put together such an outstanding season – a school-record 3,772 total yards including 2,834 passing yards and 938 rushing yards; a Big Ten record 45 total touchdowns – that he would be named the Big Ten's Griese-Brees Quarterback of the Year, its Thompson-Randle El Freshman of the Year and its first-team all-conference quarterback at the conclusion of the season ... finished fifth in the 2014 Heisman Trophy voting and was a second-team All-American by The Sporting News ... named a freshman All-American by USA Today, Athlon's and Scout.com and was a finalist for the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award as the best offensive player from the state of Texas ... set a Big Ten record by being named conference freshman of the week seven times ... was named a player of the week by the Big Ten or a national/regional entity 17 times (Big Ten freshman of the week seven times; Big Ten offensive player of the week three times; Maxwell Club national player, Athlon's national player and freshman – twice, and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose national player of the week – twice) ... he tied a school record with six touchdown passes vs. Kent State while connecting with a 25-year Ohio State best 11 different receivers ... had the second-most offensive yards in school history – 409 – vs. Cincinnati, including a personal best 330 yards passing and five touchdowns responsible for ... in white-out conditions at Penn State, Barrett rushed for two overtime touchdowns and played entire second half on a sprained MCL to lead the Buckeyes to the win ... threw for 300 yards, rushed for 86 and accounted for five touchdowns in road win at Michigan State and the Spartans' No. 5-ranked total defense ... came just 11 yards from a near-historic 200-yard rushing and 200-yard passing game vs. Minnesota with school-quarterback records of 189 rushing yards and an 86-yard touchdown rush, part of the 389-yard day ... staked the Buckeyes to a 28-21 lead entering the fourth quarter vs. Michigan with 131 passing yards, 89 rushing yards and three total touchdowns before his injury ... elected to forego the hospital visit right after breaking his ankle; instead opting to watch the rest of the game from the stands, in uniform and with fans' in absolute awe that he was sitting among them ... completed at least 70 percent of his passes in five games and at least 60 percent of his passes in 11 of his 12 starts ... finished 2nd nationally to Marcus Mariota in passing efficiency (169.8 rating) and was 10th nationally in total offense (314.3 yards per game) while leading the Big Ten in both categories ... also finished second in the Big Ten in passing yards per game (236.2) and ninth in rushing (78.2).

More on J.T.: Joe Thomas (J.T.) Barrett enrolled at Ohio State in January 2013 and spent the spring season working out, but not running, while recovering from his 2012 knee surgery ... he was considered one of the nation's premier dual threat quarterbacks in the Class of 2013, although his senior season came to an early end with a knee injury in the fifth game of the season ... rated as the No. 11 prospect in talent-rich Texas (247Sports) and a consensus four-star cornerback (ESPN, Rivals, Scout, 247Sports) ... a top 150 player by both Scout and 247Sports and on the ESPN 300 ... Barrett rushed for 569 yards with seven touchdowns and passed for 784 yards and five scores as a senior prior to the injury ... he rushed for over 1,500 yards with nine touchdowns and passed for over 1,600 yards and 14 touchdowns for coach Jim Garfield's Raiders as a junior ... he is the son of Stacy and Joe Barrett and he has two brothers: Xavier and Stephen.

68 TAYLOR DECKER

Offensive Lineman | 6-8, 315, Sr.
Vandalia, Ohio | Butler H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Taylor Decker is the leader of an offensive line that has been one of the best in college football over his two seasons as a starter and, according to Ohio State coaches, expect this mammoth, animal sciences major to contend for national honors and major awards as a senior in 2015 ... a first-team preseason All-American by The Sporting News and Athlon Sports and second-team by Phil Steele (so far) ... Decker is also a high-character individual and one of the most conscientious men on the squad ... after hearing Decker speak one day following the terrible news surrounding a fallen teammate, one media member said Decker “handled himself with incredible poise with probably 50 media members crowded around him looking for answers about Kosta Karageorge, and he patiently addressed them all with thoughtful, insightful responses that were incredibly helpful in painting a clearer picture of a player hardly any of us knew in any way” ... his leadership is also represented in the fact he is a three-time “Iron Buckeye” award winner, which is awarded to six players bi-annually for unquestioned physical training dedication, determination, discipline, toughness and leadership ... one of the most experienced offensive linemen in the country, Decker has played in all 41 of Ohio State’s games the past three seasons and totaled over 2,300 offensive snaps ... he has also started 29 consecutive games with the Buckeyes posting a 26-3 record in that time ... Decker & Co. have helped pave the way for 28 individual 100-yard rushing games by six different Buckeyes in the last three years ... the Buckeyes have also topped 300-yards rushing as a team 10 times during that stretch and the team’s 285.9 yards per game average the last two years is fourth-best nationally ... the team’s 6.8 and 5.7 yards per carry averages in 2013 and 2014, respectively, are the top two averages in school history ... typically carries one of the most impressive course loads on the team ... Decker has also made time to intern the past two summers with the world famous Columbus Zoo and Aquarium.

2014 Season (Junior): Decker started all 15 games at left tackle and earned second-team all-Big Ten Conference honors by both the coaches and the media voters ... helped pave the way for Ohio State rushers to gain 3,967 yards on the ground, the second-highest total in school history, and rank eighth nationally with over 264 yards per game ... the 2014 Buckeye offense also set school records for touchdowns (90), points scored (637), passing yards (3,707) and passing touchdowns (42) this year ... Decker logged 1,034 offensive plays, including a personal best 107 vs. Cincinnati and 85 against Oregon in the national championship game.

2013 Season (Sophomore): Decker started all 14 games and was part of an offensive line that helped the Buckeyes’ record-setting offense to a ranking of fifth nationally in rushing (308.6 yards per game) while shattering school records for points scored (637), touchdowns (87) and touchdown passes (38) ... he played more snaps from scrimmage – 941 – than every other offensive player and he ranked fifth on the team in total plays ... he had games of 92 plays on offense vs. California and 76 vs. both Michigan State and Clemson, respectively.

2012 Season (Freshman): Decker enrolled at Ohio State in March 2012 and in time for the start of the 2012 spring drills ... he played in all 12 games for the undefeated Buckeyes in 2012, mostly on special teams ... he did earn snaps from the line of scrimmage in four games, including 22 offensive plays against Illinois ... he earned the first of his three Varsity O letters.

More on Taylor: Decker was a three-year starter at tackle for Vandalia Butler and a three-year letterman in basketball, and he was good enough on the hardwood to draw interest from mid-majors ... as a senior in 2011 he helped the Aviators to a 6-4 record on the gridiron, the school’s first winning record in eight years, and he was named first-team Division II all-state by the Associated Press ... he was rated the No. 23 offensive tackle in the nation by Rivals.com and a four-star prospect by the site ... also rated the No. 77 player nationally and the No. 7 senior in the state of Ohio in 2011 by Scout.com (No. 14 by Rivals.com) ... a member of the Rivals 250 ... he is the son of Ron and Sheila Decker.

Offensive Lineman | 6-3, 300, Jr.

Pickerington North H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Pat Elflein is a physical, no-nonsense young man who is personable, an excellent team representative and regarded as one of the top offensive linemen in the country ... he is a returning first-team all-Big Ten Conference guard who picked up preseason All-America consideration this summer from Athlon Sports and Phil Steele's ... Elflein's solid character is represented in the fact he is a 2015 "Iron Buckeye" award winner, which is awarded to six players bi-annually for unquestioned physical training dedication, determination, discipline, toughness and leadership ... a fourth-year junior, he is now a veteran of 29 games and 16 starts along the line ... he has played on offensive lines that boast the top two yards per carry averages in school history: 6.8 yards in 2013 and 5.7 yards last season ... he is a fine student, having earned three OSU Scholar-Athlete awards and one Academic All-Big Ten Conference honor ... he is majoring in communications and is a two-time Varsity O letterwinner.

2014 Season (Sophomore): Elflein started all 15 games for the College Football Playoff national champions ... opened the season at left guard and started the first three games there, but moved to right guard for the final 12 games ... helped the Buckeyes to a Top 10 national ranking in rushing (eighth) with just over 264 yards per game ... the offense was outstanding all around, with school records for touchdowns (90), points scored (637), passing yards (3,707) and passing touchdowns (42) as well ... Elflein was named first-team all-Big Ten Conference by the league's coaches ... he and his offensive line teammates paved the way for Ezekiel Elliott to become the first running back in school history to rush for 200 yards in consecutive games.

2013 Season (Freshman): Elflein was a reserve lineman as a red-shirt freshman and played in all 14 games to earn his first Varsity O letter ... he played 57 snaps on offense in Ohio State's overwhelming win over Florida A&M and then had several series worth of offensive snaps vs. Penn State and Purdue before being called in to play three quarters against Michigan ... his play against the Wolverines in the one-point win earned him the start in the Big Ten championship game vs. Michigan State ... he played every snap vs. the Spartans.

2012 Season: A foot injury kept Elflein on the sidelines for much of the 2012 season and he ended up red-shirting as a true freshman.

More on Pat: Elflein is exploring majors ... he didn't wrestle with his decision about which school to attend once he received a scholarship offer from Ohio State ... as a result, the Buckeyes' recruiting class secured two of the 2011 Associated Press first-team Division I all-state offensive linemen: Elflein and Jacoby Boren, from cross-town school Pickerington Central ... in Elflein, the No. 22 offensive guard prospect in the nation by ESPN and the No. 31 guard by Scout.com, the Buckeyes got a rock solid worker, someone who spent his high school summers pouring and breaking up concrete ... a four-year football letterman and a two-time football team captain, Elflein earned 12 letters in his high school career, four each in the sports of football, wrestling and track and field ... he was named in football to all-Ohio Capital Conference, all-Central District and to the Dispatch's all-Metro teams ... he was the 2011 wrestler of the year in the OCC and was a state and national qualifier ... an older brother, Matt, played linebacker for Ohio Dominican ... the boys are the sons of Lisa and Kenneth Elflein.

15 EZEKIEL ELLIOTT

Running Back | 6-0, 225, Jr.

St. Louis | John Burroughs H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Ezekiel Elliott enters the 2015 season as one of the best, if not the best, running back in college football and he is considered by many as the favorite to win the 2015 Heisman Trophy ... he is the nation's leading returning rusher (in terms of yards gained), coming off an 1,878-yard rushing season with 18 touchdowns ... those totals included 52 rushes of 10-or-more yards which ranked second nationally in 2014, and 10 touchdowns of 10-or-more yards ... he also was tied for first in most 80-plus yard runs (two) and his five 50-plus yard runs ranked sixth ... his three 200-yard rushing games rank third nationally among active players ... Elliott's talent is considerable, and it came clear on the national stage during Ohio State's three-game post-season run last year ... his efforts in helping Ohio State win college football's first College Football Playoff national championship, including earning offensive MVP honors in both the Sugar Bowl and College Football Playoff national championship game, helped Elliott win the 85th James E. Sullivan Award as America's top amateur athlete in April ... personable to all who approach him, Elliott is a fan favorite and really quick with a smile ... he had a neat dialogue with President Obama about his "crop-top" jersey, when Ohio State visited the White House in April ... threw out the first pitch for his hometown St. Louis Cardinals in May ... Elliott is also a terrific student, earning Academic All-Big Ten honors last season and twice being named an OSU Scholar-Athlete ... he is majoring in marketing.

2014 Season (Sophomore): Elliott had a fine regular season campaign, rushing for 1,182 yards and 10 touchdowns to earn honorable mention all-Big Ten honors in a league stacked with outstanding running backs ... and then he was a star among numerous stars in Ohio State's three-game run to win the College Football Playoff national championship with 696 yards rushing and eight touchdowns in the three games ... he rushed for a Big Ten championship game record 220 yards and scored two touchdowns, including a championship game record 81-yard rush, in Ohio State's 59-0 win over Wisconsin in the Big Ten title game ... in the Allstate Sugar Bowl, he sparked the Buckeyes to a 42-35 win over No. 1 Alabama with 230 rushing yards and two touchdowns, including a Sugar Bowl and Ohio State bowl game-record 85-yard rush to cap the scoring and earn offensive MVP honors ... in the College Football Playoff National Championship game, he led an offensive charge with an Ohio State bowl game-record 246 rushing yards and four touchdowns in the 42-20 victory to again earn game offensive MVP honors ... he finished the season with 1,878 yards rushing, the second-highest single-season total in school history next to Eddie George's 1,927 yards in 1995 ... he also became the first Buckeye back ever to have consecutive 200-yard rushing games, a record that is current at three games ... topped 100 yards nine times and has a current streak of five consecutive 100-yard games ... scored at least one touchdown in the final five games of the season (11 total) ... a fine receiver out of the backfield, Elliott caught 28 passes for 228 yards ... became only the third Buckeye to top 2,000 all-purpose yards in a season with 2,114, trailing only the totals of Keith Byars (2,441 in 1984) and Eddie George (2,344 in 1995).

ELLIOTT

2013 Season (Freshman): Elliott saw backfield action in nine games and played in 11 as a true freshman playing behind second-round NFL Draft pick and Big Ten running back of the year Carlos Hyde ... he carried the football 30 times for 262 yards and an impressive 8.7 yards per carry average ... most of his work as a rusher came in the Florida A&M game when he rushed 14 times for 162 yards in a little more than one quarter and scored twice: off runs of 16 and 13 yards ... he had a season's long rush of 57 yards in the game ... Elliott also had three receptions for 23 yards and one score, with all of those stats coming in the Purdue game.

95 CAMERON JOHNSTON

Punter | 5-11, 195, Jr.

Geelong, Australia | St. Joseph's

Ohio State Overview: Cameron Johnston has been outstanding in his two seasons as Ohio State's punter and his two seasons as a punter, ever ... had not played football before arriving in the United States in the summer of 2013 ... he has the third-best career punting average in school history – 44.5 yards – and he also owns the third-most punts downed inside the 20 (120) in school history (57) ... his placement has been particularly impressive, as he has ranked among the nation's leaders each year in percentage of punts downed I20 – first in 2013 and second in 2014 – and unofficially inside the 10 (I10) – first in 2013 and second in 2014 ... by way of contrast, only seven of Johnston's 97 career punts have resulted in a touchback, and Ohio State's net punting average has been Top 5 in each of the past two seasons ... Johnston is a true junior and is majoring in sport industry.

2014 Season (Sophomore): Johnston was outstanding for the College Football Playoff national champions, averaging a Big Ten-best 45.1 yards off 48 punts while helping the team lead the Big Ten in net punting average at 41.8 ... he was a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award and was named honorable mention all-Big Ten ... his average would have been in the Top 10 nationally, but Johnston did not have the NCAA minimum of 3.6 punts per game to qualify ... unofficially, according to stats compiled by the FBS SIDs, Johnston ranked second nationally in both percentage of punts downed I20 (54.1 pct.; 26 of 48) and those downed I10 (31.2 pct.; 15 of 48) ... produced four games with over a 50-yard punting average, including a Big Ten championship game record average of 53.0 yards-per-punt ... had a Big Ten title game record 73-yard punt vs. the Badgers ... averaged 45.0 yards on six punts at Beaver Stadium vs. Penn State with four downed inside the 20 and two downed I10 ... Penn State ultimately punted after each of Johnston's punts that were downed I20 ... Johnston earned his second Varsity O letter.

2013 Season (Freshman): Johnston led all Big Ten punters with a 44.0 per punt average – 16th-best nationally – and was named a second-team freshman All-American by College Football News ... he also lead the nation in percentage of punts downed inside the 20 at 63.3 percent (31 of 49) and he ranked second nationally with 28.6 percent of his punts downed inside the 10 (14 of 49) ... almost 50 percent of his punts were fair caught (24 of 49) and, as a team, Ohio State was fifth nationally in net punting (40.8) ... Johnston had a long kick of 71 yards and nine of his punts travelled over 50 yards ... he was named Big Ten special teams player of the week after punting six times vs. Wisconsin and dropping all six inside the 20 and five inside the 10 ... he broke the school single game record by averaging 57.0 yards per punt vs. Illinois (Tom Skladany had held the mark for 37 years with his 52.3 average in 1976 vs. Michigan) ... Johnston bested his previous career long of 61 yards three times vs. Illinois, with his six punts travelling 63, 50, 64, 53, 71 and 41 yards.

More on Cameron: Johnston is a 22-year-old former Australian Rules Football player ... Ohio State needed a punter in the summer of 2013 and after Johnston's tapes reached special team's coordinator Kerry Coombs, the coaches ultimately signed him to a National Letter of Intent to attend Ohio State and play for the Buckeyes ... he came out of the Melbourne-based punter/kicker training ground Prokick Australia, where he trained under the tutelage of Nathan Chapman ... Johnston joins a number of Prokick Australia alums in college football.

JOHNSTON

12 CARDALE JONES

Quarterback | 6-5, 250, Jr.

Cleveland, Ohio | Glenville H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Cardale Jones took all the reps as the team's No. 1 quarterback during the 2015 spring drills as he was the only one of the Big 3 – Braxton Miller and J.T. Barrett are the other two – who was healthy enough to do so ... freshman Stephen Collier was his backup ... Jones' spring plan, according to coach Urban Meyer, was to "get a million reps" and to continue to improve because "with reps, he became a very functional player for us" ... Meyer also referred to Jones as being "still raw" and "almost an older rookie" so the spring was his to learn and grow from ... it will take quite an effort, though, for anyone to top what Jones did in his first three starts as a collegiate quarterback, leading the Buckeyes to a Big Ten championship game win over No. 13 Wisconsin, a Sugar Bowl win over No. 1-ranked Alabama in the College Football Playoff semifinals, and a CFB Playoff national championship game win over No. 2 Oregon ... Jones is the first Ohio State quarterback to win three post-season games, and, to accomplish that feat in his first three starts on the stage he was on, well words – amazing, outstanding, crazy, ridiculous unreal, holy cow and wow! – simply don't reflect the magnitude of the effort ... he was nominated for an ESPY in the "breakout" player category for his efforts ... Jones is a true hero for his efforts, and for more reasons than quarterbacking Ohio State to its eighth national championship: three days after the Oregon win he told a live national television audience in a high school packed with impressionable teenagers that he was returning to Ohio State for the 2015 season because "...one of the most important things for me is to graduate" ... Jones, who has been named an OSU Scholar-Athlete, will continue working toward his degree in African-American studies this year while vying with his talented teammates to be Ohio State's starting quarterback.

JONES

2014 Season (Sophomore): Jones, as the No. 2 quarterback, had seen action in six games and 92 plays – with 67 of the plays in 66- and 41-point blowouts – through the first 11 games of the season and was 8-of-14 passing for 114 yards ... and then J.T. Barrett injured his ankle on the first play of the fourth quarter against Michigan with Ohio State holding a 28-21 lead ... the legend of Cardale Jones took a right turn right then ... Jones guided the Buckeyes on a 10-play, 80-yard touchdown drive on his first full series, including completing 2-of-3 passes and running 18 yards for a first down on a second-and-15 play from the Ohio State 29 ... four plays later Ohio State led 35-21 on its way to a 42-28 rivalry game win ... one week later in his first collegiate start, he completed 12 of 17 passes for 257 yards and three touchdowns to spark Ohio State to a 59-0 Big Ten championship game win over Wisconsin and its nationally ranked, No. 2 total defense ... Jones hit Devin Smith for three long scores – covering 39, 44 and 42 yards – and was named MVP of the game ... four weeks later he was equally impressive against Alabama and its No. 11 ranked defense: throwing for 243 yards and another long touchdown pass to Devin Smith (47 yards), plus rushing for 43 yards in the 42-35 win ... he directed the Buckeyes to 537 yards of offense vs. the Crimson Tide ... and then against Oregon for the national championship, Jones completed 69.6 percent of his passes (16 of 23) for 242 yards and one touchdown and the Buckeyes were nearly unstoppable offensively with 84 plays, 538 yards and a perfect 5-for-5 effort – all touchdowns – inside the red zone against the Beavers ... all combined, Jones threw for 742 yards and five touchdowns and rushed for 90 yards and one score in Ohio State's three-game post-season.

2013 Season (Freshman): Jones had his first collegiate action this year, playing a total of 39 plays from scrimmage in games vs. Florida A&M, Penn State and Purdue ... only attempted one pass in those three games that Ohio State won by a collective score of 195-14, but did rush 17 times for 128 yards (a 7.5 per carry average) and scored one touchdown, a 10-yard run vs. Florida A&M.

2012 Season: Jones red-shirted the season after enrolling in school in January, 2012.

More on Cardale: Jones signed his national letter of intent in February 2011 ... Jones was rated by Rivals.com as the No. 12 prep school player in the country in 2011 ... he led perennial northeast Ohio high school power Cleveland Glenville to a 24-3 record as a starting quarterback ... passed for 1,689 yards and 22 touchdowns as a senior in 2011 for coach Ted Ginn and was named third-team Division I all-state by the Associated Press ... threw for 2,168 yards and 18 touchdowns as a junior in 2009, and he also had 14 career rushing touchdowns ... was the MVP of the 2010 Offense-Defense Bowl, and he also played in the Big 33 Game ... also a basketball letterman at Glenville ... attended high school at the Ginn Academy ... is the son of Florence Jones ... has a daughter, Chloe.

2013 Season (Junior): Miller was named the Chicago Tribune's Most Valuable Player and thus earned the coveted Silver Football trophy as the Big Ten's MVP for the second consecutive year ... he threw for 2,094 yards and 24 touchdowns and rushed for an additional 1,068 yards and 12 scores, and was the first repeat winner of the Silver Football in 24 years ... Miller also repeated in 2013 as both the Big Ten's Griesse-Brees Quarterback of the Year and the Graham-George Offensive Player of the Year ... he directed a record-smashing Ohio State offense flawlessly and to national rankings of fifth in rushing (308.6 ypg), third in scoring (45.5), seventh in total offense (511.9 ypg) and 10th in pass efficiency (158.8 rating) ... the offense shattered school single season records for points scored (637), touchdowns (87) and touchdown passes (38), and it scored the third-most rushing touchdowns in school history (45) ... Miller lead the Big Ten and was 13th nationally in passing efficiency (158.1) and he finished ninth in the 2013 Heisman Trophy voting ... he accounted for five touchdowns in the win over Michigan (three rushing and two TD passes) to tie a personal best ... he rushed for 100-or more yards five times ... he tied a career high with four touchdown passes in the win over Wisconsin to earn Big Ten player of the week honors ... he rushed for 144 yards with two flying, head-first touchdowns, and he passed for 160 yards and two more scores to power the Buckeyes to a 42-0 lead over Indiana and an eventual 42-14 victory ... he rushed for 184 yards and one touchdown – a 70-yard run just 36 seconds into the game – and threw for 150 yards and two scores in the Buckeyes' 60-35 win over Illinois ... he was 22 of 27 passing for 222 yards and two TDs, plus 102 rushing yards, in the win vs. Iowa ... accounted for five TDs vs. Penn State and threw for a career-high 252 yards in less than three quarters and was named Big Ten player of the week ... missed nearly three full games after injuring his knee during the first series of the San Diego State game that caused him to miss the rest of that game and the next two.

2012 Season (Sophomore): Miller ran, passed and lead the Buckeyes to just the sixth unbeaten, untied season in school history – 12-0 – with a school-record 3,310 yards of total offense ... he was fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting, and he was a finalist for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award (along with Texas A&M's Johnny Manziel and Kansas State's Collin Klein) and the Manning Award (one of 10) ... he threw for 2,039 yards and 15 touchdowns and rushed for a school-quarterback record (and second-most in Big Ten history) 1,271 yards and 13 touchdowns ... he was named the Chicago Tribune Big Ten Conference MVP and awarded its Silver Football ... also was named the Big Ten's Graham-George Offensive Player of the Year, joining Eddie George, Orlando Pace, Joe Germaine and Troy Smith as Ohio State honorees, and he was awarded the conference's Griesse-Brees Quarterback of the Year award as well ... he ranked second in the Big Ten in total offense (275.8 ypg), fourth in rushing (and 24th nationally at 105.9 ypg) and fourth in passing efficiency ... had a high game of 249 yards passing (vs. Cal) and he had seven 100-yard rushing games with a school quarterback record 186 yards vs. Nebraska (2012) ... also had 161 yards rushing vs. Miami and 149 vs. Indiana ... set a school-record with five games of 300-or-more yards of total offense, topped by a 390-yard effort vs. Cal that netted him Big Ten player of the week honors ... perhaps the best Braxton Miller note from Ohio State's undefeated 2012 campaign: he led the team to a touchdown EVERYTIME the Buckeyes needed one most:

- After 10-win Central Florida tied the score at 10-all, Miller scored from the 6 with 15 seconds to play in the first half of a game the Buckeyes would win, 31-16;
- Miller rallied the Buckeyes twice vs. Cal; after trailing, 21-20, in the fourth quarter (TD pass to Jake Stoneburner) and again after Cal tied the score at 28-all, hitting Devin Smith with a 72-yard score with 3:26 left to play;
- He drove Ohio State for scores after Alabama-Birmingham took a 9-0 lead and again after UAB led 12-7; Miller's 12-yard TD run gave Ohio State the lead for good, 14-12, in the 29-15 win;
- Miller found Devin Smith in stride for a 63-yard touchdown moments after 20th-ranked Michigan State went up 13-10 late in the third quarter;
- After 20th-ranked Nebraska went up 17-7 in the second quarter, Miller exploded on a 72-yard rush to the Cornhusker 3 that set up a Carlos Hyde score, the first of four consecutive OSUTDs;
- He burst 67 yards for a touchdown after Indiana had closed to within 24-17, and he led a TD drive after IU came to within 31-24 in the third quarter;
- After Purdue led, 6-0, Miller scored on an 8-yard run, and after Purdue led, 13-7, he directed an 80-yard TD drive;
- After Penn State led, 7-0, late in the first half, Miller's 33-yard gain set OSU up first-and goal and the team converted, and after PSU closed to within 14-10, Miller scored on a highlight-reel touchdown from the 1 to give OSU a 21-10 lead on the way to a 35-23 road win in front of more than 107,000;
- Miller rushed for 12 of the 25 yards during the overtime drive for a TD against Wisconsin; and
- Two series after Michigan took a 14-10 lead, Miller connected with Corey Brown on an 18-yard touchdown pass play to put the Buckeyes up, 17-14, in a game the Buckeyes would win, 26-21.

2011 Season (Freshman): Miller took over the starting quarterback duties in the fourth game of the season against Colorado and quickly became the team's outstanding offensive player ... he threw for 1,159 yards and 13 touchdowns as a true freshman and he led the team in rushing with 715 yards and seven touchdowns, statistics that enabled him to earn the Big Ten Conference's Thompson-Randle El Freshman of the Year award ... he was named by the Ohio State coaches as the team's Archie Griffin outstanding offensive player (an honor he also won in 2012), and he was awarded the team's outstanding first-year offensive player award as well ... his fourth major honor that season was being named 2011 National Freshman Performer of the Year by the College FB Performance Awards, an honor previously won by South Carolina's Marcus Lattimore and Oregon's LaMichael James ... Miller became increasingly dangerous as a runner as the season progressed with 100-yard games in three of the last four regular season games ... he set a school record for a quarterback with an 81-yard touchdown run vs. Indiana ... he had a team-best three 100-yard rushing games (105 yards against both Indiana and Penn State, and he had 100 vs. Michigan) ... he was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week twice: the first time after the dramatic win over Wisconsin when he completed a 40-yard touchdown pass to Devin Smith with 40 seconds to play and rushed for 99 yards and two touchdowns ... he also won the Big Ten's weekly frosh award after his 335 yards of total offense vs. Michigan ... in addition to the Wisconsin effort, his late-game heroics included leading the Buckeyes to a game-tying touchdown with 55 seconds left to play against Purdue ... on fourth-and-13 he found Jordan Hall in the end zone for the dramatic score that led to overtime against the Boilermakers ... he also led the Buckeyes on a five-play, 80-yard touchdown drive midway through the fourth quarter to help the team close the score to within three against Michigan.

More on Braxton: Miller was a highly-regarded quarterback who led Wayne High to the 2010 Division I state title game ... he passed for 2,167 yards and 17 TDs, and rushed for 658 yards 17 more TDs as a senior for Coach Jay Minton ... had a career record of 31-7 as a starting quarterback ... Ohio Mr. Football finalist and first team all-state ... Under Armour All-American game ... basketball letterman ... the son of Kelly and Kevin Miller ... youngest of three siblings (Brion and Bailey) ... has a young son, Landon ... enrolled at Ohio State in January 2009.

POWELL

Defensive Back | 6-3, 210, Jr.
Bedford, Ohio | Bedford H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Tyvis Powell is savvy, talented and veteran football player who has personality-plus ... a fourth-year junior, he probably has more fun being a Buckeye than anyone on the team and he certainly takes care of his business off the field as well as anyone ... he graduated in May 2015 – in just three-and-a-half years – with a degree in marketing ... he has played in all 29 games the past two seasons – after red-shirting the 2012 season – and he has started 20 times, including the last 16 games ... has played 2,103 snaps his first two seasons and has recorded 124 tackles, five interceptions and six pass break-ups ... is best-of-friends with Cardale Jones.

2014 Season (Sophomore): Powell started all 15 games at one safety position for the College Football Playoff national champions ... was named defensive MVP of the national championship game against No. 2 Oregon with a game-high nine tackles and a pass break-up ... intercepted a pass in the end zone to clinch Ohio State's 42-35 victory over No. 1-ranked Alabama in the CFP semifinal game at the Allstate Sugar Bowl ... ranked fourth on the team in total tackles with 76 and was third with four interceptions ... ranked 10th in the Big Ten in interceptions ... led all Buckeyes with career-high 13 tackles vs. Navy ... had a huge interception late in the fourth quarter to keep Indiana from potentially tying the score ... also had interceptions against Kent and Penn State.

2013 Season (Freshman): Powell put together a fine season for the Buckeyes in 2013 after red-shirting the 2012 campaign as a true freshman ... he was primarily on the field on defense in nickel situations and he also was a key member of a number of special teams all season long ... as a result, he played more snaps – 953 – than all but four players on the team ... he played in all 14 games and he started five times, including at safety in the Discover Orange Bowl ... he recorded eight tackles on the season plus an interception, two pass break-ups, quarterback hurry and fumble recovery ... his interception came in the win over Iowa ... his biggest play of the year came in the closing seconds of the game against Michigan, stepping in front of a Devin Gardner two-point conversion attempt to make an interception and preserve the 42-41 win ... he had seven tackles in the win over Penn State.

More on Tyvis: Powell was coached at Bedford, located near Cleveland in northeast Ohio, by Sean Williams ... ranked No. 33 among all cornerbacks nationally by Rivals.com and the No. 37 safety by Scout.com ... a top 100 defensive back by ESPN ... No. 20 senior in Ohio by 247Sports.com ... totaled six interceptions as a junior and senior, to go along with over 115 tackles ... a three sport athlete, Powell also played basketball and baseball ... ran track instead of playing baseball as a junior, though, to improve his speed ... never missed a day of classes while in high school ... is the son of Robin Powell-Richardson.

54 BILLY PRICE

Defensive Lineman | 6-4, 315, So.
Austintown, Ohio | Fitch H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Billy Price is a third-year sophomore who enters his second season as a starting lineman along the Buckeyes' offensive line ... after red-shirting the 2013 season as a true freshman, Price started every game for the Buckeyes in 2014 at offensive guard and performed at a rate that earned him freshman All-America honors ... he is one of the most athletic of Ohio State's big guys and also one of the strongest ... Price moved from the defensive line to the offensive line in the fall of 2013 ... is a two-time OSU Scholar-Athlete majoring in operations management ... he was named to the Academic All-Big Ten squad in 2014.

2014 Season (Freshman): After a red-shirt season in 2013, Price stepped into the starting lineup at one of the guard positions and proceeded to start all 15 games at guard for the College Football Playoff national champions ... and this was after spending much of the 2014 spring season practicing at center ...

Price started the first three games of the season at right guard and then moved to left guard, where started the final 12 games ... his play improved considerably as he gained experience and as the season wore on, and he was credited with making key blocks for critical touchdowns in crucial games: by J.T. Barrett vs. Penn State and Ezekiel Elliott vs. Alabama ... Price was named a second-team freshman All-America by both Phil Steele and Athlon's ... his play helped the Buckeyes rank ninth nationally with 264.4 rushing yards per game.

More on Billy: Price was the Associated Press's 2012 Division I co-defensive player of the year in the state of Ohio (along with teammates Gareon Conley and Tracy Sprinkle) and a first-team all-state pick ... a consensus four-star prospect (ESPN, Rivals, 247Sports, Scout) ... rated among the top 200 players on the Rivals 250 and a member of the ESPN 300, Price was the third Buckeye to commit to the Class of 2013 with his decision coming Feb. 13, 2012 ... rated as the No. 17 defensive tackle nationally by 247Sports and No. 21 by Scout ... helped Fitch to a 9-2 record in 2012 and to the state playoffs ... also helped Fitch to the state playoffs in 2010 with a 10-2 record and again in 2011 ... was named first-team all-state as a junior when he recorded 40 tackles with three sacks, 10 TFLs and an interception ... coached by Phil Annarella ... placed seventh in the discus at the 2012 Ohio outdoor state track and field meet after placing sixth in the shot and second in the weight throw indoors ... is the son of Bill Price and Pam & Dave Lescsak ... has two younger siblings: Savannah and Andrew.

PRICE

59 ISIAH PRINCE

Greenbelt, Md. | Eleanor Roosevelt

Overview: Isaiah Prince was another pleasant surprise – at least publicly – on signing day was consensus 4-star offensive lineman Isaiah Prince choosing to sign his National Letter of Intent with Ohio State ... he was a Top 10 offensive tackle prospect by Rivals (No. 4), Scout (No. 6) and 247Sports (No. 7) while ESPN rated him No. 22 ... his overall rankings included a No. 67 ranking by Rivals, No. 74 by Scout and No. 105 by 247Sports, and he was also listed on the ESPN 300 ... 67 GRANT SCHMIDT

Offensive Lineman | 6-6, 300, Fr.

Sioux Falls, S.D. | Roosevelt

Overview: Media guide rosters were checked at Ohio State for each year back to 1950 and Grant Schmidt certainly appears to be the first from the state of South Dakota to play football at Ohio State ... an early enrollee (January 2015) in classes at Ohio State and a 4-star prospect by Rivals and 247Sports, Schmidt was rated as the No. 1 offensive lineman in his state and the No. 9 tackle in the Midwest ... Rivals rated him the No. 26 tackle nationally while Scout had Schmidt as a Top 50 prospect ... a four-year starter who helped coach Kim Nelson's Roosevelt teams to back-to-back state championship games (2013 and 2014) in Class 11AAAA and to 9-2 records ... named a South Dakota Coaches Association first-team all-state pick and was a Semper Fi All-American ... is the son of Sharon and Jay Schmidt.

90 TOMMY SCHUTT

Defensive Lineman | 6-3, 290, Sr.
Glen Ellyn, Ill. | Glenbard West H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Tommy Schutt is a true senior who has played in 31 games over his career and made two starts: as a true freshman vs. Central Florida and in 2013 vs. Illinois ... he entered his senior campaign about 10 pounds lighter than his playing weight last year and more focused – and ready – to make an impact along the defensive line as a senior ... an opportunity exists along the interior of the line with the departure of All-American Michael Bennett, a sixth-round pick of the Jacksonville Jaguars, and Schutt took a step toward that opportunity by having his best spring as a Buckeye ... a three-year letterman, Schutt has 17 career tackles and three quarterback pressures ... he is majoring in communications.

2014 Season (Junior): Schutt played in all 15 games along the defensive line for the College Football Playoff national champions and totaled 210 plays ... he had 24 plays in the season-opener vs. Navy and a high of 28 plays vs. his home state school, Illinois ... also had two tackles vs. the Illini and recorded tackles in eight games, including the national title game vs. Oregon.

2013 Season (Sophomore): Schutt is coming off a 2013 campaign that didn't get cranked up until mid-season as a foot injury and subsequent surgery in fall camp kept him out of the team's first six games ... he played in seven of the final eight games of the season, including a start vs. Illinois ... he was in on a career-high 39 plays vs. Illinois and 25 the next week vs. Indiana ... was credited with three tackles, including a half-sack vs. Northwestern for minus-2 yards.

2012 Season (Freshman): Schutt played in 10 games for the undefeated, Big Ten Conference Leaders Division champions ... started in the team's second game of the season, vs. Central Florida, and played 21 snaps on defense ... was in on 85 plays for the season ... totaled four tackles plus an important quarterback "hurry" in the overtime win vs. Wisconsin.

More on Tommy: Schutt was the first high school senior to commit to Urban Meyer's Ohio State program ... a five-star prospect and the No. 5 defensive tackle in the class by Scout.com and the No. 1 player in Illinois (Rivals.com), Schutt committed Dec. 12, 2011 ... he was ranked among the Top 100 players nationally by Scout.com (No. 47), MaxPreps (No. 47) and Rivals.com (No. 64) and was also a member of the ESPN 150 ... helped Glenbard West, coached by Chad Hetlet, to four state playoff appearances and amassed 33 career sacks, 45 tackles-for-loss, 21 batted balls and eleven forced fumbles ... earned all-state honors three consecutive years, including by the Illinois High School Football Coaches Association and the Chicago Tribune as a junior and senior ... named ESPNChicago.com defensive player of the year after senior season that included 73 tackles and 23.5 tackles-for-loss, including 14.5 sacks ... No. 6 player in the Midwest by SuperPrep and the No. 16 defensive line prospect ... a U.S. Army and SuperPrep All-American ... had 67 tackles and 15 sacks as a junior ... Schutt is the son of David and Stella Schutt.

1 ERICK SMITH

Safety | 6-0, 202, So.
Cleveland | Glenville H.S.

Ohio State Overview: Erick Smith is a second-year performer for the Buckeyes and already good enough that one of the safeties on the Ohio State depth chart ahead of him – Tyvis Powell – says you wouldn't even notice a difference if Smith was in the game ahead of either Powell or Vonn Bell ... he's that good ... Smith earned his first Varsity O letter as a true freshman in 2014 ... he is exploring majors.

2014 Season (Freshman): Smith played in 14 of 15 games for the College Football Playoff national champions ... his play was mostly on special teams, but he did have a couple of extensive stints on defense: 18 snaps against Kent State and 31 vs. Illinois ... was on multiple special teams by the time the season ended and totaled a combined 41 plays in the post-season wins over Wisconsin, Alabama and Oregon ... recorded 13 tackles on the season and one interception, vs. Kent State.

More on Erick: Another fine safety prospect out of the talent-rich Glenville High School program (think former Buckeyes like Christian Bryant, Jermale Hines and Donte Whitner), Erick Smith was a consensus four-star recruit in 2014 and a Top 100 player in the nation with overall national rankings of No. 43 by Scout, No. 51 by Rivals and No. 61 by 247Sports ... one of the leaders of a 2013 Glenville Tarblooder team that went 13-2 and advanced to the Division II state championship game ... considered a Top 5 safety prospect by two recruiting services: No. 2 by 247Sports, No. 4 by Scout ... rated the No. 11 safety by ESPN ... No. 2 ranked player in Ohio by Scout ... had 10 tackles and forced a fumble in the state title game and had a "pick six" in the state semifinals ... a U.S. Army All-American and a third-team Division II Associated Press all-state pick ... is the son of Erica and Curtis Smith.

GAME 1 RECAP: AT NAVY

No. 5/6 Ohio State opens with 34-17 win over Navy

Barrett passes for 226 yards and two TDs in his first collegiate game

BALTIMORE -- Redshirt freshman J.T. Barrett threw for 226 yards and two touchdowns in his college debut, and No. 5 Ohio State beat Navy 34-17 Saturday for its 25th consecutive regular-season victory.

Elevated into a starting role after senior Braxton Miller injured his right shoulder on Aug. 18, Barrett went 12 for 15 - including an 80-yard TD pass to Devin Smith that put the Buckeyes up 20-14 with 4:10 left in the third quarter.

Ohio State (1-0) won despite allowing Navy (0-1) to gain 370 yards on the ground, including 118 by Ryan Williams-Jenkins.

Barrett became the second freshman since 1950 to start a season opener at quarterback for Ohio State. He ran nine times for 50 yards, did not throw downfield often and relied heavily on a ground game that finally wore down the Midshipmen in the fourth quarter.

After Navy closed to 20-17 with 13:54 remaining, the Buckeyes launched a 10-play drive that featured just one pass. Ezekiel Elliott converted a fourth-and-1 from the Navy 45 and Barrett threw a 19-yard completion before Elliott ran in from the 10.

Barrett's 9-yard touchdown pass to Mike Thomas made it 34-17 with 2:09 left.

Navy held a 7-6 lead and was driving on the opening series of the second half when Joey Bosa hit Keenan Reynolds as the quarterback was tossing a pitch to Demond Brown. The ball went awry, and Darron Lee took it 61 yards the other way for a touchdown.

The Midshipmen responded immediately.

Williams-Jenkins ran 67 yards to the Ohio State 17, and Reynolds scored from the 1 to put Navy up 14-13. That gave Reynolds a touchdown in nine straight games, tying the school record.

Ohio State then turned the ball over on downs, when Elliott was stuck for a 2-yard loss on fourth down from the Navy 45.

But the momentum turned when Smith got behind the Navy defense on the right side, broke a tackle and scored on the longest touchdown against the Midshipmen since an 87-yarder by Tulane in November 2004.

Navy drove to the Ohio State 18 on the final possession of the first half before Nick Sloan missed a 36-yard field goal, keeping the Buckeyes' deficit at 7-6.

Throwing mostly short, safe passes, Barrett went 8 for 11 for 96 yards and an interception before halftime.

Redshirt freshman linebacker Darron Lee returned a fumble 61 yards for Ohio State's first score.

Barrett's first play at Ohio State was a pass completion for 14 yards. Although he appeared comfortable in the no-huddle offense, the Buckeyes quickly punted.

Ohio State's next possession began with four straight runs, followed by a sack. A shovel pass on a third-and-21 gained 16 yards to set up a 46-yard field goal by freshman Sean Nuernberger.

Navy answered with an 11-play drive, 10 of them runs, capped by a 1-yard touchdown sweep by DeBrandon Sanders.

Midway through the second quarter, Barrett went 4 for 4 for 54 yards to bring the Buckeyes to the Navy 8. But he hurried a first-down pass and was intercepted by Parrish Gaines.

Barrett's inexperience showed again on the next series, when Ohio State had to settle for a field goal. On a third-and-2 from the Navy 4, Barrett rolled right and pitched too late to Elliott, who was smothered for a 7-yard loss.

GAME 2 RECAP: VIRGINIA TECH

No. 7/8 Ohio State falls to Virginia Tech, 35-21

Buckeyes suffer first home-opening loss since 1978

COLUMBUS, Ohio -- Ohio State rallied from a 14-point deficit to tie the game in the fourth quarter, but ultimately were unable to pull out the come-from-behind win as Virginia Tech came away with the 35-21 win at Ohio Stadium -- snapping Ohio State's 35-game home-opener win streak.

VT's Michael Brewer passed for two touchdowns and Virginia Tech's defense stood tough at the end.

Keyshoen Jarrett had two interceptions and Donovan Riley returned another 63 yards for a TD in the final minute before a record crowd of 107,517 at enlarged Ohio Stadium.

Brewer led the Hokies (2-0) to a 21-7 lead at the half. After his fumble led to the Buckeyes (1-1) pulling even on Ezekiel Elliott's 15-yard run early in the fourth quarter, he led a 65-yard drive capped by a 10-yard scoring pass to Bucky Hodges with 8:44 left.

Ohio State's J.T. Barrett was 9-of-29 for 219 yards and a touchdown with three interceptions. He led all rushers with 70 yards on 24 carries.

It was Ohio State's third loss in its last four games after a school-record 24-game winning streak.

"It's not the last game of the season," Ohio State tight end Jeff Heuerman said. "There's a long way to go to finish out. Coach Meyer's message after the game is there's a lot to accomplish but we have to accomplish it at 11-1."

Ohio State drew within a touchdown when Barrett tossed a short pass in the right flat to Michael Thomas, who spun and raced untouched the rest of the way for a 53-yard TD that left the Hokies up 21-14.

Then Brewer, who had stared down Ohio State's vaunted front all night, got hit from behind on a scramble by end Joey Bosa and fumbled, with Rashad Frazier recovering at the Virginia Tech 15. Two plays later, Elliott took an option pitch around right end and broke three tackles, tying it at 21 with 11:40 left in the fourth quarter.

Virginia Tech took over at its own 35 after an Ohio State kickoff went out of bounds.

Deon Newsome went 22 yards on an end around and Rogers gained 17 more on a reverse on which he faked a pass and then picked his way downfield.

Sophomore RB Ezekiel Elliott runs for a 15-yard TD run in the fourth quarter, tying the game at 21.

On second and goal from the 10, Brewer fired a low, hard pass to the outside for Hodges to put Virginia Tech up 28-21.

Riley put the icing on the win when he stepped in front of a Barrett pass and raced down the right sideline - and in front of the Ohio State bench - for the 63-yard score with 46 seconds left.

GAME 3 RECAP: KENT STATE

No. 18/22 Ohio State shuts out Kent State, 66-0

Barrett ties a school record with six TD passes

COLUMBUS, Ohio -- J.T. Barrett matched a school record with six touchdown passes - five in the first half - to lead the 22nd-ranked Buckeyes to a 66-0 victory over Kent State on Saturday.

The win was the 39th in a row over an in-state opponent for the Buckeyes (2-1), who haven't lost since a 7-6 setback to Oberlin in 1921.

Curtis Samuel ran for two touchdowns and Smith ran for one and also caught a TD pass for the Buckeyes, who totaled 628 yards of offense while limiting Kent State to 126.

It was the third meeting between the teams, with Ohio State winning by an average score of 55-7.

A redshirt freshman who took over when three-year starting quarterback Braxton Miller was lost for the year with a shoulder injury, Barrett finished 23 of 30 for 312 yards with an interception. He became the first Ohio State quarterback to throw for more than 300 yards since Heisman Trophy winner Troy Smith did against Michigan in 2006.

The Golden Flashes hadn't given up 60 points in a game since a 63-21 loss to Connecticut in 2002. The game represented Kent State's most lopsided loss since a 56-0 defeat at Miami (Ohio) in 1998.

The Buckeyes scored early and often against the overmatched Flashes, who came in as 32-point underdogs.

A week after permitting Barrett to be sacked seven times, Ohio State's line had no difficulty protecting him - not allowing a sack - and opening huge holes for rushers.

The first series of the second half provided one of the best highlights - the football version of a fire drill. Anthony Melchiori's punt was blocked by Ohio State's Jeff Greene, with teammate Ron Tanner picking up the loose ball and running. But he was caught from behind by Matthew Somers, who stripped the ball, which was recovered by Kent State's Steve Nagy. Six players touched the ball before the ball ended up at the Golden Flashes 2, a loss of 32 yards.

Moments later, the Buckeyes forced a punt and then scored on Barrett's shovel pass to Jalin Marshall for three yards for a 52-0 lead. His sixth TD pass tied Kenny Guiton's mark set a year ago against Florida A&M.

Colin Reardon completed 14 of 27 passes for 76 yards with three interceptions for Kent State, with Nathan Strock 1 of 7 for 3 yards.

Redshirt freshman QB J.T. Barrett tied a school record with six TD passes vs. Kent State.

The first half took almost two hours - with most of that time spent celebrating Buckeyes touchdowns. Barrett, who came in with three passing TDs in the first two games, completed 21 of 28 passes for 297 yards. The scoring passes covered 14 and 63 yards to Michael Thomas, 8 yards to Rod Smith, 2 yards to Marcus Baugh and 50 yards to Devin Smith. Smith also ran for a 1-yard score.

The Golden Flashes, now 1-25 against ranked opponents, mustered just 109 yards in the opening half, with Reardon and Strock combining to complete 10 of 22 passes with a pair of interceptions. They ran just two plays in Ohio State territory - by that time they were down 31-0 in the second quarter - before a false-start penalty and a Darron Lee sack cost them 12 yards and led to yet another punt.

GAME 4 RECAP: CINCINNATI

Barrett, Elliott Lead #20 Buckeyes Past Cincinnati, 50-28

QB accounts for more than 400 yards of total offense

COLUMBUS, Ohio -- J.T. Barrett passed for 330 yards and four touchdowns and Ezekiel Elliott ran for 182 yards and a score to lead No. 22 Ohio State past Gunner Kiel and Cincinnati 50-28 on Saturday night.

Kiel completed 21 of 32 passes for 352 yards and four scores for the Bearcats (2-1) in a game of wild momentum swings before a stadium-record crowd of 108,362.

The Buckeyes (3-1), who won their 40th consecutive game over an in-state opponent, totaled 710 yards. But their defense couldn't stop the Bearcats, who had wide-out Chris Moore catch three passes for 221 yards and three TDs.

Not until Barrett hit Devin Smith with a 29-yard scoring pass early in the fourth quarter was it clear the Buckeyes would survive. The score made it 50-28.

A freshman who took over after two-time Big Ten offensive player of the year Braxton Miller was lost for the season after shoulder surgery, Barrett hit on 26 of 36 passes and also ran for 79 yards on 14 carries.

It was the first time Ohio State had topped 700 yards in offense since totaling 715 against Utah on Aug. 27, 1986.

The Buckeyes picked up field goals of 25 and 42 yards by Sean Nuernberger on the first two touches of the second half.

Down 36-28, Cincinnati had a chance to pull even on its next possession but Johnny Holton was called for offensive pass interference. The Bearcats were forced to punt, and that proved to be the last opportunity for the visitors to catch up.

With Elliott and Rod Smith doing most of the damage on the ground, the Buckeyes came right back to cover 62 yards in six plays to push the lead to 43-28 before Barrett's final TD pass put it out of reach.

The Buckeyes led 30-21 at the half, but neither coach Urban Meyer nor Cincinnati's Tommy Tuberville could have been happy in the locker room. Coming in, Tuberville was 2-0 against Meyer when both were bumping heads in the SEC, Tuberville at Auburn and Meyer at Florida.

The Bearcats scored stunning TDs on their first and last possessions of the half. The first covered 60 yards from Kiel to Moore on the fourth play from scrimmage and the last was an 83-yard bomb that Kiel lofted to Moore, who was running clear on a post pattern.

QB J.T. Barrett passed for 330 yards and four TDs and rushed for another 79 for 409 yards of total offense in the win over UC.

In between, Ohio State dominated. The Buckeyes scored on their first four possessions - 3-yard runs by Rod Smith and Elliott and 19-yard completions by Barrett to Devin Smith and Evan Spencer - and also notched two points when Joey Bosa sacked and stripped Kiel, resulting in a safety.

But with the Buckeyes leading 30-7 and at the Cincinnati 38 midway through the second quarter, Jeff Luc knocked the ball loose from Ohio State's Curtis Samuel and Leviticus Payne recovered for the Bearcats. Kiel, who sat out a series in favor of Jarred Evans, then led a six-play, 58-yard march capped by a 19-yard TD pass to Holton.

Cincinnati had trouble stopping the Buckeyes all half but was able to force a punt and Kiel then tossed the long pass for Moore's second TD.

It could have been even closer. On the series Evans was in, he rolled right and just as he was being hit lofted a 45-yard scoring pass to Moore. But it was brought back due to an ineligible receiver downfield. Moments later, the Bearcats were forced to punt.

GAME 5 RECAP: AT MARYLAND

No. 18/20 Ohio State Downs Maryland, 52-24

Barrett tosses 4 TD passes; defense holds Terps to more than 100 yards below season average COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- The 20th-ranked Buckeyes spoiled Maryland's first home game as a member of the Big Ten. Freshman QB J.T. Barrett threw for 267 yards with four touchdowns and ran for 71 yards and a score while RB Ezekiel Elliott finished with 139 yards on the ground in the 52-24 win.

Ohio State's defense was just as dominant, holding the Terrapins to more than 100 yards below their season average and intercepting four Maryland passes. Sophomore Joey Bosa led the way with 2.5 TFL and 1.0 sack.

The Buckeyes (4-1, 1-0) scored on drives lasting 3:01, 3:27, 1:18, 1:46 and 0:05 to take a 31-10 halftime lead and hush the first sellout crowd at College Park in nearly six years. Ohio State has scored 168 points in three wins since losing to Virginia Tech, a stumble that now seems so distant.

The Buckeyes might have never played Maryland before, but they marched up and down the field as if they owned the place. The Terrapins (4-2, 1-1) had an impressive Big Ten debut win on the road the previous week at Indiana, but their top highlight Saturday was a school-record 57-yard field goal by Brad Craddock.

C.J. Brown started for Maryland despite leaving the Indiana victory with a sprained left wrist. He played the first half and was ineffective and often under pressure, completing 11 of 18 passes for 71 yards with three sacks. He also threw an interception deep in Terrapins territory late in the half.

For the second half, Edsall turned to Caleb Rowe. The coach said the move wasn't injury-related and that he was going with a more traditional drop-back quarterback because he wanted to throw the ball more. Edsall said Brown made some poor decisions but added: "C.J.'s our quarterback."

The change mattered little to the outcome. The Buckeyes went back to work making the Terrapins look like, well, terrapins. An 80-yard drive needed only four plays and 1:27 before Barrett hit Devin Smith for a 30-yard down-the-middle strike to make it a four-touchdown lead. Barrett later added a 9-yard scoring run to cap a 60-yard drive that took 4:02 off the clock.

Rowe finished 13 for 22 for 173 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions, including one returned 19 yards by Raekwon McMillan for a Buckeyes score.

GAME 6 RECAP: RUTGERS

#13 Buckeyes Roll Past Rutgers, 56-17

Victory marks the 18th consecutive Big Ten regular season win

COLUMBUS, Ohio -- Ohio State is on an historic roll, and quarterback J.T. Barrett is leading the way.

The freshman completed his first nine passes, ran for 107 yards and two touchdowns and threw for three more scores to lead the 13th-ranked Buckeyes past Rutgers 56-17.

It marked the first time Ohio State has scored at least 50 points in four games in a row in its 125 years of competition.

"I'm focusing on getting the offense better every week and keeping this thing rolling," Barrett said after carrying seven times while scoring on runs of 33 and 5 yards and completing 19 of 31 passes for 261 yards without an interception before departing midway through the fourth quarter.

The Buckeyes (5-1, 2-0 Big Ten) have averaged 56 points in a four-game win streak since losing at home to Virginia Tech on Sept. 6. They've made a steady move up the rankings since.

Barrett -- a preseason sub for injured three-year starter Braxton Miller -- continues to put up remarkable numbers in his first year of college competition.

The victory was Ohio State's 18th in a row in the Big Ten, drawing within two of tying the conference mark set by the 2005-07 Buckeyes.

The Buckeyes -- averaging 614 yards per game over their win streak -- amassed 585 total yards. They scored on their first three possessions -- with Barrett going 8-for-8 passing -- and the outcome was never really in doubt again.

He hit Nick Vannett on scoring tosses of 12 and 31 yards, the latter on a perfect lead pass over the middle before the backup tight end lumbered to the end zone. In between, Ezekiel Elliott carried four times in a 74-yard march that he capped with a 1-yard plunge.

The Scarlet Knights have had plenty of firepower, with one of the Big Ten's best offenses. Gary Nova completed 17 of 28 passes for 192 yards with an interception for the Scarlet Knights, who beat Michigan 26-24 in their last game before a bye last week. Desmon Peoples carried 15 times for 83 yards and touchdowns of 1 and 12 yards against the Buckeyes.

They were still in it down 21-7 midway through the second quarter before a defensive strike by the Buckeyes.

HB Jalin Marshall recorded a career-high 129 all-purpose yards in the win over Rutgers.

Nova flipped a pass on first down deep in his own territory to Janarion Grant in the left flat but he was hit by Lee and then really got cracked by backup defensive end Rashad Frazier. Grant lost the ball as he was going down, with Eli Apple -- a New Jersey native who almost went to his home-state school -- scooping up the loose ball and trotting the final 4 yards.

Barrett then scored twice early in the third quarter, and the crowd thinned out as it began to rain.

GAME 7 RECAP: AT PENN STATE

No. 12 Ohio State Tops Penn State, 31-24, in 2OT

Barrett runs for two TDs in OTs; Bosa finishes with 2.5 sacks

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. -- Joey Bosa's Ohio State's teammates had to tell the defensive tackle that he'd just finished off Penn State with a sack in the second overtime. The sack on a fourth-and-5 play gave the No. 13 Buckeyes a 31-24 victory Saturday night.

Bosa was the last to know.

"I was so tired I didn't even know it was a sack," said Bosa, who had 2 1/2 sacks and finished with six tackles. "The guys started hugging me and I just went to the ground. This might have been a double-overtime win, but it doesn't make it any less important, winning in a crazy environment like this."

Ohio State quarterback J.T. Barrett had two touchdown runs in overtime after Penn State overcame a 17-0 deficit to tie it.

The Buckeyes (6-1, 3-0 Big Ten) built a 17-0 lead and were cruising when Penn State defensive tackle Anthony Zettel intercepted Barrett's pass and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter.

Christian Hackenberg threw a 24-yard touchdown pass to Saeed Blacknall early in the fourth, and Penn State (4-3, 1-3) tied it on Sam Ficken's 31-yard field goal with 9 seconds left.

Hackenberg finished 31-of-49 for 224 yards and a touchdown.

In the first overtime, Penn State tailback Bill Belton took a direct snap from the Wildcat formation and scored on a 1-yard run. The Buckeyes countered when Barrett carried two straight times, the first for 17 yards and the second 5 yards for a touchdown.

Penn State was called for a personal foul on the touchdown, giving Ohio State the ball at the 12 to start the second overtime. With a third-and-2 from the 4, Barrett powered through the middle of Penn State's defense for a touchdown.

"I just read the play each time (on the option)," said Barrett, who rushed for 75 yards on 20 carries and completed 12 of 19 mostly possession-type passes for 74 more yards. "They were giving us the inside. I was going to do whatever I had to do to get in the end zone."

Ezekiel Elliott ran for 109 yards on 26 carries for Ohio State. The Buckeyes have won five straight games and 19 in a row in the conference.

DE Joey Bosa recored a walk-off sack to end the game in double overtime.

"It's not luck. It was a tough game," Buckeyes coach Urban Meyer said. "Penn State is a very rugged defensive unit. They play hard. 'If we would have not turned the ball over and took care of business, then we'd see what would happen. But that's part of the game.'"

DaeSean Hamilton set a Penn State record with 14 catches for 126 yards.

Elliott opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 10-yard run, Sean Nuernberger made a 49-yard field in the second, and Barrett threw a 1-yard pass to Jeff Heuerman late in the quarter to make it 17-0.

GAME 8 RECAP: ILLINOIS

#16 Buckeyes Cruise Past Illinois, 55-14

Victory is the 20th consecutive Big Ten regular season win, tying the Big Ten record

COLUMBUS, Ohio -- Ohio State took care of business by pounding Illinois 55-14 on Saturday night.

Now the Buckeyes can finally talk about the game of the year in the Big Ten next week at Michigan State. The Spartans ended a 24-game Ohio State win streak with a 34-24 victory in last year's conference title game.

Curtis Samuel ran for two touchdowns and J.T. Barrett hit Devin Smith on two scoring passes - all in the first half - as the Buckeyes put first things first in the easy win over the Illini.

It extended their Big Ten win streak to a record-tying 20.

The Buckeyes (7-1, 4-0, No. 16 CFP) won their sixth in a row - five by lopsided scores.

No. 8 Michigan State (7-1, 4-0, No. 8 CFP) has also won its last six. The Spartans will be coming off a bye week.

"It was right when we got in the locker room," linebacker Darron Lee said. "We usually have our coaches talk about who was good on O, D and ST. We skipped that. We know what's coming up this week."

Unlike a week ago, when the Buckeyes rolled to a 17-0 halftime lead at Penn State only to struggle before pulling out a 31-24 victory in double overtime, this one was a landslide early.

Barrett, nursing a sprained medial collateral ligament in his left knee and wearing a brace, left at halftime with the Buckeyes up 31-0. He completed 15 of 24 passes for 167 yards, his touchdown throws to Smith covering 32 and 8 yards.

Barrett gave way to Cardale Jones, who lofted a picture-perfect 27-yard TD pass to Dontre Wilson and also hit Michael Thomas on a 19-yard scoring pass. Jones was 5 of 9 for 82 yards passing.

Samuel ran for 63 yards on nine carries, his TDs coming on runs of 23 yards and 1 yard, and Ezekiel Elliott had 69 yards on nine rushes for the Buckeyes, who have won the last six meetings.

The Buckeyes substituted heavily in the second half while a crowd of 106,961 left early as the score mounted. The game was played in windy conditions with temperatures in the mid-30s.

The 20th consecutive Big Ten regular-season win matched the mark set by Ohio State teams from 2005-07.

The Buckeyes relied on the Illini's largesse in the opening half.

Illinois threw two interceptions - both of which were off receivers' hands - and also lost

WR Devin Smith caught three passes for 72 yards and two TDs in the win over the Illini.

a fumble. The Buckeyes failed on two fourth-down runs deep in opposition territory, punted once - and scored on the other five possessions.

O'Toole was intercepted by Darron Lee nine plays after the opening kickoff, with the Buckeyes taking just three plays to cover 38 yards. Samuel - who got the start in place of leading rusher Elliott - covered the final 23 yards untouched.

Barrett hit Smith on his first scoring toss to make it 17-0 before Samuel split two tacklers and backed into the end zone from a yard out. Just before halftime, Barrett found Smith again to make it 31-0. The Buckeyes played plenty of backups the rest of the game.

Barrett still wasn't pleased with his performance.

"It was very poor, just missing open guys," he said. "I knew where to go with the football, it was just more completing it."

Donovonn Young's 5-yard run late in the third quarter broke up the shutout for the Illini (4-5, 1-4). They have dropped four of five.

After their first possession of the second half, Illinois quarterbacks Reilly O'Toole and Aaron Bailey had combined for 58 yards passing - and 56 of them came on O'Toole's completion to Mike Dudek.

On that play, Dudek set the school mark for yards receiving by a freshman.

Bailey, 9 of 16 for 79 yards without an interception, completed a 7-yard TD pass to tight end Matt LaCosse to close the scoring. O'Toole ended up 4 of 11 for 58 yards with two interceptions.

GAME 9 RECAP: AT #8 MICHIGAN STATE

No. 14 Ohio State Scores Statement Win at No. 8 MSU

Barrett accounts for 5 TDs, throws for 300 yards and rushes for two more in the victory

EAST LANSING, Mich. -- Now it's Ohio State's turn to lobby for a berth in the college football playoff -- a thought that seemed pretty far-fetched when the Buckeyes lost their quarterback and struggled through the first couple weeks of the season.

With J.T. Barrett performing brilliantly in place of an injured Braxton Miller, there's no longer any doubt who the Big Ten's top contender is in the national title race.

Barrett threw for three touchdowns and ran for two more in a sensational performance, and No. 14 Ohio State scored almost at will against Michigan State's vaunted defense, beating the eighth-ranked Spartans 49-37 on Saturday night.

With one overwhelming offensive display, the Buckeyes re-established themselves as the Big Ten's dominant team under coach Urban Meyer, avenged their loss to Michigan State in last year's conference title game, and boosted their case for a berth in the sport's new four-team playoff.

"This is one for the ages," said Meyer, in his third year as Ohio State's coach. "That's how much respect we had for our opponent going into it. We saw what they did. They had one loss and they were actually winning that one game until it kind of got away from them somehow at Oregon. We played a top-10 team and really played our best on the road."

Ohio State (8-1, 5-0) came into the game ranked No. 14 by the playoff committee. The Spartans (7-2, 4-1) were No. 8 and looked like the conference's best hope to reach the playoff, but now they'll almost surely drop out of consideration.

Barrett became the starting quarterback for the Buckeyes before the season because Miller needed shoulder surgery, and Ohio State lost at home to Virginia Tech in early September. The Buckeyes have won seven straight since.

Barrett went 16-of-26 for 300 yards against the Spartans. Ohio State's first drive of the game ended in a missed field goal, and another early possession fell apart because of penalties. Aside from that, the Buckeyes scored a touchdown every time they had the ball until they punted in the final minute of the game.

Ohio State rolled up 568 yards of offense against a Michigan State defense that was one of the nation's best a year ago and had been plenty good this season as well.

"We definitely had something to prove," running back Ezekiel Elliott said. "People were questioning our ability to come out and play on the big stage. Just coming into this game, no one believed in us."

WR Michael Thomas scores on a 79-yard TD reception in the second quarter.

It was by any measure one of the biggest home games in Michigan State history, but Barrett and the Buckeyes turned it into a scarlet-and-gray party, overcoming a pair of first-half turnovers on special teams and taking a 28-21 lead into halftime.

When the Spartans had to settle for a field goal to start the third quarter, that was the opening Ohio State needed. Michigan State simply couldn't stop the Buckeyes from scoring touchdowns, and now Ohio State is in control atop the Big Ten's East Division.

Ohio State is 21-0 in Big Ten regular-season games under Meyer. Last year's loss to Michigan State in the league title game was a blemish, but the Buckeyes certainly did what they could to make up for that, handing the Spartans their first loss to a conference opponent since 2012.

Michigan State led 21-14 when Ohio State's Dontre Wilson fumbled a kickoff, giving the Spartans a chance to extend their lead in the second quarter. But a holding penalty wiped out a Michigan State touchdown, and the Spartans eventually missed a field goal.

On Ohio State's next offensive play, Barrett found Michael Thomas for a 79-yard catch-and-run touchdown that tied it at 21. Then Barrett threw a 44-yard TD pass to Devin Smith to put the Buckeyes ahead with 56 seconds left in the half.

After a Michigan State field goal to start the third quarter, Ohio State marched 67 yards in 13 plays, and Elliott's 1-yard touchdown run made it 35-24. Barrett found Wilson for a 7-yard TD early in the fourth to give the Buckeyes an 18-point lead.

Jeremy Langford ran for 137 yards and three touchdowns for Michigan State, and Connor Cook threw for 358 yards and two TDs. The Spartans gained 536 yards and did not have a turnover but still couldn't keep up.

GAME 10 RECAP: AT #25 MINNESOTA

#8 Buckeyes Defeat #25 Minnesota, 31-24, in Minneapolis

Barrett rushes for an Ohio State QB-record 189 yards and passes for 200 more

MINNEAPOLIS -- J.T. Barrett threw for three touchdowns and ran for an Ohio State quarterback-record 189 yards and another score, helping the eighth-ranked Buckeyes overcome three turnovers and wintry weather to beat Minnesota 31-24.

Barrett completed 15 of 25 passes for 200 yards and one interception, another stellar performance for the freshman following last week's rout of Michigan State.

Jalin Marshall had 107 total yards for the Buckeyes (9-1, 6-0 Big Ten, No. 8 CFP), but he lost two fumbles to give the Gophers (7-3, 4-2, No. 25 CFP) a chance to come back.

David Cobb ran 27 times for 145 yards and three touchdowns, but Minnesota didn't quite do enough to avoid a 37th loss in 39 games against Ohio State since 1966.

Brian Boddy-Calhoun forced two turnovers for the Gophers in the coldest kickoff, 15 degrees, in six seasons at TCF Bank Stadium. The lowest temperature in more than a half-century for a Buckeyes game featured snowflakes collecting on coach Urban Meyer's uncovered head on the sideline.

Whether in wintry or summer-like conditions, though, Ohio State has the fastest team in the Big Ten. The 12th-ranked Spartans and their otherwise-dominant defense learned that lesson last week.

On third-and-1 on the second possession for the Buckeyes, Barrett kept the ball on a read-option play and burst through the line into a wide-open secondary for an 86-yard run, the longest by an Ohio State quarterback.

Minutes later, on third-and-7, Barrett slide-stepped to his left to elude the rush and put an off(equals)balance throw in stride for Marshall sprinting across the middle as safety Cedric Thompson dived to break up the pass and missed. Marshall turned up the field for the 57-yard untouched score.

Barrett has accounted for 38 touchdowns, 34 since the loss at home to Virginia Tech on Sept. 6.

The Buckeyes were driving again when Minnesota reversed the momentum. Like a center fielder, Boddy-Calhoun caught up to a long pass at the 5 before whirling around and weaving his way for a 56-yard return of the interception. Five punishing carries by Cobb later, the Gophers were in the end zone.

Then midway through the second quarter, Marshall caught a shovel pass on a sweep from the 7 and was on the verge of another touchdown when Boddy-Calhoun lowered his shoulder at the goal line and popped the ball out. DeVondre Campbell covered it in the end zone for the touchback.

QB J.T. Barrett passed for three TDs and rushed for an OSU quarterback-record 189 yards and a TD.

The Gophers went 80 yards the other way, converting a fourth-and-3 and then scoring on a display of confidence in their power running attack with a 30-yard rumble by Cobb on third-and-15 that tied the game at 14 with 1:24 left before halftime.

For Minnesota's shivering fans, waiting so long for a breakthrough in the Big Ten, this proved to be the peak of the afternoon. The Buckeyes, aided by a pass interference penalty, hustled in position for a short field goal by Sean Nuernberger on the last play of the half.

Given another break when Doran Grant's interception return for a touchdown was negated by his pass interference infraction, the Gophers watched a 52-yard field goal try by Ryan Santoso soar through the snow with plenty of distance but bounce off the left upright.

Barrett responded by finding Michael Thomas wide open for a 30-yard score, and Mitch Leidner was picked off on consecutive possessions. The Buckeyes followed the second one with a 22-yard catch and run by Evan Spencer on third-and-12 to push the lead to 17 points.

Marshall's fumbled punt return gave Minnesota the ball at the 14, and Cobb returned to the end zone to bring the Gophers closer as the clock moved under 8 minutes remaining.

But Barrett helped the Buckeyes make sure the Gophers didn't get closer, roaming right for 6 yards on third-and-5 during the next drive to put the Gophers in a big hole.

Santoso made a 34-yarder with 1:19 left to make it 31-24, but Ohio State recovered the onside kick.

Grant and Vonn Bell had the interceptions of Leidner, who finished 7 for 19 for 85 yards.

Ohio State officials searched records since 1960 and found a 20-degree game against Michigan in 1964 was the previous low temperature.

Marshall Powers No. 6 Ohio State Past Indiana

Buckeyes claim Big Ten East Division title; earn second straight berth to B1G Championship

COLUMBUS, Ohio --- Jalin Marshall was the problem last week and the solution on Saturday for No. 7 Ohio State. The freshman returned a punt 54 yards for the go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter and then added three late insurance scores to carry the Buckeyes past Indiana 42-27, the Hoosiers' sixth loss in a row.

The surprisingly tight game for most of the day could impact the playoff hopes of the Buckeyes (10-1, 7-0 Big Ten, No. 6 CFP), who clinched the East Division title and a berth in the conference title game.

"We're conference division champions, we've won a bunch of games (nine) in a row," said Meyer, whose team also has won a conference record 23 straight regular-season games heading into next week's game with rival Michigan. "We have some work to do. Sometimes in college football, things don't go exactly as scripted."

The Buckeyes will play the winner of the Minnesota-Wisconsin game in the Big Ten title game on Dec. 6 in Indianapolis.

They trailed the 34-point underdog Hoosiers 20-14 after Tevin Coleman sped 90 yards for a TD midway through the third quarter. A week after rushing for 307 yards, Coleman went for 228 yards on 27 carries for three scores for the Hoosiers (3-8, 0-7).

The Hoosiers' last chance at a tying score ended with Tyvis Powell picking off a pass from Zander Diamont with 4:25 left, deep in Indiana territory. Marshall caught two more scoring passes after that to pad the lead before Coleman rumbled 52 yards for a score with 1:13 left.

"We kind of (had) them where we want them, 4 minutes to go in the 'Shoe and it's 28-20," Indiana coach Kevin Wilson said. "We were trying to make a play and came up short."

Despite the up-and-down day for the Buckeyes, J.T. Barrett set the school mark for touchdown passes (33) in a season and Ezekiel Elliott, who had 107 yards on 13 carries, topped 1,000 yards. Barrett completed 25 of 35 passes for 302 yards and four scores with two interceptions, and ran for 78 yards on 20 attempts.

On IU's second possession of the second half, Coleman took a simple handoff, bounced outside and streaked down the left sideline. The 210-pound sophomore was pulling away from two Ohio State defensive backs over the last 50 yards, too.

H-B Jalin Marshall returns a punt 54 yards for a TD in the third quarter, one of his four TDs on the day.

Once in jeopardy of being run out of the chilly stadium, the Hoosiers were up 20-14. A crowd of 101,426 at Ohio Stadium sounded more like 426.

But that all changed late in the quarter after an anemic 35 minutes by Ohio State when Marshall took a low, line-drive punt, avoided an early tackle and then sidestepped punter Erich Toth for the 54-yard return.

Marshall scored on a 6-yard shovel pass, made a one-handed grab of a 15-yard Barrett pass to swell the lead to 35-20 with just over 4 minutes left, then added a 54-yard catch-and-run.

The Buckeyes, favored by 34 points, cruised down the field for touchdowns on their first two series, taking just three plays and 1:11 off the clock before Elliott burst untouched through a chasm up the middle for a 65-yard TD. Barrett hit Jeff Heuerman for a 4-yard TD that seemed to portend a rout.

Then Diamont, who completed 11 of 27 passes for 114 yards, helped turn the tide with a 53-yard scramble that set up Coleman's 2-yard touchdown. The Buckeyes then turned the ball over on their next three possessions and, suddenly, it was a game.

#6 Buckeyes Defeat Michigan, 42-28

Buckeyes become first team in Big Ten history to go 8-0 three straight seasons

COLUMBUS, Ohio -- Ezekiel Elliott scored untouched on a 44-yard run on fourth-and-1 with 4:58 left to help Ohio State, which lost J.T. Barrett early in the fourth quarter to a leg injury, beat the Wolverines 42-28.

Barrett threw for one TD and ran for two before his right leg crumpled underneath him when he was tackled on a run.

Cardale Jones came in for the Buckeyes (11-1, 8-0, CFP No. 6) to lead the drive that culminated in Elliott's long run. Darron Lee returned a fumble 33 yards for a touchdown to add to the lead.

Many in a crowd of 108,610 rushed the field after the final seconds ticked off. State highway patrol officers encircled the goalposts to prevent anyone from tearing them down after the 111th meeting of the rivals.

Barrett, a Heisman Trophy contender, completed 13 of 21 passes for 176 yards and a touchdown and also ran for scores of 25 and 2 yards while gaining 89 yards on 15 carries.

On second-and-1 at the Ohio State 33 on the first play of the fourth quarter and with the Buckeyes leading 28-21, he got twisted at the line and his right leg bent back beneath him at an odd angle. As he was on the field, and after he was helped onto a cart with a temporary air cast on his leg, he was greeted by teammates and Michigan quarterback Devin Gardner.

Cardale Jones, a seldom-used sophomore, took over. The Buckeyes punted but the defense stiffened against a much-maligned Michigan offense playing one of its best games of the season.

The next time the Buckeyes had the ball, they took over at their own 20. They ended up facing a fourth-and-1 at the Michigan 44. After a timeout, Elliott, who had 75 yards on 15 carries, took a handoff from Jones and surged through a big hole at left tackle with 4:58 left. The touchdown gave the Buckeyes breathing room at 35-21.

They got more moments later when defensive end Joey Bosa stripped the ball from Gardner and linebacker Darron Lee picked it up and ran the remaining 33 yards to make it 42-21 with 3:58 left.

The Wolverines added a late score on a 3-yard pass from Gardner, who ended up 22 of 32 for 233 yards and two scores with an interception to Freddy Canteen.

RB Ezekiel Elliott scores on a 44-yard TD run in the fourth quarter.

Tied at the half, the Buckeyes took the second-half kickoff and wasted little time.

Barrett's spiral to Devin Smith on a post pattern was good for 52 yards. From the Michigan 2, Barrett won a footrace to the corner for the touchdown.

Michigan then went 75 yards to tie it again. On third-and-6 at the Ohio State 29, Gardner was sacked and fumbled and Ohio State's Curtis Grant recovered.

However, Buckeyes defensive end Bosa was flagged for being offside. After converting the short first down, Gardner pitched to Johnson who threw the ball back to his quarterback for an 18-yard gain to the 4. Johnson then took it in from there.

The Buckeyes resorted to their running game for big gains of their next possession, tossing in a 22-yard Barrett-to-Nick Vannett pass. Aided by a pass-interference call in the end zone, the Buckeyes retook the lead on Elliott's 2-yard score late in the third.

GAME 13 RECAP: B1G CHAMPIONSHIP VS. #13 WISCONSIN

Buckeyes Blank Wisconsin for Big Ten Championship

Buckeyes claim 35th Big Ten conference championship

INDIANAPOLIS -- Cardale Jones threw for 257 yards and three touchdowns and was named the game's MVP in his first career start, leading No. 6 Ohio State to a 59-0 rout of No. 11 Wisconsin in Saturday night's conference championship game.

Ohio State (12-1, 8-0) has won 11 straight since losing at home to Virginia Tech and has beaten nine bowl-eligible teams all but two by double digits. Still, some wondered whether losing record-setting quarterback J.T. Barrett with a broken right ankle in the regular season finale after losing Heisman Trophy candidate Braxton Miller with a right shoulder injury in August, would be too much to overcome.

Not a chance.

Jones was efficient and effective Saturday, going 12 of 17.

Ezekiel Elliott carried 12 times for 150 yards and two scores in the first half and finished with 20 carries for a career high 220 yards.

Devin Smith caught four passes for 137 yards and three scores.

The defense completely shut down Wisconsin (10-3, 7-1) and kept Melvin Gordon, the nation's leading rusher, under control. Gordon ran 26 times for 76 yards, his second-worst game of the season.

Ohio State handed the Badgers their first shutout since August 1997 and their worst loss since a 59-0 rout, also to the Buckeyes, in 1979.

All of it came after an emotional week for the Buckeyes, who learned of the death of defensive lineman Kosta Karageorge one day after Barrett's season-ending injury.

Ohio State honored Karageorge by wearing a decal with his jersey number, 53, on the back of its helmets. Defensive tackle Michael Bennett changed his jersey number from 63 to 53, and before the national anthem, there was a moment of silence to honor Karageorge, who was found dead of an apparent self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Have the Buckeyes done enough on the field to make college football's inaugural final four?

They beat a team that had won seven straight overall, had rushed for 435.8 yards in its previous five games in the Hoosier State and was a four-point favorite coming into the game.

But against a quarterback and the motivated Buckeyes, Wisconsin never had a chance.

"We can play with anybody, and we're going to work extremely hard whoever we play against," Smith said.

MVP Cardale Jones threw for 257 yards and 3TDs in his first career start.

They were outgained 364-91 in first half yards when Ohio State scored on five of its first six possessions against the nation's No. 4 scoring defense. Ohio State had 558-258 advantage overall.

Just six plays into the game, Jones hooked up with Smith on a pretty 39-yard floater for a 7-0 lead. Elliott then found a whole in the middle and sprinted 81 yards for a score. After Wisconsin finally held the Buckeyes to a field goal, Jones hooked up again with Smith on a 44-yard TD pass to make it 24-0 with 11:09 left in the second quarter, then capped the half with Elliott's 14-yard TD run and Joey Bosa's 4-yard fumble return for a score to make it 38-0.

Not much changed in the second half.

Smith made a nifty two-handed, off-balance catch as he was going backward into the end zone for a 42-yard score early in the third quarter, and the Buckeyes closed it out with two Curtis Samuel touchdown runs in the fourth.

GAME 14 RECAP: SUGAR BOWL VS. #1 ALABAMA

#4 Ohio State Knocks Off #1 Alabama in Sugar Bowl

Win advances Buckeyes to the National Championship game vs. #2 Oregon

NEW ORLEANS -- Cardale Jones turned in another savvy performance in his second college start and Ezekiel Elliott ran for a Sugar Bowl-record 230 yards, leading Ohio State to a 42-35 win over top-ranked Alabama in the second semifinal of the College Football Playoff.

The Buckeyes (13-1 and seeded fourth in the playoff) kicked off at the Superdome right after Oregon finished its 59-20 rout of reigning champ Florida State in the Rose Bowl.

Now, it's on to the Jan. 12 championship game at Arlington, Texas.

Denied a shot at his fourth national title in six years, Alabama coach Nick Saban has no doubt that Ohio State can hang with the high-scoring Ducks.

"They're capable of playing with any team in the country," he said.

Meyer also likes his team's chances.

"We're good enough," he said. "That was a sledgehammer game. That was a classic."

This is what Meyer had in mind when he took over at Ohio State in 2012, having taken a year off from coaching after leading Florida to a pair of national titles. Coming from the Southeastern Conference, Meyer knew what he had to do. Recruit more speed. Bring a more athletic style to the plodding Big Ten. Turn Columbus into the SEC North.

After just three years on the job, he's one win away from a national championship. And, for the first time in nine years, the SEC won't be part of the championship game.

Jones threw for 243 yards, including a 47-yard touchdown to Devin Smith that put the Buckeyes ahead for good early in the third quarter. He also ran for 43 yards and converted a crucial third-down play with a spinning, 1-yard dive and Ohio State clinging to a 34-28 lead.

On the next play, Elliott took a handoff, broke one feeble attempt at a tackle, and was gone for an 85-yard touchdown that essentially clinched the victory with 3:24 remaining. Ohio State snapped an 0-for-10 futility against the SEC in bowl games, its only victory vacated by a scandal that cost former coach Jim Tressel his job.

Alabama (12-2) didn't go down quietly.

Blake Sims threw a 6-yard touchdown pass to Amari Cooper with 1:59 remaining. The Buckeyes recovered the onside kick, but Alabama got it back one more time after some questionable clock management.

The Tide's final shot ended when a desperation heave into the end zone was picked off by Tyvis Powell as time ran out, Sims' third interception of the game.

Jones started fall practice as Ohio State's third-string quarterback, moved up the depth chart when star Braxton Miller sustained a season-ending shoulder injury, and became the starter for the Big Ten championship game after J.T. Barrett went down with an injury.

A 59-0 rout of Wisconsin showed that Jones was up to the job. His performance against Alabama gives him a chance to go down as one of the greatest replacement players in college football history.

Alabama hardly looked like Saban's usual defensive powerhouse, giving up 537 yards to the Buckeyes. Elliott scored on a 3-yard run with 2:55 left in first half to spark the comeback, and he wound up averaging a staggering 11.5 yards on 20 carries to earn the award as the most outstanding offensive player.

Shaking off an interception, Jones led one of the biggest drives of the game at the end of the first half. He completed three straight passes for 37 yards, then broke off a 27-yard run up the middle when his receivers were covered. After a timeout with 19 seconds remaining, Ohio State pulled out a trick play - and Michael Thomas pulled off one of the most spectacular catches of the season.

Jones handed off to receiver Jalin Marshall on an apparent end-around, Marshall flipped it to Evan Spencer coming the other way, and Spencer suddenly pulled up and threw toward Thomas. He leaped up to make a twisting catch and somehow got his left foot down just inside the line for a 13-yard score that gave the Buckeyes all the momentum going into halftime.

Ohio State kept right on going, scoring two more touchdowns to complete a stunning 28-0 spurt that pushed the Buckeyes ahead 34-21.

GAME 15 RECAP: CFP NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP VS. #2 OREGON

Buckeyes Win First CFP National Championship!

Ohio State dominates No. 2 Oregon, 42-20

Arlington, Texas (AP) -- Ohio State can add the newest version of the national championship trophy to a case that already has a bunch of the old ones. The Buckeyes' third-stringer matched Oregon's Heisman winner as Cardale Jones led Ohio State past Marcus Mariota and the Ducks 42-20 in the first College Football Playoff national championship game.

Behind their bullish backup quarterback and the relentless running of Ezekiel Elliott, the Buckeyes (14-1) completed a remarkable in-season turnaround with a dominating performance against the Ducks (13-2).

Ohio State began the first major college football playoff as the fourth and final seed, and as a team that faced questions about whether it belonged at all. It was a team that never would have had a chance to win a title under the old postseason system.

No question about it now: Ohio State is the truest champion big-time football has ever crowned, showered by golden confetti as its band played "Hang on Sloopy" when the clock hit 0:00.

Elliott, a sophomore, was the offensive MVP and ran for 246 yards and four touchdowns on 36 carries. In the last three games against Wisconsin, Alabama and Oregon, Elliott had 696 yards rushing.

Jones, who took over three games ago for the injured J.T. Barrett, passed for 242 yards and a touchdown and ran for score. The 250-pound third-year sophomore proved he could keep up with Mariota - at least on this night.

Mariota passed for 333 yards and two touchdowns, but the Ducks' warp-speed spread offense missed too many red-zone opportunities and couldn't unleash its running game against linebacker Darron Lee and an Ohio State front seven stacked with future NFL draft picks.

Even with the benefit of four Ohio State turnovers, the Ducks were held to their lowest point total of the season, four touchdowns below their average coming in.

Elliott scored the game's last three touchdowns, finishing off the rout with a 1-yarder with 28 seconds left.

While Elliott slipped and darted through the Ducks, Jones shook them off.

When Jones surged and spun his way into the end zone with 4:49 left in the second quarter it was 21-7 Ohio State and the O! H! I! O! chant made the dome in North Texas sound like the horseshoe in Columbus. The Ducks were facing their largest deficit of the season.

MVP Ezekiel Elliott rushed for 246 yards and scored 4 TDs in the win over the Ducks.

Ohio State was driving on the first possession of the second half toward more points when Jones' pass bounced off Jalin Marshall's chest and into the arms of Danny Mattingly for Ohio State's third turnover. Unlike the first two Oregon takeaways, the Ducks turned this one into points in a hurry. Mariota hit Byron Marshall on a slant and he streaked 70 yards for a touchdown, barely breaking the goal line before nonchalantly dropping the ball.

Moments later, another Ohio State turnover. Jones looked a little bit like Florida State's Jameis Winston in the Rose Bowl as the ball just slipped from his hands trying to throw under pressure. Oregon recovered in deep in Ohio State deep territory.

The Buckeyes held and this time the Ducks sent Aidan Schneider out to kick a 23-yard field goal to make it 21-20.

In the first half Oregon, which goes on fourth down - especially near the goal line - more than most teams, passed on the field-goal attempt on fourth-and-goal from the 3 and Thomas Tyner was stopped a yard short of the goal line.

Suddenly, an extra three points looked as if it could come in handy for the Ducks.

But by the time Elliott went in from 2 yards out with 9:44 left in the fourth to make it 35-20, it was moot.

125 YEARS OF OHIO STATE FOOTBALL

To quote authors Marv Homan and Paul Hornung, who co-wrote Ohio State – 100 Years of Football: “Ohio State University has experienced an overwhelmingly eventful, colorful, often controversial, ever-intriguing and, above all, enormously successful football history.” Much of the information in this section, which peeks at various seasons of Ohio State football between 1900 and 2013, was supplied with permission from Ohio State – 100 Years of Football.

1904

E.R. Sweetland became the school's first year-round football coach. Expectations were high for the 1904 team, driving the athletic association to purchase 1,500 additional bleacher seats to be installed on the east side of University Field. Unfortunately, the team and the expected crowds fell way short of all expectations. Ohio State won just six times in 11 tries. Ticket prices ranged from 25 cents to a dollar for “deluxe” games with Michigan and the Carlisle Indians.

1906

Chillicothe native and former Michigan player Al Herrnstein takes over as head coach. Herrnstein, who coached at Purdue in 1905, was instrumental in proving a non-Eastern coach could be successful in college football.

1910

The construction of new bleachers increases the capacity of Ohio Field to 10,000. Football season tickets are sold for $2.50. Howard Jones, an All-American from Yale, is named head coach.

1911

On the recommendation of Howard Jones, the athletic board hires Harry Vaughn, also from Yale, as head football coach. Vaughn shows little interest in coaching and resigns after leading Ohio State to a 5-3-2 season.

1912

The athletic board, growing tired of the constant turnover, decides to try a new approach and make the head football coach also serve as the director of athletics. Weary of choosing Eastern coaches, the board hired John Richards, a former Wisconsin coach, to assume both roles. The strategy backfires, as Richards goes 6-3 and resigns after one season. With five minutes remaining in the Penn State game and OSU trailing 37-0, Richards took the Buckeyes off the field because of alleged rough play and PSU was awarded a 1-0 win. Ohio State joins the Western Conference, which later became the Big Ten, but could not compete in the conference in football until 1913.

1913

Only after Carl Rothgeb of Colorado College declined to accept the position, John W. Wilce, a former three sport star at Wisconsin, was named head football coach at Ohio State. Wilce went on to a storied 16-year career at OSU, leading the school to three Big Ten championships. The Buckeyes made their football debut in the Western Conference, creating a wave of electric enthusiasm throughout Columbus. Ohio Field's capacity had been increased to 14,000 in anticipation of joining the conference. Ohio State collected its first league win Nov. 13 with a 58-0 trouncing of Northwestern.

1914

Ohio State produced its first All-American, end Boyd Cherry, and went 5-2. Interest in football at the school continued to skyrocket.

1915

Varsity manager William A. Dougherty wrote the fight song “Across the Field.” The song was dedicated to Coach John Wilce and was first performed at the Illinois game (Oct. 16, 1915).

1916

Ohio State went a perfect 7-0 and captured its first Western Conference title – sort of. For a reason still unknown, the conference did not officially recognize football championships in those days. Highlights of the championship season included a school record 128-0 win over Oberlin, the first win over Wisconsin (14-13), and a season-ending 23-3 victory over Northwestern that decided the conference championship. Chic Harley earned the first of what would become three All-America awards. He was OSU's first three-time All-American and one of only six in school history.

1917

A powerful Ohio State team finished 8-0-1, capturing its second-consecutive Western Conference championship. Strangely enough, two postseason games were played that year. Ohio State tied Auburn, 0-0, in a game played in Montgomery, Ala., to benefit the Ohio National Guard training in the South. Another game not originally on the schedule was played the next weekend, as Ohio State rolled over Camp Sherman, a team from Chillicothe. Chic Harley earned All-America honors for the second-consecutive season, and more importantly, became the talk of the Midwest. Fans turned out in record numbers to see Harley, one of the most versatile players in the country, pass, punt, rush, return punts, drop-kick extra points, and play stellar defense. The legendary Walter Camp, who selected the only official college All-America team in those days, made a personal visit to Columbus to watch Harley play.

1919

Ohio State outscored its opponents 176-12 and went 6-1. OSU recorded its first win over Michigan, 13-3. The admittance of Ohio State to the Western Conference and the dramatic success of the football team under Coach Wilce magnified the inadequacy of Ohio Field.

1890

Football becomes a varsity sport and Alexander Lilley is the first head coach.

1899

The Buckeyes notch a 9-0-1 record, their first unbeaten season.

1901

Football crowds and support grow at an alarming rate. Columbus newspapers begin devoting more space to football and most importantly, for the first time after 12 seasons of football, the sport turned a modest profit for the ever-struggling university athletic association.

1902

Coaching hero John Eckstorm shocks the university community, announcing his resignation as head football coach. Perry Hale, a star player at Yale, takes the reins.

1920

A landmark year for Ohio State football. Professor Thomas E. French, a member of the athletic board, and Director of Athletics Lynn Wilbur St. John decided it was time to take advantage of the soaring interest in Ohio State football. An extensive stadium campaign was launched in the fall, with hopes of building a new football facility. The campaign opened Oct. 18, 1920, with a goal of reaching $600,000, a figure considered unrealistic by many. By Nov. 26, 1920, over $923,000 had been pledged. With the campaign in full force, coach Wilce's team kept interest levels high by finishing the regular season 7-0 and capturing the school's third Western Conference title. The undefeated season drove Ohio State football into the national spotlight and caught the eye of the Tournament of Roses Association in Pasadena, Calif. At the conclusion of the regular season, Ohio State received an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl against California Jan. 1, 1921. After heated discussions between members of the athletic board and St. John, the football team was granted permission to play in the game.

1921

The fact Ohio State went 5-2 and collected its third-consecutive win over Michigan was dwarfed by the construction occurring just a few blocks from Ohio Field in 1921. On Aug. 3, Ohio Governor Harry Davis joined a crowd of over 2,500 to officially break ground on the new stadium. The massive project was scheduled to take only 14 months and originally was to be completed at a cost of $1,341,017. After speculation the new stadium would seat about 35,000, it was officially announced it would actually seat over 60,000, a figure that drew harsh criticism from many. Upon completion, the final cost of the stadium exceeded $1,500,000. More than $1,000,000 of that cost had been pledged by proud and dedicated Ohio State football fans.

1922

Those that cited concerns of Ohio Stadium being too large looked on in awe as the stadium was dedicated prior to the Michigan game Oct. 21. Temporary stands were erected in the south end of the stadium, and a crowd of 72,500 was estimated. The dedication game against the Wolverines was actually the third game played in Ohio Stadium. Ohio State christened its new home with a 5-0 win over Ohio Wesleyan in front of 25,000 people. OSU won the first two games in Ohio Stadium, but finished the season with a disappointing 3-4 mark.

1928

L.W. St. John announces all stadium debt has been paid, a remarkable achievement considering the facility had been standing for only eight short years. Coach Wilce announces his resignation, to take effect in June, 1929, citing the desire to enter the private practice of medicine. After capturing three Western Conference championships and producing 14 All-Americans, Wilce left football and did postgraduate research at Harvard and Columbia before becoming the Director of the Ohio State University Student Health Services in 1934.

1929

Sam Willaman, an assistant on Wilce's staff and a 1913 Ohio State graduate, was named the 13th head coach in the history of Ohio State football. He led the team to a 4-3-1 finish in his first season.

1930

Wes Fesler becomes only the second three-time All-American in Ohio State history, captaining the Buckeyes and leading them to a 5-2-1 record. He also is the first recorded winner of the team's Most Valuable Player Award. Fesler, one of the school's top all-time all-around athletes, earned nine total varsity letters – three each in football, basketball and baseball.

1933

Fueled by an incredible defense, Ohio State finished 7-1, dropping only a 14-0 decision to Michigan. The Buckeyes allowed only 26 points the entire season, while scoring 161.

1934

Francis Schmidt is named the head football coach at Ohio State, ushering in not only a new era but also a new style of football. With an offensive scheme dubbed "razzle-dazzle" by the press and featuring double and triple reverses, laterals, and passes, Schmidt's inaugural team scored 267 points – the second most in OSU history at that point. Schmidt's off-the-field antics were just as colorful as his on-field plays, making him an instant hit with the community. After accepting the coaching position, he was asked how he expected to cope with the OSU nemesis from Ann Arbor. Dressed in his inevitable bow tie, his matter-of-fact answer developed into a cliché: "They put their pants on one leg at a time same as everybody else." Schmidt's comment leads to the formation of the "Gold Pants Club," which awarded miniature gold football pants to all players who had a hand in a victory over the Wolverines. The tradition of an annual Captain's Breakfast, where all former grid captains are invited to a breakfast and welcome the current team captains, also began.

1935

Ohio State collected its second-consecutive 7-1 season under Schmidt, claiming the school's first Big Ten title in 14 years. The Buckeyes capped the year with a 38-0 season-ending win over Michigan. That season finale launched the now famous season-ending rivalry. Since then, Ohio State has ended its regular-season schedule with a battle against the Wolverines every year but one. Also in 1935, Ohio State and Notre Dame play what was hailed as the "greatest college game ever played," for many years after. The Buckeyes held a 13-0 lead entering the fourth quarter, but Notre Dame scored three times in the final stanza – twice in the last two minutes – for an 18-13 win.

1936

The Ohio State Marching Band performed "Script Ohio" for the first time at the Pittsburgh game (Oct. 10, 1936). OSU dropped its Big Ten opener to Northwestern, 14-13, but steamrolled through its remaining conference schedule with four shutouts in four games.

1941

After a dominant high school coaching career in Massillon, Ohio, Paul Brown was named Ohio State's 15th head coach. An incredibly organized, meticulous man, Brown led Ohio State to a 6-1-1 mark in his debut season. He also earned OSU's first West Coast win, a 33-0 trouncing at Southern California in only Brown's second collegiate game. The season ended with a 20-all tie at Michigan.

1942

Though World War II loomed over the nation, Ohio State football fans reveled in one of the most glorious seasons ever. The Buckeyes captured the school's first national championship as well as a Big Ten title, finishing the year 9-1 and ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll. Led by a star-studded backfield that included Les Horvath, Paul Sarringhaus, and Gene Fekete, OSU rolled to 337 points, a record that stood until 1969. The only loss of the season, a 17-7 decision at Wisconsin, even had an asterisk. Several key players and coaches caught a debilitating virus from a drinking fountain on the train from Chicago to Madison.

1943

With a game apparently ending in a 26-all tie, Ohio State and Illinois left the field. But the teams were called back 20 minutes later when it was discovered the Illini were called for a penalty on the Buckeyes' final play. With little of the crowd remaining, John Stungis kicked a 27-yard field goal – the first of his career – for a 29-26 OSU win. Brown, a Lieutenant Junior-Grade, left Ohio State for the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in April of 1944.

1944

Carroll Widdoes, an assistant of Paul Brown's at Massillon and Ohio State, was named acting head coach. In his first season, the Buckeyes finish 9-0 and claim the Big Ten championship, but finish No. 2 in the Associated Press behind Army. OSU fans claim an unofficial "civilian national championship." Les Horvath became the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. Ohio State received an invitation to the Rose Bowl, but faculty representatives from around the Big Ten disallow the trip.

1946

In one of the program's more unique coaching moves, offensive coordinator Paul Bixler and head coach Carroll Widdoes switched roles prior to the season. Warren Amling earns All-America honors at tackle, just a year after being named an All-America guard. Following the season, Bixler turns in his resignation.

1947

In the same meeting Bixler announces his intentions to resign, L. W. St. John proposes to the athletic board that Wes Fesler be the next head coach at Ohio State. The board concurs, and Fesler, a three-time All-American at Ohio State in the 1930s, becomes the program's fifth head coach in eight years. In one of the stranger games during the 1900s, Ohio State was afforded three plays after time had expired because of Northwestern penalties and came away with a 7-6 victory in Ohio Stadium.

1949

Ohio State captures a share of the Big Ten championship and collects its first Rose Bowl win, beating California, 17-14.

1950

Vic Janowicz puts on arguably the greatest individual display in college football history against Iowa. He sent two kickoffs out of the endzone for touchbacks, recovered two fumbles on defense, scored on an 11-yard touchdown run, returned a punt 61 yards for a touchdown, threw a 12-yard scoring strike, and kicked three extra points – all in the first five minutes of the game. The famous “Snow Bowl” game with Michigan was played in late November. Somehow, between the swirling winds and zero visibility, Janowicz boots a 27-yard field goal in what would later be called one of the “Greatest Feats in American Sports” by a panel of sportswriters. To no one’s surprise, Janowicz wins the Heisman Trophy. On Dec. 9, Fesler submits a lengthy resignation statement.

1951

After a highly-scrutinized selection process, Wayne Woodrow “Woody” Hayes begins his 28-year tenure as head coach. A tireless worker, meticulous planner, and a Lieutenant Commander in the Navy, Hayes led his initial Buckeye team, which struggled to adjust to his T-formation style, to a 4-3-2 finish. Many thought Hayes’ days at Ohio State were numbered. They were wrong.

1954

Ohio State claims its second national championship with a perfect 10-0 season, beating Southern Cal, 20-7, in a rainy, mud-soaked Rose Bowl game. The rift between West Coast writers and Hayes is born when the OSU coach criticizes the Tournament of Roses Association for not covering the field before the game and allowing the bands to perform at halftime.

1955

Ohio State uses a 17-0 blanking of Michigan to claim its second-consecutive Big Ten championship. Howard “Hopalong” Cassidy becomes Ohio State’s third Heisman Trophy winner. During the season, Hayes voices his displeasure over the fact several other football conferences had started awarding scholarships to student-athletes, but the Big Ten had failed to follow suit. After a series of meetings and heated debates, the conference adopts a complicated grant-in-aid program based on financial need, marking the first form of athletics scholarship available at Ohio State.

1956

Ohio State sets a Big Ten record with 17-consecutive victories, breaking Michigan’s previous mark of 15. Offensive guard Jim Parker became the first OSU player to win the Outland Trophy.

1957

After dropping the season opener, the Buckeyes win nine-consecutive games to capture the school’s third national championship – the second under Hayes. OSU knocked off Oregon 10-7 in the Rose Bowl for its third-consecutive win in Pasadena.

1961

Ohio State finishes 8-0-1, defeats Michigan, 50-20, wins the Big Ten and is named national champions by the Football Writers. A bitter dispute among the school’s faculty council erupted when a Rose Bowl invitation arrived. By a narrow margin, the council voted not to accept the invitation and skip the bowl game. A livid Hayes claimed for years the decision hampered his recruiting efforts.

1963

Ohio State defeated Michigan in Ann Arbor, 14-10, marking the fourth-consecutive Buckeye win over the Wolverines. The game was delayed a week as the nation mourned the death of President John F. Kennedy. The attendance of 36,424 was the smallest at Michigan Stadium in 20 years.

1966

Billy Ray Anders, a true walk-on that did not play high school football, set an OSU record with 55 receptions. The record would stand until Cris Carter’s arrival in 1985.

1968

Arguably the finest Ohio State team in history uses a dominating 50-14 win over Michigan and a 27-16 come-from-behind victory over Southern California in the Rose Bowl to earn the school’s fifth national championship. Before the final polls crowning the Buckeyes champions are released, Coach Hayes departs for Vietnam for a volunteer trip to talk football with U.S. servicemen. Later, the Sporting News called this team one of the 10 greatest college football teams of all-time.

1969

A squad Coach Hayes called “the best team we ever put together, probably the best team that ever played college football,” rolled easily to a 9-0 record, but a season-ending loss to Michigan ended OSU’s 22-game unbeaten streak and bid for a second-consecutive national title.

1970

Jim Stillwagon wins both the Outland and the first Lombardi Award. Ohio State rolls to nine-consecutive wins – including a 20-9 triumph over Michigan that has been called one of the most emotional games in Ohio Stadium history – before falling to Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Ohio State still was awarded a national championship by the National Football Foundation. A senior class featuring six All-Americans and nine all-Big Ten selections leaves OSU with a three-year mark of 27-2.

1972

Freshmen are cleared to play for the first time, signaling the start of the Archie Griffin era. Against the better judgment of Coach Hayes but after strong urging from backfield coach Rudy Hubbard, Griffin comes off the bench against North Carolina and rushes for a then-Ohio State record 239 yards in only his second collegiate appearance. OSU uses two goal-line stands – one in each half – to beat Michigan, 14-11, and claim a share of the Big Ten title and a trip to the Rose Bowl.

1973

Ohio State goes unbeaten, finishing 10-0-1 including a 42-21 trouncing of USC in the Rose Bowl. OSU becomes the first school to own three of the Top 5 vote-getters in the Heisman Trophy balloting. With five Big Ten titles, two national championships, and four Rose Bowl trips all in a six-year span, Ohio State football popularity hits an all-time high. Columbus becomes known as the “Capital of College Football.”

1974

On June 5, Coach Hayes suffers a heart attack, but pledges to return by OSU’s opener Sept. 14. The fiery coach, who by this point had become larger-than-life in Columbus, did return and led OSU to its third-consecutive Big Ten championship and yet another Rose Bowl. Archie Griffin won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the fifth non-senior to win the award.

1975

Hayes gives West Coast reporters a now famous quote about Archie Griffin: “He’s a better young man than he is a football player, and he’s the best football player I’ve ever seen.” Griffin becomes the first two-time winner of the Heisman Trophy, leading the Buckeyes to their conference-record fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl. He also becomes the NCAA’s all-time leading rusher in a midseason game against Purdue.

1976

Just one year after the Big Ten changes the rule to allow more than just the conference champion to attend a bowl game, the Buckeyes notch a share of the Big Ten championship and beat Colorado, 27-10, in the Orange Bowl.

1979

Former Ohio State player and assistant coach Earle Bruce is named head coach. The Buckeyes finish the regular season 11-0 and come within a point of a national championship, falling 17-16 to Southern California in the Rose Bowl. Bruce is named the Big Ten and national coach of the year in his first season.

1980

Ohio State and Illinois combined for 1,057 yards and 91 points in a 49-42 OSU win.

1981

The Buckeyes capture their second Big Ten championship in three years under Bruce and top Navy in the Liberty Bowl. Art Schlichter completed 31 of 52 passes for 458 yards – all OSU records – against the Florida State Seminoles.

1984

After a five-year absence, Ohio State returns to the Rose Bowl with an undisputed Big Ten championship. Chris Spielman makes his debut a memorable one in the season opener against Oregon State, making 10 tackles in the second half after coming off the bench. Keith Byars rushes for a then school-record 274 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 45-38 win over Illinois. Byars’ memorable day also included a 67-yard touchdown run where he lost one shoe 35 yards from the goal line.

1985

The first night game in Ohio Stadium history – thanks to portable light standards – ends in a 10-7 Ohio State win over Pittsburgh. Flanker Mike Lanese becomes the first OSU football player to win a Rhodes Scholarship. A preseason foot injury to Heisman Trophy favorite Keith Byars dampens Ohio State’s hopes for a championship season.

1987

Linebacker Chris Spielman wins the Lombardi Award and the season ends with a thrilling 23-20 win at Michigan. College football fans everywhere mourn the death of Woody Hayes. President Richard Nixon, joined by a crowd of over 10,000, speaks at Hayes’ memorial service.

1988

John Cooper, then head coach at Arizona State, was named the school’s 21st head football coach after an intense search conducted by new Director of Athletics Jim Jones.

1989

Ohio State celebrates its 100th season of intercollegiate football. The Buckeyes overcome a 31-0 deficit to win 41-37 at Minnesota, equaling the largest comeback in NCAA history. OSU competes in the Hall of Fame Bowl, its 10th different postseason bowl appearance.

1990

Natural grass returns to Ohio Stadium. Robert Smith gains 1,126 yards to break Archie Griffin’s OSU freshman rushing record.

1991

Thanks to 5,000 new bleacher seats, home total (654,500), average home (90,500) and single game (95,357 vs. Iowa) attendance records fall.

1993

OSU records its best record since 1979 by going 10-1-1, capturing a share of the Big Ten title and winning the Holiday Bowl.

1994

The Buckeyes defeat Michigan 22-6, ending a six-game winless streak against the Wolverines.

1995

Ohio State dominated college football's individual awards. Eddie George becomes OSU's sixth Heisman Trophy winner. Orlando Pace becomes the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award, and Terry Glenn wins the Biletnikoff Award. The Buckeyes tie a school record with 11 wins and play in the Citrus Bowl. OSU sets a school record that still stands with 475 points scored. A then Ohio Stadium record crowd of 95,537 is on hand for Ohio State's 45-26 win over Notre Dame.

1996

The Buckeyes win their 27th Big Ten title and defeat Arizona State in the Rose Bowl, winding up No. 2 in both national polls. Orlando Pace repeats as the Lombardi Award winner and wins the Outland Trophy. It marks the fourth-consecutive season Ohio State has finished among the nation's Top 10 in one of the major polls.

1998

Ohio State notched its fourth-consecutive 10-win season. The Buckeyes spend 10 weeks as the No. 1 in the Associated Press Poll and cap the season with a 24-14 win over Texas A&M in the Sugar Bowl. Joe Germaine wins the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award as the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player, and the Buckeyes go a perfect 5-0 against teams ranked in the Top 25. Antoine Winfield wins the Thorpe Award.

1999

Athletics Director Andy Geiger announces the retirement of Archie Griffin's No. 45 at the Sept. 30 Iowa game. It is the first number retired in any sport in Ohio State history.

2000

The jersey numbers of former Heisman Trophy winners Vic Janowicz (31) and Howard "Hopalong" Cassidy (40) are retired at home games against Penn State and Michigan, respectively. The Buckeyes fall to South Carolina in the Outback Bowl on Jan. 1, the first meeting between the two teams. Following the season, former OSU assistant Jim Tressel is named to replace John Cooper as head coach of the Buckeyes.

2001

Jim Tressel becomes the Buckeyes' 22nd head football coach. The jerseys of Les Horvath (22) and Eddie George (27), Ohio State's first and most recent Heisman Trophy winners, respectively, are retired. The Buckeyes defeat Michigan in Ann Arbor, their first win there since 1987. The three-year, $194 million stadium renovation is completed.

2002

Ohio State captures the school's seventh national championship and the Big Ten's first unanimous crown since 1968 by compiling a 14-0 record and defeating Miami in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl on Jan. 3. The 14 victories set an NCAA Division I-A record. The Buckeyes begin the season ranked 13th in the Associated Press Preseason Poll, but gradually work their way up to the No. 2 spot prior to their showdown with the previously unbeaten and top-ranked Hurricanes. Their 31-24 double-overtime victory over Miami is typical of a heart-pounding season in which they win five games by six points or less. Quarterback Craig Krenzel and two-way star Chris Gamble, who starts at both flanker and cornerback for the Buckeyes, share team MVP honors. Additionally, Krenzel is selected as the offensive MVP of the bowl game, while teammate Mike Doss is the defensive honoree.

2003

The Buckeyes began the season by winning their first five games and extending their winning streak to 19 games – the second longest in school history. A 17-10 setback at Wisconsin ended that streak. The Buckeyes also played the first ever overtime game in Ohio Stadium, a 44-38 triple overtime victory over visiting North Carolina State. It was the longest game in OSU history, lasting 4 hours and 17 minutes from kickoff to final gun. OSU won its second consecutive BCS game with a 35-28 win over Kansas State in the Fiesta Bowl.

2004

Minus 14 players who had been taken in the NFL draft the previous April and 28 seniors overall, the youthful Buckeyes won their first three games, lost the next three and then won five of the last six, including wins over Michigan in the regular-season finale and Oklahoma State in the Alamo Bowl to finish at 8-4. The senior class had the satisfaction of being just the second class in Ohio State history to post winning records against Michigan (3-1) and in bowl play (3-1). Mike Nugent became the school's first Lou Groza Award winner as the top kicker in college football and took over as the Buckeyes' all-time leading scorer. Nugent and junior A.J. Hawk both won first team All-American honors, Chic Harley, Ohio State's first three-time All-American, had his jersey retired.

2005

The Buckeyes captured a share of their 30th Big Ten title and closed the season with seven consecutive wins en route to a 10-2 record. Coach Jim Tressel's squad posted rare back-to-back wins over Michigan and Notre Dame, the latter in the Fiesta Bowl for the Buckeyes' fourth consecutive bowl victory and third BCS triumph in four years. Linebacker A. J. Hawk was a consensus All-America and won the Lombardi Award. Center Nick Mangold and safety Donté Whitner were also accorded first-team All-America honors. Quarterback Troy Smith was the MVP of the Fiesta Bowl, where he accounted for 408 yards in total offense.

2006

The 2006 Buckeyes opened the season at No. 1 in the polls and remained there throughout the regular season. Jim Tressel's team compiled a perfect 12-0 regular season record and won the school's first outright Big Ten title since 1984. The Buckeyes defeated No. 2 Texas in Austin and No. 2 Michigan in Columbus, the latter a 42-39 shootout that will go down as one of the most thrilling games every played in the storied rivalry between the two Big Ten giants. After a loss to Florida in the National Championship game in Arizona, the Buckeyes wound up No. 2 in the final polls. Individually, the story of the season was senior quarterback Troy Smith, who threw for a school record 30 touchdowns, won unanimous All-America honors and became Ohio State's seventh Heisman Trophy winner. On the defensive side of the ball, tackle Quinn Pitcock and linebacker James Laurinaitis both won All-America acclaim. Laurinaitis won the Nagurski Award as the best defensive player in the country and was one of three finalists for the Butkus Award. Pitcock was a finalist for both the Lombardi and the Lott awards. Anthony Gonzalez and Stan White Jr. both won first-team Academic All-American laurels.

2007

Picked third in the preseason Big Ten race, the young and offensively inexperienced Buckeyes went on to win another Big Ten outright title and finished the regular season with an 11-1 mark, the only loss coming to Illinois. Ohio State, which moved to No. 1 in the polls by mid-October, finished with a 14-3 win at Michigan; after a number of upsets across the nation during the next two weeks, the Buckeyes were No. 1 in the BCS standings entering the bowl season. Ohio State went to play LSU in New Orleans, dropping a 38-24 decision to finish ranked fourth. Junior James Laurinaitis, the Butkus Award winner, was a finalist for five national awards; he and offensive tackle Kirk Barton earned first team All-America honors. Brian Robiskie was a first team Academic All-American, and six Buckeyes were first team all-conference. Laurinaitis was Big Ten defensive player of the year, junior Vernon Gholston was Big Ten defensive lineman of the year and tailback Chris "Beanie" Wells, who rushed for 1,609 yards, was voted team MVP. Coach Jim Tressel won his 200th career game with the victory at Washington. Bill Willis, the pioneering 1940s All-American, had his No. 99 jersey retired.

2008

In 2008, Ohio State posted a fifth straight win over Michigan (42-7) for the first time in the storied rivalry. The Buckeyes also won a share of their fourth straight Big Ten title and played in their fourth consecutive BCS bowl, losing 24-21 to heavily favored Texas in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. James Laurinaitis won the Lott Trophy and the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, while Malcolm Jenkins was the winner of the Jim Thorpe Award; both were consensus All-Americans, Laurinaitis for the third time. Chris "Beanie" Wells, who rushed for 1,197 yards, was voted team MVP for a second year.

Capturing their fifth straight Big Ten title, the 11-2 Buckeyes advanced to Pasadena for the first time in 12 years, defeating favored Oregon 26-17 behind the play of Rose Bowl MVP Terrelle Pryor. Winning the conference crown outright, Ohio State closed the regular season with wins over nationally ranked Penn State, league-leading Iowa (in overtime) and at Michigan (21-10), the sixth consecutive victory over the Wolverines, an OSU record. All-America safety Kurt Coleman was voted team MVP.

2010

All wins from the 2010 football season were vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions. Ohio State, therefore, is not credited as being the first team in Big Ten history to win at least 10 games in six consecutive seasons; with winning 12 of 13 games this season including the Sugar Bowl; with winning a sixth consecutive Big Ten championship; or with winning for the seventh consecutive season over rival Michigan.

2012

Coach Urban Meyer and the 2012 Ohio State Buckeyes were not eligible to compete in the post-season, but that didn't stop the program from doing everything else it possibly could. The Buckeyes posted a 12-0 record for just the sixth undefeated/untied season in school history and won the Big Ten Conference Leaders Division title. The Buckeyes went 8-0 in the Big Ten with wins over three Top 20 teams – at Michigan State, Nebraska and Michigan – plus another huge win over Wisconsin at difficult Camp Randall Stadium. Quarterback Braxton Miller was the Big Ten's offensive player of the year and he finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting. Defensive end John Simon was the defensive player of the year. And defensive lineman Johnathan Hankins and cornerback Bradley Roby were each named first team All-Americans.

The 2013 Buckeyes extended the 12-game winning streak from 2012 to a school-record 24 consecutive games before a defeat in the Big Ten Conference championship game. School and Big Ten Conference records were set by the Buckeyes for rushing yards (4,321) and total offensive yards (7,167).

THE 2014 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP SEASON

Urban Meyer's 2014 Ohio State Buckeyes captured the eighth national championship in school history to cap its 125th season of football. Led by eight senior starters, the Buckeyes won their final 13 games to win the first College Football Playoff national championship while tying the NCAA record for wins in a season with 14.

A youthful team that featured four new starters on the offensive line, a freshman quarterback, a new running back and a defense that improved every week took each game one at a time and dismantled its opponent week after week by an average margin of victory of 23 points.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP
NORTH TEXAS 2015

The Buckeyes stayed perfect in Big Ten play under Meyer by winning all eight games to extend their conference record-winning streak to 24 games. Then with Cardale Jones replacing the injured J.T. Barrett at quarterback, the Buckeyes pounded Wisconsin, 59-0, to win the school's 35th Big Ten Conference championship; a win so convincing the team earned one of four positions in the first College Football Playoff.

In the CFP semifinals at the Allstate Sugar Bowl, Ohio State came back from a 21-6 deficit behind outstanding defense and 230 rushing yards from Ezekiel Elliott to defeat No. 1 Alabama, 42-35, and claim the Sugar Bowl championship and a date in the national championship game vs. No. 2 Oregon.

And 11 days later in the CFP National Championship game at Reliant Stadium in Arlington, Texas, the Ohio State defense was again dominant and Elliott led an offensive charge with 246 rushing yards and four touchdowns in the 42-20 victory.

STATS. NOTES. GOOD STUFF.

- Ohio State has now won eight national championships and 35 Big Ten championships.
- WR Devin Smith had all kinds of great Ohio State stats, but none were better than him catching a touchdown pass in 22 games during his career and Ohio State being a perfect 22-0 in those games.
- Sophomore WR Michael Thomas led the team in receiving with 54 catches for 799 yards and nine touchdowns in 2014.
- Junior LB Joshua Perry led the Buckeyes with 124 tackles in 2014.
- Led by Vonn Bell's six interceptions, five from Doran Grant and four from Tyvis Powell, the Buckeyes had 25 interceptions on the season which ranked fourth in the NCAA and second all-time at Ohio State.
- Ohio State led the nation in attendance in 2014, with an average of 106,296 fans attending games at Ohio Stadium.
- More than 29,000 Ohio State students had season tickets this year; a figure that also led the NCAA.
- Six Buckeyes earned freshman All-American honors in 2014: QB J.T. Barrett, LB Raekwon McMillan, LB Darron Lee, CB Eli Apple, H-Back Jalin Marshall and OG Billy Price.
- Four starters on the offensive line were Academic All-Big Ten honorees: Darryl Baldwin, Jacoby Boren, Pat Elflein and Billy Price. Boren also earned second-team Academic All-America honors.
- The fifth starter on the offensive line – Taylor Decker – just missed the academic all-Big Ten honor but he has the hardest major: animal sciences.
- Team captains were Braxton Miller, Doran Grant, Curtis Grant, Michael Bennett, Jeff Heuerman and Evan Spencer.
- The Buckeye offense was highly ranked and nationally ranked: 5th in scoring; 8th in rushing and 9th in total offense.
- The defense returned to its lofty status by ranking 19th nationally in total defense.

QB BRAXTON MILLER

Miller led the Buckeyes two 24 wins in Urban Meyer's first two seasons as coach and showed the way for his younger teammates to take over in 2014 after he was injured. Miller is a two-time Big Ten Conference Silver Football Award winner, offensive player of the year and quarterback of the year.

QB J.T. BARRETT

Barrett led the Buckeyes to the brink of the College Football Playoffs before an ankle injury against Ohio State's rivals from the North on Nov. 29 ended his season. Barrett went 11-1 as a starting quarterback, set 19 records including a Big Ten record for TDs responsible for, was named the Big Ten quarterback and freshman of the year, and finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

QB CARDALE JONES

Without ever starting a game, 6-5, 250-pound sophomore quarterback Cardale Jones confidently and calmly directed Ohio State to three of its greatest wins in school history: 59-0 over Wisconsin in the Big Ten championship game; 42-35 over No. 1 Alabama in the CFP semifinals at the Sugar Bowl; and 42-20 over No. 2 Oregon to win the first College Football Playoff national championship game. Then, in front of an audience of impressionable young students, he announced he would return to Ohio State for his junior season rather than go pro because having his college degree is the most important goal for him at this time.

RB EZEKIEL ELLIOTT

Elliott was a huge part of Ohio State's wonderful and stunning run to the national championship game. He rushed for 696 yards and eight touchdowns, set five school and bowl game records and earned offensive MVP honors at the Allstate Sugar Bowl and the College Football Playoff National Championship game. He rushed for more than 1,800 yards as a sophomore and was named a finalist for the prestigious Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in America.

WR EVAN SPENCER

Spencer was a three-year starting wide receiver who had 52 career catches and seven touchdowns, but it was the selfless, critically important things he did that earned him MVP honors from Coach Urban Meyer. Like block two Alabama players to help spring Ezekiel Elliott on his record 85-yard touchdown run. Or throw a perfect TD pass to Michael Thomas vs. the Crimson Tide. Or pull down the onside kick to help secure the victory over Alabama. And he did things like this throughout his career.

DE JOEY BOSA

Bosa was a consensus and a unanimous All-American after a sophomore season in which he led the Big Ten in quarterback sacks (13.5), tackles-for-loss (20.5) ... and shrugs. Bosa was also named the Big Ten's defensive player of the year, its defensive lineman of the year and he was a finalist for three major national awards: the Lombardi Award, the Bednarik Award and the Hendricks Award.

DT MICHAEL BENNETT

Bennett was a team captain and a first-team All-American by CBSSports.com. He was a force on the field and in the locker room and finished his career with 111 career tackles, including 31.5 tackles-for-loss and 18 quarterback sacks. He also forced seven fumbles, including a Big Ten championship game record two in the 59-0 win over Wisconsin.

CB DORAN GRANT

Grant, a team captain, was as durable as he was outstanding on the field, having played in all 54 games over the last four years including 30 consecutive starting assignments in 2013 and 2014. The second-team all-Big Ten Conference honoree had nine pass break-ups and five interceptions as a senior, including two interceptions in the Big Ten title game vs. Wisconsin.

LEGENDS AND GREATS

WOODY HAYES

Head Coach, 1951 – 1978

FOR 28 YEARS HE WAS THE HEART AND SOUL OF OHIO STATE FOOTBALL.

A worshipper of tough men, he preached self-reliance, education and that the more you give, the more you get in return. He took the Buckeyes to heights never before achieved in the school's rich football history and touched countless lives along the way.

Between 1951 and 1978, while Woody Hayes stalked the Ohio Stadium sidelines, the Buckeyes won five national titles (narrowly missing four others), captured 13 Big Ten crowns and won 205 games, including 153 conference games. Twice, the Buckeyes won a conference-record 17 consecutive league games.

Under Hayes, the Buckeyes played in 11 bowl games, including eight Rose Bowls. Ohio State is the only Big Ten school to play in four consecutive Rose Bowls, traveling to Pasadena following the 1972, '73, '74 and '75 seasons.

Under Hayes' guidance, 56 different Ohio State players garnered first team All-America honors. He coached three Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy recipients and two Lombardi Award honorees.

Four of Hayes' teams notched unbeaten records and five others suffered just one loss. Between 1968 and 1970, the Buckeyes were 27-2 and won three Big Ten titles. From 1972 to 1977, OSU reeled off six consecutive league championships and fashioned a combined record of 49-8.

The list of former Hayes assistants includes Bill Mallory, Glen Mason, Gary Moeller, Lou Holtz, Bo Schembechler, Earle Bruce and Joe Bugel, just to name a few.

Hayes recorded a lifetime record of 238-72-10. During his stay with the Buckeyes, Hayes twice won National Coach of the Year honors. During the Hayes era, the Buckeyes led the nation in attendance 21 times and finished second the other seven years. Hayes, who grew up in Newcomerstown, Ohio, graduated from Denison in 1935. He spent his entire coaching career within the state of Ohio, coaching at Denison for three years and at Miami (Ohio) for two.

Hayes was a noted historian with a passion for military history. He held the rank of associate professor at Ohio State and took great pride in being able to teach during the off-season. He was as proud of his players' high graduation rate as he was of their success on the football field.

Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes was born Feb. 14, 1913, in Clifton, Ohio. He died March 12, 1987, but his influence still lives through the many thousands of people he touched during his 28 years at Ohio State. Woody Hayes holds a special place in college football history.

Won five national titles (1970, 1968, 1961, 1957 and 1954) • Won 13 Big Ten championships
 Won 205 overall and 153 conference games • Led Ohio State to 11 bowl games (eight Rose Bowls)
 Took Ohio State to four consecutive Rose Bowls (1972-75) • Produced 56 first team All-Americans
 Coached three Heisman Trophy and three Outland Trophy winners • Coached two Lombardi Award winners

Heisman Trophy Winner

*"HE'S A BETTER YOUNG MAN
THAN HE IS A FOOTBALL PLAYER AND HE'S THE BEST FOOTBALL PLAYER I'VE EVER SEEN."*

— WOODY HAYES

In 1974, Ohio State tailback Archie Griffin became just the fifth junior ever to win the Heisman Trophy. In 1975, Griffin became the first player ever to win a second Heisman. He is still the only player to have two of the coveted bronze statues, which go annually to the nation's top college football player.

But though more than three decades have passed, honors continue to befall Griffin, now president of the Ohio State Alumni Association.

Griffin was selected to the National High School Hall of Fame in 1996. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation and the Rose Bowl halls of fame and, of course, belongs to the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame.

Following his senior year, Griffin, who graduated a quarter early with a degree in industrial relations, received the NCAA's prestigious Top Five Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and leadership.

After graduation, Griffin was a first-round draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals. He played eight years of professional football before returning to Columbus and joining the staff at Ohio State.

His jersey number "45" was retired Oct. 30, 1999.

JIM TRESSEL

Head Coach, 2001 – 2010

The numbers on Jim Tressel are impressive: 229 career wins; nine national title game appearances; six Big Ten titles; nine bowl appearances; and national championships in 1991, 1993, 1994, 1997 and 2002. Or 25 first team All-Americans at Ohio State; Heisman, Lombardi, Thorpe, Lott, O'Brien, Butkus, Nagurski, Groza, Rimington, Walter Camp, Ray Guy, Wuerffel, Lowe's and Draddy award winners; 49 first team all-Big Ten selections. Add nearly an .820 winning percentage with the Buckeyes; 133 players earning Ohio State degrees during his tenure; and the most academic all-Big Ten selections in the conference each of his years as coach.

He guided the Buckeyes to an overall record of 94-21, nine bowl appearances (including seven BCS games), six 10-win seasons, six Big Ten titles and a national championship.

Tressel, who owned an overall record of 229-78-2 after his first 24 years as a head coach, was named as the Buckeyes' 22nd head coach Jan. 18, 2001. His first Ohio State squad earned a 7-5 record with a dramatic road win over Michigan in the regular-season finale. In 2002, Ohio State came from out of nowhere to capture the Big Ten's first consensus national title since 1968, posting a 13-0 regular-season record and then upsetting top-ranked Miami in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl in a 31-24 double-overtime thriller, becoming the first Division I-A school to record a 14-0 campaign.

Won 2002 National Championship
229-78-2 career record
Won six Big Ten Conference Championships
94-21 record at Ohio State
Nine bowl appearances and seven 10-win seasons
8-1 record vs. Michigan

During 2003, Tressel led the Buckeyes to an 11-2 record and their second consecutive BCS bowl appearance, where OSU defeated Kansas State in a return visit to the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. The 2004 Buckeyes attained an 8-4 record that included wins over Michigan in the regular-season finale and Oklahoma State in the MasterCard Alamo Bowl. In 2005, the 10-2 Buckeyes tied for the Big Ten title (7-1) and closed the season with back-to-back wins over Michigan and Notre Dame.

In 2006, Ohio State opened the season at No. 1 in the polls and held that ranking throughout the course of the regular season, the first team to go wire-to-wire at the top spot. Posting a 12-0 record during the regular season, Ohio State recorded wins over Texas and Michigan, both of which were ranked No. 2 at the time they played the Buckeyes, and played Florida in the BCS championship game in Arizona. In 2007, 11-2 Ohio State won another outright Big Ten title and carried the No. 1 ranking in the polls for five weeks, again advancing to the BCS title game, facing LSU in New Orleans. In 2008, the Buckeyes again won a share of the Big Ten title, polished off Michigan (42-7) for an OSU record fifth straight time, and faced Texas in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The 2009 season was another memorable year for Ohio State as the team won a sixth consecutive Big Ten crown, became the first school to defeat five 10-win teams in one season and capped the 11-2 campaign with a win over Oregon State in the Rose Bowl.

Prior to coming to Ohio State, Tressel spent 15 seasons as head coach at Youngstown State, where he also served for a time as athletics director. His years there were ripe with success, the Penguins winning four national championships and qualifying for the Division I-AA playoffs a remarkable 10 times. During his stay at YSU, he compiled an overall record of 135-57-2 and was a four-time pick as the Division I-AA National Coach of the Year.

Tressel will be inducted into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in September and into the College Football Hall of Fame in December.

LeCHARLES BENTLEY

2001 RIMINGTON AWARD WINNER

LeCharles Bentley was another in a long line of outstanding offensive linemen at Ohio State. During the 2001 season, he won consensus all-Big Ten and All-America honors, was chosen as the Big Ten's Offensive Lineman of the Year and was named winner of the second annual Dave Rimington Award as the best center in college football. He became the 20th Ohio State player to win a major award.

Bentley, a native of Cleveland, enjoyed a stellar senior year, capping a brilliant career starting all 11 regular-season games and grading out to a winning performance in each game. Time and again, it was the 6-2, 300-pound Bentley who was called upon to provide the key block that either kept a drive alive or led to an Ohio State touchdown. He graded 90 percent or better in nine of the 11 games he played and was chosen as offensive lineman of the week five times. At the end of the season, the coaching staff selected him as the offensive player of the year.

Bentley was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes. He started the final seven games of the 1999 season (six at guard and one at tackle) before moving to center as a junior in 2000. He started all 12 games as a junior, playing through a painful lower back condition, and won second-team All-Big Ten honors.

At the end of his senior year, he won first-team All-America honors on the Walter Camp, Football Writers, Football Coaches, and Associated Press teams. As a senior, Bentley faced the challenge of playing for a new coaching staff. He quickly won that group's confidence and admiration with his tough, smart and physical style of play.

A second-round pick of the New Orleans Saints in the 2002 NFL Draft, Bentley was named Sports Illustrated's Offensive Rookie of the Year. He earned two Pro Bowl selections during his career with the Saints and Cleveland Browns.

LEGENDS AND GREATS

DAVID BOSTON

SPLIT END, 1996 – 1998

In three seasons, David Boston set or tied 12 Ohio State receiving records, including most receptions (191), yards (2,855) and touchdowns (34) in a career and most receptions (85) and yards (1,435) in a season (1998). His records also included most 100-yard receiving games in a career (13) and season (8 in 1998). In 1998, he earned first team All-America honors. But what separated him from other receivers in OSU history is the way he stood out in big games. With 19 seconds left to play in the 1997 Rose Bowl, he caught the game-winning touchdown. In the 1998 Michigan game, he torched the Wolverines with 10 receptions for 231 yards and two touchdowns. He capped off his career by being named MVP of the 1999 Sugar Bowl. The Humble, Texas, native played eight seasons in the NFL.

PAUL BROWN

High school teacher, coach, college coach, professional football innovator...Paul Brown excelled at all tasks and ventures. Brown is considered by many to be the "father of the modern offense" and was highly acclaimed for his many ideas on planning and organization that changed the game of football.

With avid support from many influential groups, including the Ohio High School Football Coaches Association, Brown came from Massillon High School to become head coach at Ohio State Jan. 14, 1941. Under Brown, the Buckeyes went 18-8-1 and were known for their speed, intelligence and love of contact.

In his first season at the helm at OSU, Brown went 6-1-1, losing to an Otto Graham-led Northwestern and tying Michigan. The Buckeyes tied for second place in the Western Conference and finished 13th in the AP poll. The next year, 1942, despite lettermen to graduation or military service in World War II, Brown led the Buckeyes to Ohio State's first national championship using a team of three seniors, 16 juniors and 24 sophomores.

Following military service, Brown became the first head coach of the Cleveland Browns and also the Cincinnati Bengals. He won four AAFC championships and three NFL championships with the Browns, and was named professional coach of the year six times.

Born in Norwalk, Ohio, Brown grew up in Massillon. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967 and the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991. He passed away in August, 1991, but forever left his influence on the game of football throughout Ohio and far beyond.

EARLE BRUCE

HEAD COACH, 1979 – 1987

Earle Bruce, who played for the Buckeyes in the 1950s and was an assistant to Woody Hayes from 1966-72, became OSU head coach in 1979. His first season was defined by an 8-0 conference record that earned the Buckeyes their first outright Big Ten title in four seasons. Ohio State entered the 1979 Rose Bowl ranked No. 1, but fell short of a national title 17-16 to USC; Bruce was named Big Ten and national coach of the year. A 31-28 win over Navy in the 1981 Liberty Bowl was the first of three consecutive bowl victories, (47-17 over BYU, 1982 Holiday Bowl; 28-23 Pitt, 1983 Fiesta Bowl). The Buckeyes went back to the Rose Bowl in 1984. The fourth Big Ten title the Buckeyes achieved under the fiery Bruce was in 1986, when Ohio State finished the season with a Cotton Bowl victory. He left Ohio State after the 1987 season with an 81-26-1 record, including a 5-3 mark in bowl games. Bruce, who was also head coach at Iowa State, Northern Iowa, Colorado State and in Arena Football, is a member of the College Football (2002), Ohio State (2004) and Iowa State (2000) halls of fame.

LEGENDS AND GREATS

KEITH BYARS

TAILBACK, 1982 – 1985

Keith Byars earned first team All-America honors, was Big Ten MVP and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy (to Boston College's Doug Flutie) in 1984, when he rushed for a then-school record 1,764 yards and 22 touchdowns. That season, he led the nation in rushing, scoring (144 points) and all-purpose running (2,441). Included in those totals were 274 yards and five TDs against Illinois in one of the most brilliant individual performances in OSU annals. The Fighting Illini led 24-0, but Byars' fourth TD was a spectacular 67-yard run in which he completely reversed his field and lost a shoe at the Illinois 35, but still outran the Illini secondary. His fifth touchdown of the day was the game winner. Byars, who missed most of his senior year with a broken foot, is still fourth on the all-time rushing list with 3,200 yards. The Dayton, Ohio, native played 13 seasons in the NFL. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000.

CRIS CARTER

SPLIT END, 1984 – 1986

In his three seasons as a starter, Cris Carter caught 164 passes for 2,725 yards and 27 touchdowns. His hands were exceptional, his route running was precise, his ability to stay in-bounds was uncanny and he possessed the ability to out-jump his defenders. He made the diving, leaping, acrobatic catch look routine. In 1985, Carter set a Rose Bowl record with nine receptions for 172 yards. In 1986, Carter put together one of the great seasons in OSU annals with 69 receptions for 1,127 yards and 11 touchdowns. At the conclusion of that season, he became Ohio State's first All-America split end. He left Ohio State as the school's all-time leader in career receptions, touchdown receptions and reception yardage and is without question one of the greatest receivers in OSU and Big Ten history. A product of Middletown, Ohio, he played 16 seasons in the NFL and was an eight-time Pro Bowl selection. His #80 was retired by the Minnesota Vikings and he was one of only four NFL receivers with more than 1,000 career receptions (1,101). He will enter the NFL Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio in August 2013. Carter was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2003.

HOWARD "HOPALONG" CASSADY

1955 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

It didn't take Ohio State fans long to realize why Howard "Hopalong" Cassidy was something special. In his first collegiate game, the season opener against Indiana in 1952, the 150-pound freshman came off the bench to score three touchdowns and lead the Buckeyes to a 33-13 victory. From then on, "Hop" was a regular in the OSU lineup, playing in 36 of a possible 37 games and leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 29-8 during the next four years.

In 1954, Cassidy won unanimous All-America honors and helped the Buckeyes to a perfect 10-0 record and the first of five national championships for Coach Woody Hayes. The 1954 season concluded with a convincing 20-7 win over Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl.

Cassidy again won All-America acclaim in 1955, when he rushed for 958 yards and 15 touchdowns. At the end of the year, Cassidy's list of accolades included the Heisman Trophy and recognition by the Associated Press as the 1955 Athlete of the Year.

Cassidy, who also was an outstanding defensive back, finished his collegiate career with 2,466 rushing yards. That total still ranks 11th on the all-time OSU rushing list.

Cassidy, who prepped at Columbus Central and as a boy would sneak into Ohio Stadium to see the Buckeyes play, also played baseball at OSU, starting at shortstop for three years. He is a member of the Ohio State University Athletics (1997), College Football (1979) and Columbus Baseball (2005) halls of fame.

After graduation, Cassidy was a first round pick of the Detroit Lions. He played defensive back with Detroit, Cleveland and Philadelphia before retiring.

"Hop" lives in Tampa, but spent many summers in Columbus as a coach for the Columbus Clippers, the Yankees' AAA farm club. His jersey number "40" was retired Nov. 18, 2000.

JOHN COOPER

HEAD COACH, 1988 – 2000

John Cooper, the only college coach to win the Rose Bowl with both a Big Ten and Pac-10 team, became OSU head coach in 1988. His list of achievements include three shared Big Ten championships, five 10-win seasons and a 1997 Rose Bowl victory. The Buckeyes captured their first Big Ten title since 1986 in 1993, going 10-1-1 and beating BYU in the Holiday Bowl. In 1995, led by an offense that amassed a school-record 475 points, Ohio State climbed the polls to as high as No. 2, garnering an 11-2 record and three players earned national honors: Heisman Trophy winner Eddie George, Lombardi winner Orlando Pace and Biletnikoff winner Terry Glenn. In 1996, Cooper piloted Ohio State to a No. 2 final ranking, a shared Big Ten title, and a dramatic come-from-behind 20-17 victory over Arizona State in the Rose Bowl. Cooper ranks second in school history with 111 victories (against 43 defeats and four ties). Cooper's teams finished the regular season ranked in the final Top 25 polls 12 of 13 years, including three Top 5 finishes.

Overall, 21 All-Americans played under Cooper, as Ohio State played in three Citrus Bowls, three Hall of Fame/Outback Bowls, two Sugar Bowls, and the Rose, Holiday and Liberty bowls. Cooper, who was also head coach at Tulsa and Arizona State, was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008, the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 2012 and the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2013.

TOM COUSINEAU

LINEBACKER, 1975 – 1978

Tom Cousineau was a two-time All-American for the Buckeyes. In 1977, he was named the top defensive player in the Orange Bowl. His 211 tackles in 1978 still stands as a single-season school record. Against Penn State in 1978, Cousineau was in on 29 total tackles, at the time an Ohio State record that was tied by Chris Spielman. Cousineau also holds the school record for most solo tackles in a single game (16 against SMU in 1978). Six of the Top 10 single game tackle performances in school history are held by Cousineau. He ranks second on both the all-time OSU tackle list with 569 (three behind Marcus Marek) and on the career solo tackles list with 259. MVP of the Orange Bowl and the Hula Bowl, Cousineau became OSU's first No.1 overall pick in the NFL Draft when he was selected in 1979 by the Buffalo Bills. He played three seasons with the Montreal Alouettes of the CFL and was the 1979 Grey Cup MVP. He then played seven seasons in the NFL. The Fairview Park, Ohio, native was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1995.

Mike Doss was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes. In each of those years he was a first-team All-American. In doing so, he became just the seventh three-time All-American in Ohio State football history. Doss was an inspiration both on and off the field. At the beginning of his senior year, he was chosen as one of the team's two co-captains. At the end of his senior year, in his final game as a Buckeye, he was chosen as Defensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl, where Ohio State captured its first consensus national championship since 1968 with a 31-24 double-overtime victory over Miami. Mike Doss played in 50 games, starting 40, and collecting a combined total of 331 tackles, placing him in the OSU career top 10. Doss started the last two games of his freshman year. From that point on he was a regular. As a sophomore, he finished the season with a team-best 94 tackles and was named to a first-team berth on The Sporting News All-America team. He also led the team in tackles as a junior with 87 total stops and was again named to a first-team spot on The Sporting News team, as well as the Walter Camp squad. After electing to stay for his senior year, Doss collected a personal high 107 tackles and was named first team All-America on the Associated Press, Football Writers, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Walter Camp teams. A three-time all-Big Ten pick, Doss was the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. The Canton, Ohio, native played five seasons in the NFL.

WESLEY FESLER

END, 1928 – 1930

Wes Fesler was Ohio State's second three-time All-American, winning first-team recognition at end in 1928, '29 and '30. Fesler, who also played fullback for the Buckeyes, was team captain as a senior and was the Ohio State and the Big Ten MVP in 1930. Fesler, a superb all-around athlete, earned nine letters, three each in football, basketball and baseball. In basketball, he won all-Big Ten honors in 1931. In baseball, he spent time in the St. Louis Cardinals organization. After graduating, Fesler served one year as an assistant on the OSU staff and then was head football coach at Wesleyan, Princeton and Pitt. In 1947, he returned to his alma mater as head coach and spent four years, compiling a 21-13-3 record and winning the 1949 Big Ten Championship and the 1950 Rose Bowl. He later served as head coach at Minnesota and was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. He was a charter inductee to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1977. The Youngstown, Ohio, native passed away July 30, 1989 at age 81.

LEGENDS AND GREATS

JOHN FRANK

TIGHT END, 1980 – 1983

John Frank distinguished himself both as a football player and as a scholar. All-Big Ten as a junior and senior, Frank ranked fourth on the all-time Ohio State receiving list with 121 catches for 1,481 yards and nine touchdowns; the reception and yardage totals were the most in school history by a tight end. He was a three-year starter, catching a personal high 45 passes in 1981 and again in 1983, still a record total for tight ends. He was voted the team MVP as a senior. In the classroom, Frank was a two-time Academic All-American and a Rhodes Scholar finalist. After winning two Super Bowl rings with San Francisco 49ers, Frank returned to Ohio State to continue his medical studies. He received his doctor of medicine in June, 1992. He was inducted into the National Jewish Sports Hall of Fame in 2006 and the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998.

EDDIE GEORGE

1995 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

At the start of the 1995 season, Eddie George was, at best, a long-shot contender for the Heisman Trophy. By season's end, he was a runaway choice, easily outdistancing runner-up Tommy Frazier of Nebraska for college football's most coveted award.

As Ohio State's sixth Heisman recipient, George rushed for a school-record 1,927 yards and 24 touchdowns. Included in that yardage total were three 200-yard games, one of which was an Ohio State record 314 yards against Illinois Nov. 11, 1995.

George's other honors in 1995 included the Doak Walker Award, the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Big Ten MVP. He also was a team co-captain.

George, who attended Abington (Pa.) High School and then Fork Union Military Academy, played only sparingly his first two years at Ohio State. Given the chance to start, he rushed for 1,442 yards as a junior and completed his career as the second leading rusher in Ohio State history with 3,668 yards.

Selected by the Houston Oilers in the first round of the NFL Draft, he was the 1996 NFL Rookie of the Year and played nine years of professional football, earning four Pro Bowl berths. He currently holds a number of business interests and hosts the "Big Ten Quad" on the Big Ten Network.

In June of 2001, Eddie earned a bachelor's degree in landscape architecture from Ohio State. He was a 2006 inductee into the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame. His jersey number "27" was retired Nov. 10, 2001. In July 2012 he was inducted into the NFF and College FB Hall of Fame. The Big Ten's top offensive player receives the Graham-George Offensive Player of the Year award.

JOE GERMAINE

QUARTERBACK, 1996 – 1998

Joe Germaine proved in two seasons as a backup that he was a fine quarterback. But it was 1996, his senior year as the starter and team co-captain, when he set 11 school records while throwing for 3,330 yards and 25 touchdowns, that separated him from other OSU quarterbacks. He was the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award winner as the Big Ten MVP that year and he led OSU to the No. 1 national ranking for a then-school-record 10 consecutive weeks. He also was named by the conference coaches as the Big Ten's Offensive Player of the Year. No Ohio State fan will ever forget his heroics in the 1997 Rose Bowl as he calmly directed the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays in the final 1:40 for the winning touchdown (a five-yard touchdown pass to David Boston with 19 seconds left). Germaine threw for 6,370 yards and 56 touchdowns in three seasons. The Mesa, Arizona, product played five seasons in the NFL.

TERRY GLENN

1995 BILETNIKOFF AWARD WINNER

Anyone who saw Terry Glenn play would never know that he has a fear of flying. Glenn repeatedly rose to new heights during the 1995 campaign, gracefully soaring through the air to gather in one clutch reception after another in a record-breaking year that resulted in the 5-11, 185-pound flanker becoming the school's first-ever recipient of the Fred Biletnikoff Award.

Glenn finished the season with 64 receptions for 1,411 yards and 17 touchdowns, third-best in school history. His touchdown total is still a school record but his yardage record was topped by David Boston's 1,435 yards in 1998.

Glenn, who had just 15 career receptions for 266 yards and no TDs entering the 1995 campaign, led the nation in yards per catch, was fourth nationally in yards per game and eighth nationally in scoring in 1995, his final year as a Buckeye.

In addition to winning the Biletnikoff Award, Glenn, a native of Columbus and a product of Brookhaven High School, followed Cris Carter as just the second wide receiver in Ohio State history to win first-team All-America honors.

Glenn caught nine passes for 253 yards and four touchdowns at Pitt, shattering the school records for single-game receiving yardage and tying the mark for TD catches. The Pitt game was one of seven 100-yard games for Glenn, another OSU record.

At the end of the season, Glenn opted to leave school and was taken in the first round of the 1996 NFL draft by the New England Patriots. He set an NFL record for catches (90) by a rookie, helping the Patriots to the Super Bowl in a sensational first year and had 8,823 yards and 44 touchdowns in his 12-year career.

LEGENDS AND GREATS

RANDY GRADISHAR

LINEBACKER, 1971 – 1973

Randy Gradishar was referred to by Woody Hayes as “the best linebacker I ever coached at Ohio State.” He was a two-time All-American and is considered one of the most versatile, mobile and complete linebackers ever to play college football. Gradishar was a three-year starter between 1971 and 1973 and recorded 320 total tackles. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and was the backbone of the 1973 defense, which recorded four shutouts and allowed just 64 points. After graduation, he played 10 years with the Denver Broncos. During his career, he was a seven-time Pro Bowler, the second most by any Bronco at the end of his career, and he also is the all-time leader in tackles for Denver with 1,958. He was inducted into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1992. In December of 1998, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Gradishar is the recipient of the 2015 Bronko Nagurski Legends Award. He will be honored at the Nagurski awards banquet in December.

CHIC HARLEY

RUNNING BACK, 1916 – 1917, 1919

Charles “Chic” Harley was Ohio State’s first three-time All-American. Harley won All-America honors as a running back in 1916 and ’17. He spent 1918 in the military but then returned to OSU in 1919 and picked up where he had left off, again winning All-America acclaim. In addition to running the football, he also punted, kicked extra points (he used the drop kick) and played defense. Fans turned out in record numbers to watch Harley play. Harley led the Buckeyes to their first Big Ten title in 1916, a repeat championship in 1917 and a second-place finish in 1919. In 1919, he was named team captain. During his three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 21-1-1. The Buckeyes played at old Ohio Field during the Harley era. But largely because of his play, Ohio Stadium was built in 1922 and has been known as the “House that Harley built.” His jersey number 47 was retired in 2004.

LEGENDS AND GREATS

A.J. HAWK

2005 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

A. J. Hawk capped a brilliant senior year by becoming Ohio State's fifth Lombardi Award winner, presented annually since 1970 to the best player in college football who lines up within five yards of the snap.

The 6-1, 247-pound Hawk finished the 2005 campaign with a team-high 121 tackles, marking the third consecutive year he had paced the Buckeyes in that category. His tackle totals included 16.5 tackles-for-loss and 9.5 sacks, both best on the team.

In addition to the Lombardi Award, Hawk was the 2005 Big Ten pre-season and post-season Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive MVP of the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

A first-team All-American both as a junior and senior, Hawk closed his career as the fifth leading tackler in Ohio State history with 494 career stops, 41 tackles-for-loss and 9.5 sacks. His 141 tackles in 2004 were the most by an Ohio State player since 1986.

Hawk led the team in tackles in 10 of 12 games in 2005, including a season-high 19 stops against Michigan State. A four-year letterman, Hawk was elected co-captain as a senior, receiving a vote from every player on the team except for himself.

Players like A. J. Hawk don't come along very often. His intensity and passion for the game made him special. His long blond locks flowing out from beneath his helmet in tribute to the late Pat Tillman, he was literally all over the field making plays and encouraging his teammates. The 2005 Ohio State defense was one of the most formidable in the nation, leading the Big Ten in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and sacks. Needless to say, Hawk played a huge role in that success.

Following the season, Hawk was the fifth player taken in the 2006 NFL draft, going to the Green Bay Packers.

JOHN HICKS

1973 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

1973 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

John Hicks came within an eyelash of pulling off one of the biggest triple plays in college football history in 1973. That year Hicks, a 6-3, 258-pound offensive tackle, won the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award as the nation's best interior lineman and also finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting.

How close did Hicks come to becoming the first interior lineman ever to win the Heisman? Well, while he finished second that year, teammates Archie Griffin and Randy Gradishar were fifth and sixth, respectively, in the balloting. By combining Ohio State's total votes, Hicks would have had enough votes to move ahead of winner John Cappelletti.

Hicks enrolled at Ohio State in the fall of 1969. Freshmen were not eligible that year, but it didn't take the Ohio State coaching staff long to figure out the Cleveland native was destined for greatness.

Hicks became a starter at right tackle as a sophomore in 1970, helping the Buckeyes to the Big Ten title and a berth in the Rose Bowl. A loss to Stanford in Pasadena cost the No.-1 ranked and previously unbeaten Buckeyes the national championship.

Hicks missed the entire 1971 season because of a preseason knee injury. Not coincidentally, the Buckeyes struggled to a 6-4 record that year.

But he returned in 1972 and was a starter the next two years, winning consensus All-America honors both of those seasons and helping the Buckeyes to two more Big Ten titles and back-to-back Rose Bowl appearances. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State posted a combined record of 28-3-1. Hicks was the first player ever to start in three Rose Bowl games.

A fiery, emotional leader and a fan favorite, Hicks was a first-round draft choice of the New York Giants following the 1973 campaign. His promising career was cut short by injury, however, and he returned to Columbus to enter private business.

Hicks was selected in April, 2001, for the College Football Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame in 1985.

SANTONIO HOLMES

WIDE RECEIVER, 2003 – 2005

A Buckeye standout from 2003-05, Santonio Holmes again put Ohio State into the NFL spotlight with his exploits in Super Bowl XLIII in Tampa.

A 2006 first-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers, the Belle Glade, Fla., native made his biggest contribution to the Black and Gold on February 1, 2009, when he snagged nine catches for 131 yards, the biggest with 36 seconds left for the game-winning score in football's biggest game.

With four receptions on the Steelers' last drive, Holmes went to the right corner of the endzone, scraping his toes to haul in the six-yard toss from Ben Roethlisberger. That amazing catch gave the Steelers a 27-23 lead in their sixth Super Bowl victory and gave Santonio the MVP trophy, only the sixth receiver and the first Buckeye ever to receive that recognition.

In 1944, Les Horvath made Ohio State history by becoming the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. With Horvath at the controls, the Buckeyes posted a perfect 9-0 record and won the Big Ten championship. In addition to leading the Big Ten in rushing (669 yards) and total offense (953 yards), the Parma, Ohio, native accounted for 1,248 all-purpose yards.

Horvath, who played both quarterback and halfback on offense and safety on defense, was the Big Ten's MVP in 1944.

Ironically, Horvath almost didn't play in 1944. After helping lead the 1942 Buckeyes to a 9-1 record and the school's first national championship, Horvath entered dental school at Ohio State and did not play in 1943. But when Coach Carroll Widdoes went to him prior to the 1944 season, the 23-year-old Horvath, who had an extra year because of wartime rules, agreed to return to the gridiron.

"At first I wasn't sure I wanted to play," said Horvath on one of his last visits to Columbus. "Dental school was quite taxing. But Coach Widdoes said I wouldn't have to practice all the time and agreed to fly me to the games, both of which gave me more time to study."

Horvath is the only Heisman winner who did not play the previous season. The layoff obviously did not bother him. He set a Big Ten rushing record in his final year.

Horvath, who finished his Ohio State career with 2,055 yards of total offense, went on to play professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Cleveland Browns. Following his professional career, he returned to Los Angeles and practiced dentistry.

Horvath, who died in November of 1995, is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame (1969) and the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame (1977). His jersey number "22" was retired Oct. 6, 2001.

BOBBY HOYING

QUARTERBACK, 1992 – 1995

Bobby Hoying was a three-year starter for OSU, leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 30-7-1. As a senior, Hoying earned first team all-Big Ten honors, was named team captain and rewrote the OSU records book by throwing for 3,269 yards and 29 touchdowns. He also set school records for completion percentage (.580) and passing efficiency (163.4) that year. His 57 career TD passes set a school record, as did the 16 games in which he passed for 200 or more yards. Hoying led the Big Ten in total offense as a senior and wound up second nationally in passing efficiency. His 7,232 passing yards (most of which came his last two years) ranked second in OSU annals. An exceptional student, he won the 1995 National Football Foundation's Vincent dePaul Draddy Award, which goes annually to the top senior student-athlete in college football. The native of St. Henry, Ohio, played six seasons in professional football. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008.

VIC JANOWICZ

1950 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

How good was Vic Janowicz? Good enough to win the 1950 Heisman Trophy as a junior on a team that posted a modest 6-3 record. And good enough that to this day most historians consider him among the greatest athletes ever to play football at Ohio State.

Rich, but deserved, praise for Janowicz, who, in addition to being a triple threat on offense, also played safety on defense.

In the words of his former coach, Wesley Fesler: "Vic excelled in every phase of the game. He not only was a great runner, passer and blocker, he also did all of our kicking, including punting, field goals, quick kicks, kickoffs and extra points. He was one of the finest, most versatile athletes I have ever seen."

Janowicz enjoyed his finest year in 1950, accounting for 16 touchdowns and 875 yards in total offense. The Elyria, Ohio, native also led the Buckeyes in scoring with 65 points. In an 83-21 win over Iowa, he ran for two touchdowns, passed for four more and set a Big Ten record with 10 extra points. He completed five of six passes for 128 yards against the Hawkeyes.

Perhaps even more remarkable was a 27-yard field goal against Michigan in the now famous 1950 Snow Bowl. That kick, into a driving snow storm with the goal post barely visible, is one of the greatest individual accomplishments in Ohio State sports history.

Janowicz, who was a consensus All-American in 1950, also set two more records in the Snow Bowl, punting 21 times for 685 yards.

After graduation, Janowicz played two years of professional baseball with the Pittsburgh Pirates, even though he had been away from the game nearly six years. He returned to football in 1954, signing with the Washington Redskins and winning the starting job at halfback as a rookie. In 1955, Janowicz barely missed out on the NFL scoring title, losing the crown on the last day of the season. His pro career was cut short the following fall, when he was involved in a near fatal car accident that left him unconscious for 30 days.

A member of the College Football Hall of Fame (1976) and the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame (1977), Janowicz died in February of 1996. His jersey number, "31" was retired Sept. 23, 2000.

MALCOLM JENKINS

2008 THORPE AWARD WINNER

The premier defensive back in college football, cornerback Malcolm Jenkins earned consensus All-America honors during his tremendous senior season. Foregoing the NFL draft to complete his college career with the Buckeyes, Jenkins' attention to detail and commitment to excellence were unrivaled, setting a splendid standard for the Silver Bullet secondary.

Lean and lithe, Jenkins was known for relentless intensity on the field, demanding the highest performance standards from himself and his teammates. Voted team captain as a senior, this no-nonsense vocal leader was a starter on four Big Ten title teams, twice playing in the national championship game.

Earning consensus All-America accolades and a unanimous all-Big Ten selection, Jenkins realized one of his long-time goals when he won the 2008 Jim Thorpe Award over players from USC and Tennessee. The Piscataway, N.J., product was the first-round draft pick of the NFL's New Orleans Saints and graduated in June of his senior year.

LINEBACKER, 1982 – 1985

Thomas "Pepper" Johnson played for the Buckeyes between 1982-85, earning All-America honors as a senior. During his career, he was credited with 379 tackles, good for fourth place on the all-time OSU list. In the 1984 and '85 seasons, Johnson led the squad in tackles and teamed with Chris Spielman to give the Buckeyes one of the most formidable linebacking tandems in college football. A born leader, Johnson was elected team captain and voted defensive MVP in both his junior and senior seasons. He also was named all-Big Ten in both of those years. He was a member of two Super Bowl championship teams with the New York Giants. Johnson was named to the Pro Bowl twice in his career and built a reputation as one of the most feared hitters in professional football. After 13 seasons as an NFL player, he began his coaching career with the New England Patriots. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

FULLBACK, 1973 – 1976

But the 6-1, 247-pound Johnson was much more than a just a blocking back. He also was proficient at lugging the pigskin, rushing for 2,308 yards and a school-record 58 touchdowns during his career. To say “Big Pete” had a nose for the goal line would be an understatement. He led the nation in scoring as a junior, tallying a school and Big Ten record 26 touchdowns. He also rushed for 1,059 yards and converted 34 of 44 third-down tries. Johnson set a school record that year with five TDs against North Carolina. In 1976, playing almost the entire season with two sprained ankles, Johnson still rushed for 724 yards and 19 touchdowns. His 156 points in 1975 was a school record and 348 career points stood as the school record until the 2004 season. ANDY KATZENMOYER

1997 BUTKUS AWARD WINNER

Andy Katzenmoyer started his first game of his freshman year in 1996 and was a regular for 37 consecutive games. He opted for an NFL career at the end of his junior season. He won a plethora of awards, including the 1997 Butkus Award and consensus All-America honors as a sophomore, and the 1996 Football News and Big Ten Freshman of the Year. He was a three-time all-Big Ten selection and a two-time finalist for the Lombardi Award.

Katzenmoyer amassed three-year statistical totals of 197 solo tackles, 256 total tackles, 50 tackles-for-loss, 192 yards in losses, 18 quarterback sacks and six interceptions. He was twice named the team's Randy Gradishar Award winner as best linebacker (1997-98). He scored twice on interceptions, vs. Minnesota as a freshman and vs. Arizona as a sophomore, tying a school record for interception return TDs. He also tied the school record with five tackles-for-loss in a game (vs. Arizona State in the 1997 Rose Bowl).

A consensus All-American as a sophomore in 1997, he became only the second sophomore to win the Butkus Award as the nation's outstanding linebacker. He was a Lombardi Award finalist, ranking second on the team with 97 tackles, including 13 tackles-for-loss. He clinched the Arizona win with a 20-yard interception return touchdown. He had 11 tackles against both Arizona and Iowa. In 1996 he became the first freshman to start every game at linebacker for the Buckeyes, finished second on the team with 85 tackles and paced the team with 23 tackles-for-loss and sacks (12), both school records for a linebacker.

As a junior in 1998, Katzenmoyer was a finalist for the Maxwell Football Club's Defensive Player of the Year Award (in addition to the Lombardi Award) and he anchored the nation's top-ranked defense against the run and second-ranked total defense. A first-round draft pick of the New England Patriots, his professional career was cut short by injury.

REX KERN

QUARTERBACK, 1968 – 1970

With Rex Kern at the helm, Ohio State rolled to a 27-2 record, won the 1968 national championship, captured two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. To win the national championship, Kern led OSU to a 27-16 win over Southern California in the Rose Bowl. He was named the game's Most Outstanding Player. Additionally, the Buckeyes narrowly missed out on the 1969 and '70 wire service national championships, losing the final game in both of those years after being ranked No. 1 going into their respective season finales. In 1969, he was named an All-American. In 1970, he was elected team captain. Kern's statistics, as impressive as they were, tell just half the story. The fiery redhead was an emotional leader who displayed a penchant for making big plays when most needed. He was a winner in every sense of the word. Earning three degrees from Ohio State, he played four seasons in the NFL. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1978 and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2007.

Craig Krenzel was a two-year starter at quarterback for the Buckeyes. Taking over the offensive reins with almost no experience at the start of the 2002 season, the 6-4 signalcaller led the Buckeyes to a share of the Big Ten title, the national championship and a perfect 14-0 record. At the end of the season, Krenzel was selected by his teammates as co-MVP. A little less than a month later he was named as the Offensive MVP in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, where he guided the Buckeyes to a thrilling 31-24 double overtime win over top-ranked Miami in the national title game. The leading rusher in the game, Krenzel's fourth-and-14 completion to Michael Jenkins in the first overtime kept OSU's title hopes alive. In 2003, Krenzel directed OSU to an 11-2 record and a second consecutive win in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. After throwing four touchdown passes against Kansas State in the latter, he was again selected as the game's Offensive MVP. Krenzel completed his career with a 24-3 mark as a starter, including a 2-1 record against Michigan. An honors graduate in molecular genetics, he swept the most prestigious academic awards, including the National Football Foundation's Draddy Trophy, the Socrates Award and the NCAA Today's Top VII. He spent three seasons in the NFL before retiring.

JIM LACHEY

OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1981 – 1984

Jim Lachey entered his senior season with just four career starts. But in his final year, Lachey established himself as one of the top linemen in all of college football and was named first team All-America. Blessed with unusual speed and strength for a man his size, Lachey played guard for the Buckeyes, but could easily have played tackle. Lachey played a key role in the Ohio State offense in 1984, paving the way for junior running back Keith Byars, who led the nation in rushing (1,764 yards), scoring (24 touchdowns) and in all-purpose running (2,441 yards). In 1995, the San Diego Chargers drafted Lachey, a St. Henry, Ohio, native, with the 12th pick in the first round. In 1991, he started at left tackle for the Super Bowl champion Washington Redskins. In his 11-year NFL career, he was named All-Pro nine times and established himself as one of the game's top linemen. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1999. He is currently the analyst on the Buckeye radio broadcasts.

2006 NAGURSKI AWARD WINNER

The most decorated linebacker in Ohio State history, James Laurinaitis was a three-time consensus All-American while playing on four Big Ten championship teams. Twice helping the Buckeyes to the BCS championship game (and setting a championship game record with 18 tackles vs. LSU), he won the Bronko Nagurski Award for the nation's most outstanding defensive player as a sophomore, took home the Butkus Award as America's top linebacker as a junior, and became Ohio State's first-ever winner of both the Lott Trophy and the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award as a senior. He was a finalist 12 times for national awards during that three-year period.

Leading Ohio State in tackles as a sophomore, junior and senior, Laurinaitis finished his career with 375 total tackles, seventh-best in Buckeye history. Selected as the preseason and postseason Big Ten defensive player of the year for 2007 and 2008, Laurinaitis was a two-time team captain for a defensive unit that led the nation in total defense in 2007 and never ranked lower than 15th nationally throughout his career.

Despite projections of a high draft status after his junior campaign, the Hamel, Minn., native returned for his senior season, helping the Buckeyes put together their record fifth-straight win over Michigan. An academic all-Big Ten selection, Laurinaitis was tireless in community service, public speaking and outreach. He was drafted by the NFL's St. Louis Rams and graduated in March of his senior year.

DICK LeBEAU

DEFENSIVE BACK, 1956 – 1958

A member of Ohio State's 1957 national championship team, the legendary Dick LeBeau has spent a remarkable 51 seasons in the National Football League as a player and coach, participating in 786 NFL games. On February 6, 2010, LeBeau was selected into the 2010 class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

LeBeau, a native of London, Ohio, played 14 seasons with the Detroit Lions, setting an NFL record for 171 consecutive games played at cornerback. The NFL interception leader in 1970 and a three-time Pro Bowler, his 62 career picks still rank 7th best in league history.

As a coach, however, LeBeau's achievements are even more significant. The architect of the zone blitz, his innovations have brought changes to every aspect of defensive football.

Serving as an assistant coach with Philadelphia, Green Bay, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Buffalo, and was also the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 2000-02. A coach with 10 division championship teams, he has coached in five Super Bowls, winning twice, most recently as defensive coordinator of the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLIII.

When Ohio State senior Mike Nugent, or “Noooooge” as he was known to Buckeye fans, was selected as the winner of the 2004 Lou Groza Award as the nation’s best place-kicker, no one was surprised. There was simply no one else in the same league.

Nugent was the model of consistency in 2004, converting 24 of 27 field goal attempts, including five-of-six from 50 yards or longer to lead the nation in that statistic. He also made all 30 of his extra point tries and sent 40 of his 62 kickoffs into the end zone for touchbacks.

In a 24-21 win over Marshall, the 5-10, 180-pound kicker calmly nailed a career-long 55-yarder as time ran out. The following week, in a hard-fought 22-14 win at North Carolina State, he was a perfect five-for-five in the field goal department. In his final game as a Buckeye, Nugent scored 15 points against Oklahoma State to become Ohio State’s all-time leading scorer with 356 points.

During his illustrious career, Nugent literally rewrote the Ohio State record book, either setting outright or sharing in 22 school kicking records. Two of the more significant were career marks for field goals made (72 of 88) and career field goal percentage (.857). He also holds the marks for most consecutive field goals made (24), consecutive field goals made in Ohio Stadium (17) and career 50-yard field goals (8).

Nugent won All-America honors in both 2002 and 2004, becoming the first Ohio State placekicker to receive a spot on the first team. He was a consensus choice in 2004, landing a spot on the Walter Camp, Football Writers, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Associated Press All-American teams.

At the beginning of the 2004 season, Nugent’s teammates selected him as one of the team captains, the first kicker since 1976 to be so honored. At the end of the year, his teammates chose him as the 2004 MVP.

He was a 2005 second-round draft pick of the NFL’s New York Jets, where he played five seasons. He has also played for Tampa Bay and Arizona, and the 2013 campaign will be his fourth with the Cincinnati Bengals.

ORLANDO PACE

1995, 1996 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER 1996 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

Orlando Pace broke into the starting lineup the first day of preseason camp his freshman year and started every game the next three years before passing up his senior season to enter the NFL draft. During his stay at Ohio State, the 6-6, 330-pound left tackle became recognized as one of the most dominant offensive linemen ever to play the game.

Pace made the “Pancake Block” famous his junior year, finishing the season with 80 of those blocks (knocking his defender to the ground and on his back). He also literally redefined the role of an offensive lineman with his amazing downfield blocking.

Pace did not allow a sack in either of his last two years. In 1995, he made college football history by becoming the first sophomore to win the Lombardi Award. As a junior, he again made history by becoming the first two-time winner of that trophy. He also won the Outland Trophy and finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a junior. The latter was the highest finish by a lineman since a second-place finish by Ohio State’s John Hicks in 1973.

Other honors for Pace included consensus all-Big Ten and All-America honors in both 1995 and '96. He was the Football News Offensive Player of the Year and the Big Ten’s Offensive Player of the Year in 1996. He also received the Chicago Tribune’s Silver Football as the Most Valuable Player in the Big Ten.

Pace was the Big Ten Freshman of the Year in 1994 and the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year in 1995 and '96. He also was a finalist for the 1996 Maxwell Award. A native of Sandusky, Ohio, Pace was selected by his teammates as Ohio State’s MVP in 1996.

Taken by St. Louis as first overall pick in the 1997 NFL draft, Pace was a member of the Rams’ 1999 Super Bowl championship team. He was voted to seven Pro Bowls. In 2013 he was named to the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame and in 2014 he was enshrined into the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. The Big Ten Conference’s offensive lineman of the year award is named after Pace and Nebraska’s Dave Rimington.

JIM PARKER

1956 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

Jim Parker was Ohio State's first Outland Trophy winner as the nation's top interior lineman. He also is the standard by which his former coach, the late Woody Hayes, measured all other offensive linemen.

"Jim Parker was the greatest offensive lineman I ever coached. I'm not sure there has ever been a better offensive guard," said Hayes upon Parker's induction into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame. "He was everything an offensive lineman should be."

Indeed, Parker could do it all. A tremendous athlete, the 6-2, 200-pounder could pull and run block with the best of them. And on the relatively few occasions when the Buckeyes decided to throw the ball, getting around the agile, quick-footed Parker was next to impossible.

Parker was a three-year starter and two-time All-American for the Buckeyes. He won the Outland Trophy as a senior in 1956. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State won 23 of 28 games, captured the 1954 national championship and won back-to-back Big Ten titles in 1954 and '55.

Parker, who was born in Macon, Ga., but played his last two years of high school football in Toledo, Ohio, was the Buckeyes' MVP in 1956.

A first round pick of the Baltimore Colts the following spring, he went on to enjoy a distinguished career in the NFL as a perennial all-pro pick.

In addition to being a charter member of the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame, Parker also is a member of the College Football (1974) and the Professional Football (1973) halls of fame. His play set a standard of excellence for all future Ohio State linemen. Parker passed away in July, 1985, at age 71.

B.J. SANDER

2003 RAY GUY AWARD WINNER

B. J. Sander had big shoes to fill in 2003. As the Buckeyes' punter, he faced the daunting task of replacing graduated All-American Andy Groom.

But Sander's shoes seemed to fit just fine. In a storybook season, he averaged 43.3 yards per punt, was voted to a first-team all-Big Ten berth and became the first Buckeye to win the Ray Guy Award as the nation's best collegiate punter.

From a pure numbers point, Sander was magical. Of his 82 kicks, a phenomenal 39 were downed inside the opposing 20-yard line. That figure led the nation. Additionally, 16 of his punts were fair-caught, meaning just 31 of his punts were even returned.

Sander led the Big Ten and was fourth nationally in net punting. Like Groom, he was a master at giving the Buckeyes good field position and allowing the Ohio State defense to dominate a game.

Two of his best efforts came late in the year. Against Purdue in Ohio State's final home game of the season, he punted 10 times, downing seven of those inside the 20 and five inside the 10. At Michigan, where Ohio State athletes establish their legacies, he averaged 49.1 yards per punt on nine kicks. Sander had five kicks of 60 or more yards, including a career best of 68 yards against San Diego State.

The Cincinnati native was a third-round draft pick of the NFL's Green Bay Packers in 2004 and played there two seasons.

TOM SKLADANY

KICKER, 1973 – 1976

OSU's most recent three-time All-American, Tom Skladany was a punter and kicker between 1973-76 and the first kicking specialist ever to receive a football scholarship at Ohio State. He proved his worth immediately, landing the job as the Buckeyes' No. 1 punter as a freshman. He also kicked off as a freshman and sophomore. As a junior and senior, he added PATs and field goals to his list of responsibilities. Skladany averaged 45.6 yards per punt as a sophomore and was named to the Football Writers All-America Team. He was a consensus All-America choice the next two years, again leading the country in 1975 with a 46.7 average. As a senior, he averaged 42.3 yards per kick and finished his career with a 42.7 average on 160 punts. That's good for second on the all-time list, as is his yardage figure of 6,838. Skladany was co-captain of the 1976 squad, the first specialist ever chosen as a Buckeye captain. The six-year NFL veteran was a 1991 inductee to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame.

Troy Smith may not have been Ohio State's star recruit in the spring of 2002, but by the end of the 2006 football season there were few Buckeyes with a brighter aura.

A standout quarterback at Cleveland Glenville High School, the 6-0 Smith was renowned for his athletic ability and mental toughness. But his lack of size was a concern for some college recruiters.

Not so for Ohio State head coach Jim Tressel. "The one thing I knew for sure after seeing Troy play in high school was that I wanted him on our team," Tressel said. "There was something special about the way he carried himself."

A gifted runner and passer, Smith was redshirted as a freshman in 2002 and saw limited action the following year, appearing in 10 games at slash back and returning kickoffs.

The talented sophomore broke into the 2004 starting lineup in week seven and led the Buckeyes to a 4-1 record down the stretch, including a 37-21 win over Michigan in which he accounted for three touchdowns and 386 yards in total offense.

In 2005, Smith guided the Buckeyes to a 10-2 record that included a thrilling come-from-behind victory at Michigan and a decisive win over Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl. Smith threw for 16 touchdowns and rushed for 11 more in his first full season as a starter.

But the Cleveland native saved his best for last, piloting the No. 1 ranked Buckeyes to a 12-0 regular season record and a spot in the national championship game as a senior in 2006. With one remarkable performance after another, he threw for a school single-season record 30 touchdowns and became just the second quarterback in Ohio State history to post a 3-0 record against Michigan as a starter. In a see-saw 42-39 win over the Wolverines, Smith threw four touchdown passes and topped the 300-yard mark in total offense for the third consecutive year.

Following the regular season, the consensus All-American was a landslide winner in the Heisman Trophy voting, recording the second largest margin of victory ever in the balloting. In becoming Ohio State's seventh Heisman winner, Smith, who recorded a 25-3 record as a starter, had eliminated any-and-all doubters. He will enter the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2014.

LEGENDS AND GREATS

CHRIS SPIELMAN

1987 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER

Chris Spielman is in the Ohio State records book for a number of reasons. He led the Buckeyes in total tackles in 1986 and 1987 and is Ohio State's all-time leader in solo tackles. He also holds the OSU record for most total tackles in a game. A three-time all-Big Ten choice and a two-time All-American, Spielman concluded his brilliant career in 1987 by winning the Lombardi Award.

But it was not so much what he did as the way he did it. Those people who claim "You can't measure heart," never saw Spielman play. Intense and competitive almost beyond description, Spielman played every down of every game as if the national championship were on the line. Few players have ever been as focused on the playing field.

Spielman was a three-year starter and would have been a four-year regular were it not for two sprained ankles that greatly limited his playing time as a freshman. Still, he collected 546 career tackles, a total that places him third on the all-time OSU list behind Marcus Marek (572) and Tom Cousineau (569).

Spielman's tackle total includes a school-record 283 solo stops. The Massillon, Ohio, native had his best year in 1986 as a junior, recording 205 total stops, including an OSU record 105 solos. His best game that year was a school record-tying 29 total tackles against Michigan.

Spielman's Ohio State teams won two Big Ten titles. He played in the Rose and Cotton bowls and was defensive MVP in the latter as a senior.

Upon leaving Ohio State, Spielman became recognized as one of the NFL's top players, finishing his 12-year career in 1999 with the Cleveland Browns. A four-time Pro Bowl selection, he is a 2000 inductee into the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame and a 2009 enshrinee into the College Football Hall of Fame.

SHAWN SPRINGS

CORNERBACK, 1994 – 1996

In 1996, Shawn Springs was one of the top cornerbacks in college football and the dominant defensive player in the Big Ten - despite not recording an interception. Most teams simply chose not to test him. The 1996 Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year (selected by the conference head coaches) was named to the Walter Camp, Football Coaches, Sporting News and Football News All-America teams. He finished the year with 39 tackles and a team-high 15 passes broken up. In his final game as a Buckeye, he held Arizona State receiver Keith Poole to just one catch for 10 yards in the Rose Bowl. He finished that game with five tackles and four passes broken up. Springs finished his career as a two-time all-Big Ten selection. The Seattle Seahawks selected him with the third overall selection in the 1997 NFL Draft after his junior season; he has had two Pro Bowl selections during his eight-year NFL career.

LEGENDS AND GREATS

JIM STILLWAGON

1970 LOMBARDI AWARD WINNER 1970 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

Jim Stillwagon made college football history in 1970 by becoming the first player to win the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award in the same year.

Stillwagon, a three-year starter at middle guard for the Buckeyes between 1968 and 1970, was a unanimous All-American as a junior and senior.

During "Wagon's" three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes compiled a 27-2 record, won three Big Ten championships, played in two Rose Bowls and won a pair of national championships.

With Stillwagon clogging the middle, the Ohio State defense simply shut down opposing offenses. In 1969, the Buckeyes gave up just 93 total points. In 1970, only two opponents scored more than 13 points; five were held to under 10 points.

Tough, strong, aggressive, intelligent, relentless: all are adjectives that were used to describe Stillwagon. He was quite simply the best defensive lineman in college football in 1970. No one was surprised when he walked off with the Outland and Lombardi awards. The surprise would have come if someone else had been chosen.

After graduation, Stillwagon was drafted by the Green Bay Packers. He chose instead to play in the Canadian Football League and was one of the premier defensive linemen in that league before retiring.

Stillwagon, a member of the College Football (1991) and Ohio State Athletics (1979) halls of fame, is president of Stillwagon Enterprises in Columbus.

JACK TATUM

DEFENSIVE BACK, 1968 – 1970

Jack Tatum was one of the dominant defensive players and most intimidating forces in college football during his career at Ohio State. A three-year starter, a two-time All-American and the national Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, he was known for his tenacity and fierce style of play. The 6-1, 208-pound Tatum came to Ohio State as a running back, but moved to defense in the spring of his freshman year. He was a mainstay of the defense for the next three seasons as OSU rolled up a 27-2 record and won the 1968 national championship, two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. The Oakland Raiders selected him in the first round of the 1971 NFL Draft. In his nine-year career, he was named to the Pro Bowl three times and was a member of the 1976 Super Bowl champion Raiders. He was inducted into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1981 and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004. The outstanding defensive back in the Big Ten is awarded the Tatum-Woodson Defensive Back of the Year award.

STEVE TOVAR

LINEBACKER, 1989 – 1992

Steve Tovar was another in the great line of Ohio State linebackers. A two-time All-America selection in 1991 and 1992, he had the distinction of being the first of 21 players recruited by John Cooper to earn All-America status at Ohio State. Tovar led Ohio State in tackles for three consecutive seasons (1990-92), one of only two Buckeyes ever to accomplish that feat. In his senior year, Tovar was elected team co-captain and earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors (selected by the conference coaches) after recording 128 tackles. A three-time all-Big Ten selection, Tovar ranked fourth in school history with 414 total tackles and 239 solo tackles. The Elyria, Ohio, native was a third-round selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in the 1993 NFL Draft. After playing eight years in the NFL, Tovar began a career in college coaching. He was elected to the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001.

MIKE VRABEL

DEFENSIVE END, 1993 – 1996

Mike Vrabel, a two-time All-America selection, made his mark as one of the most tenacious and feared pass rushers in Ohio State history. He owned every OSU season and career sack record. In 1996, he set a single-season school record with 13 sacks for minus 101 yards. His 36 career sacks for minus 245 yards were also Buckeye standards. Vrabel finished as OSU's all-time career leader in tackles for loss with 66. In his junior and senior years, Vrabel was named the Big Ten Conference's Defensive Lineman of the Year. He also was a three-time first team all-Big Ten selection. Vrabel helped lead the 1996 Buckeyes to national rankings of No. 2 against the pass, No. 3 in scoring defense and No. 7 in total defense. The Akron, Ohio, native embarked on a distinguished 14-year NFL career with three teams following his Ohio State playing days. He was a part of the New England Patriots' dynamic run of three Super Bowls in four years (2001, 2003, 2004). In 2007 he was named to the Pro Bowl and was named All-Pro. Drafted in the third round of the 1997 NFL Draft by Pittsburgh, Vrabel spent four years with the Steelers. He was a starter for eight seasons with the Patriots, starting 110 games. He spent the last two years with Kansas City playing in and starting 30 games. In 2012 he was elected into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame.

DAN WILKINSON

DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1992 – 1993

Dan Wilkinson played just two years of football for Ohio State, but in those two seasons he established himself as one of the best defensive linemen ever to wear the Scarlet and Gray. Redshirted as a true freshman in 1991, the 6-5, 300-pound Wilkinson, known as "Big Daddy," started as a sophomore in 1992 and won all-Big Ten honors. Blessed with an incredible combination of size, strength and speed, he finished his rookie year with 46 tackles, including 10.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks. As a junior in 1993, Wilkinson was the dominant defensive lineman in college football, winding up the year with 44 tackles and 13 tackles for loss. No one could block him one-on-one. At season's end, he again won all-Big Ten laurels and was a consensus All-America pick. The Cincinnati Bengals made him the first selection in the NFL draft in April, 1994. The Dayton, Ohio, native played 13 seasons in the NFL.

LEGENDS AND GREATS

BILL WILLIS

LEGENDARY ALL-AMERICAN

Considered one of the all-time great athletes ever to play for Ohio State, Bill Willis was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes between 1942 and 1944, playing both offense and defense.

A willowy 6-2 and 215 pounds, he was a devastating blocker on offense and a punishing, relentless tackler on defense. A member of the Buckeyes' 1942 national championship squad, Willis earned All-America honors in 1943 and 1944, becoming the first African-American All-American at Ohio State.

A Columbus native, he went on to a distinguished career with the Cleveland Browns after college; he was one of four African-Americans to reintegrate professional football. He was a member of five championship teams and was named all-pro eight times with the Browns.

A member of the Pro Football (1977), College Football (1971), Ohio High School Football and Ohio State University Athletics halls of fame, his jersey number "99" was retired Nov. 3, 2007. He passed away Nov. 27, 2007, in Columbus.

Antoine Winfield, a team captain as a senior, was one of the all-time great cornerbacks in Ohio State history. A two-time All-American, he was a consensus choice as a senior in 1998. He was the first Buckeye to win the Thorpe Award as the nation's outstanding defensive back; the first non-linebacker (and only the fifth player total) to record at least 200 solo tackles; the first defensive back in Ohio State history to be voted team MVP (following the 1997 season); and the first cornerback in recorded history to lead the team in tackles when he did so in 1997.

A two-time all-Big Ten Conference selection, he closed his career with 278 tackles, including 224 solo stops, 22 tackles-for-loss, 29 pass breakups and three interceptions. He played in four bowl games, including the 1996 Citrus Bowl when he came in as a true freshman and recorded seven tackles. He played in 50 career games, starting 29 times.

As a senior in 1998, he was one of five finalists for the Football News Defensive Player of the Year Award. He was named first-team All-America by the Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp, the Football Writers and the Football News and was named the Buckeyes' Bill Willis Defensive Player of the Year award winner. He totaled 75 tackles, including nine solo tackles in a win over Michigan to close the season.

As a junior, Winfield was voted by his teammates as the 1997 MVP after a season in which he totaled 100 tackles, 12 pass break-ups and two interceptions. He had 82 solo tackles, the fifth-highest solo tackle total in school history, and made the Football Writers and Football News All-America teams. He led the team in tackles five times, including a magnificent 10-tackle performance against Michigan and a career-high, 13-tackle effort against Missouri.

A first-round draft pick of the Buffalo Bills in 1999, the hard-hitting Winfield was a member of the Minnesota Vikings from 2004 through 2012. He retired from professional football in 2013 after a 14-year career. He was inducted into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2014.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

CRAIG KRENZEL

Craig Krenzel will long be remembered for his role as the starting quarterback on Ohio State's 2002 national championship team. But Krenzel was perhaps even more accomplished in the classroom than he was on the football field. A molecular genetics major, he was named winner of the Socrates Award as a junior, presented by Sporting News Radio to the outstanding student-athlete in the nation. As a senior, Krenzel was named to a first-team berth on the Academic All-America Team and singled out as the Academic All-American of the Year by the College Sports Information Directors of America. He was selected as one of 13 football seniors nationwide to receive a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholarship. At the NFF awards dinner in New York in December, he was again singled out, this time receiving the Vincent DePaul Draddy Award, as the top scholarship winner. Finally, he capped off a brilliant year by being named a recipient of the NCAA's prestigious Top VIII Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and community involvement.

MIKE LANESE

Mike Lanese always will occupy a special place in the hearts and minds of Ohio State fans everywhere. His clutch grab against Michigan in 1984 has become known as "The Catch" and is one of the most memorable receptions in Ohio State history. But Lanese's legacy also includes some memorable accomplishments in the classroom, where after twice being named to the Academic All-America team, he was named a Rhodes Scholar in 1985. The former OSU flanker is the last Big Ten football player to be so honored. After completing his studies at Oxford, Lanese served in the U.S. Navy.

BOBBY HOYING

Ohio State quarterback Bobby Hoying was one of the National Football Foundation's 13 scholarship recipients in 1995. Additionally, at the awards banquet in New York, Hoying was named winner of the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award, which goes annually to the top senior scholar-athlete in college football. Hoying was the first Big Ten player ever to receive the award, which is based on athletics, academics and community involvement.

NFF & COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Each year, the National Football Foundation awards a scholarship to the top seniors in college football. The $18,000 grant for graduate work is based upon combined excellence in athletics and academics. Ohio State has produced 20 recipients. At its annual awards banquet, the Foundation also presents the William V. Campbell Award to the top senior in the group. Buckeyes Bobby Hoying (1995) and Craig Krenzel (2003) are the only Big Ten players to win that award.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

CRIS CARTER

Wide receiver Cris Carter, who starred for Ohio State from 1984-86 and then played 16 years in the NFL, is the seventh Ohio State player and the 10th individual with Ohio State ties to be voted among the greats in NFL history. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in August 2013. Carter played with the Philadelphia Eagles, Minnesota Vikings and Miami Dolphins, and he recorded 1,101 catches for 13,899 yards and 130 touchdowns during his NFL career. His receptions and touchdown totals each ranked second in NFL history when he retired from the game.

PAUL BROWN

Paul Brown, one of the great innovators in football history, coached Ohio State to the 1942 National Championship. The Buckeyes averaged 33.7 points per game that season en route to a 9-1 record.

ERNIE GODFREY

Ohio State has had several outstanding assistant coaches down through the years. But perhaps none has had more of an impact than the legendary Ernie Godfrey, who spent 33 years on the Ohio State staff, assisting seven different head coaches. Ernie joined the Ohio State ranks in 1929 as an assistant for Sam Willaman. He would go on to work for Francis Schmidt, Paul Brown, Carroll Widdoes, Paul Bixler, Wes Fesler and Woody Hayes before retiring in 1961. After retirement, at the urging of Hayes, he spent 11 years working with the Buckeyes' kickers. An Ohio State graduate, he lettered in football in 1914 with the Buckeyes. Godfrey, who was on the coaching staff of five national championship teams and six Rose Bowl squads, is a member of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. The Columbus chapter of that organization is named after him.

OHIO STADIUM: HOME OF THE BUCKEYES

Ohio State heads into the 2015 season with a string of 92 consecutive crowds of 100,000 or larger in Ohio Stadium.

Ohio Stadium is one of the most recognizable landmarks in all of sports. Built in 1922 at a cost of $1.3 million and refurbished in 2001 for slightly more than $194 million, the horseshoe-shaped stadium is a monument to college football. As part of the renovation, the once portable South Stands became a permanent fixture.

Ohio Stadium is listed in the National Registry of Historic Places. Anyone who has seen a game in the giant horseshoe understands why. There are few experiences in

TRADITIONS

BUCKEYE LEAVES

A round white decal, about the size of a quarter, with a green depiction of a buckeye leaf is applied to Ohio State football helmets for big plays and consistency on the field. This tradition started in 1968 when football coach Woody Hayes and longtime trainer Ernie Biggs changed the look of the Ohio State uniforms. Many of the sports at Ohio State incorporate Buckeye Leaves into their equipment and uniforms.

SCRIPT OHIO

The signature formation of the Ohio State University Marching Band performed before, during halftime or after home football games is Script Ohio.

Each time the formation drill is performed, a different fourth- or fifth-year sousaphone player has the privilege of standing as the dot in the "i" of "Ohio."

At exactly 16 measures from the end of "Le Regiment," the drum major struts out toward the top of the "i," with a senior sousaphone player high-stepping a couple of paces behind. As the crowd's cheering crescendos, the drum major stops and dramatically points to the spot where the sousaphone player then assumes the post of honor, doffs his or her hat and bows deeply to both sides of the stadium.

Woody Hayes, Bob Hope and Jack Nicklaus are among the select few non-band members who have had the honor of dotting the "i."

First performed at the OSU-Pittsburgh football game Oct. 10, 1936, Script Ohio was named one of Athlon Sports' 10 Greatest Football Traditions in 1999.

BRUTUS BUCKEYE

One of the more visible symbols of Ohio State athletics is Brutus Buckeye, the school's mascot. In 1965, an art student designed and introduced the first Brutus, while the name was chosen in a contest. The mascot began as a hardened paper mache affair that looked like a bowling ball with legs. In 1975, a radical new Brutus was designed with a prune-like head and a man's body. That attempt was booed off the field and was re-worked, giving way to a mascot comparable to the beloved present-day Brutus.

The original choices for Ohio State's mascot included a ram, an elk, a moose and the leading candidate, a male deer. Due to the skittish nature of deer, the idea of a mascot was tabled until January 1941 when "Chris," a German police dog owned by an assistant cheerleader, made an appearance at a basketball game. The dog's career was short-lived and OSU remained without an official mascot until the 1960s.

HOMECOMING

First recognized in 1912, Homecoming began as "Ohio State Day." It was initiated by Professor (and later OSU President) George W. Rightmire. Homecoming was designed to bring the alumni back to the university and celebrate.

The celebration has been noted, among other things, for the decorating of Greek chapter facilities and university dormitories.

The parade is another tradition Buckeyes' hold high. The parade did not become a time-honored tradition until it joined the schedule permanently in 1965.

In 1926, student supporters wishing to pull a practical joke on the university, convinced the community that Maudine Ormsby was to be honored as queen. She was so popular on campus, she won the vote. Maudine actually turned out to be a cow, the only cow ever elected as homecoming queen.

TDBITL

"The Best Damn Band in the Land" is the 225-member, all-brass Ohio State University Marching Band that formed in 1879 as a military band. Also known as "The Pride of the Buckeyes," the band perhaps is best known for the incomparable Script Ohio. Another band tradition of note is the "skull session," a warmup concert/ pep rally in St. John Arena, open to the public before every home football game that allows the band to play and "think through" the show one last time. More than 10,000 fans regularly attend each skull session.

CHEERLEADERS

Buckeye cheerleaders are a constant source of support at all athletics events. The squad took second at the 2001 College Cheerleading National Championship, its highest finish since winning the 1993 title, and has placed first in the northeast region in 20 of the last 22 years. The squad was sixth at the 2009 national championships. The cheerleaders make appearances all over the state of Ohio throughout the year.

TUNNEL OF PRIDE

The brainchild of ex-OSU quarterback Rex Kern and former Director of Athletics Andy Geiger, the Tunnel of Pride actually started in 1995, when Notre Dame visited Ohio Stadium for the first meeting between the two teams in nearly 50 years. In an effort to generate even more emotion, excitement and enthusiasm than already existed, Kern and Geiger reached out to former Buckeye football players who were attending the game and asked them to form a tunnel for the team to run through as it came onto the field. Thus a tradition was born, which is now continued every other year when Michigan visits Ohio Stadium.

SCARLET AND GRAY

Ohio State's official school colors since 1878, scarlet and gray were chosen by a group of three students in a lecture room in University Hall because "it was a pleasing combination ... and had not been adopted by any other college," noted selection committee member Alice Townshend Wing.

VICTORY BELL

Located in the southeast tower of Ohio Stadium, the Victory Bell is rung after every Ohio State victory. It was a gift of the classes of 1943, 1944 and 1945. Resting 150-feet up in the southeast tower, members of Alpha Phi Omega ring the bell after victories, a tradition that began after OSU beat California Oct. 2, 1954. On a calm day, it is said the bell can be heard five miles away. The bell weighs 2,420 pounds and cost $2,535 to install.

BUCKEYE GROVE

Since 1934, a Buckeye tree has been planted in honor of each Ohio State All-American. Trees are usually planted in a pregame ceremony at the spring game. With the renovation of Ohio Stadium in 2001, the Buckeye Grove is now located at the southwest corner of the stadium.

BLOCK O

An Ohio State University and Ohio Stadium tradition, Block "O" celebrated its 70th anniversary last year. Known for spreading spirit, starting cheers and performing card stunts, Block "O" was founded in 1938 by Clancy Isaac. After seeing a cheering section at the University of Southern California, Isaac decided that it was something Ohio State needed. Seventy-one years later, Block "O" is Ohio State's largest student organization on campus and has gained local and national recognition.

CAPTAINS' BREAKFAST

Started in 1934, all past captains are invited back for a breakfast and to welcome in the new captains.

GOLD PANTS

A gold charm replica of a pair of football pants is given to players and coaches following wins over Michigan. The tradition started in 1934 when first-year coach Francis Schmidt told those wondering how OSU would fare with its nemesis from Ann Arbor: "They put their pants on one leg at a time just like everybody else." Schmidt's Buckeyes then went and defeated Michigan four-consecutive times, all by shutout.

THE MICHIGAN GAME

The annual Ohio State-Michigan football game was No. 1 on a list of the 10 Greatest Rivalries In Sports compiled by the editorial staff at ESPN.com in 1999. There simply is no greater rivalry in college athletics.

THE ILLIBUCK TROPHY

The winner of the Ohio State – Illinois game has received the Illibuck trophy since the tradition began in 1925. Illibuck was a live turtle, but has been a wooden replica since 1927. Also representative of the rivalry is the peace pipe. Members of two junior honorary societies, Bucket and Dipper of Ohio State and Sachem of Illinois, annually meet at halftime of the Fighting Illini-Buckeye game to smoke the peace pipe and present the "Illibuck" trophy to the winning school from the previous year.

SENIOR TACKLE

A last practice of the year tradition since 1913 where the seniors hit the blocking sled one final time, for many years it was held following the last practice prior to the season finale with Michigan. But depending upon the Buckeyes' bowl obligation, it has sometimes been moved to the last home practice before the team departs for its postseason game.

SCHOOL SONGS

Ohio State proudly boasts an alma mater (Carmen Ohio), two fight songs (Across the Field and Buckeye Battle Cry) and a state rock song (Hang on Sloop).

BUCKEYE BATTLE CRY

In old Ohio there's a team
that's known thru-out the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold, whose fame will ever stand.
And when the ball goes over,
our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio field will hear again
The Buckeye Battle Cry –

Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio!
Smash through to victory.
We cheer you as you go:
Our honor defend
We will fight to the end for O-hi-o.

ACROSS THE FIELD

Fight the team across the field,
show them Ohio's here
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let that team get the ball,
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
So let's win that old conference now.

California finished an undefeated season by spoiling OSU's first Rose Bowl appearance, and tagging the Buckeyes with their first loss of the year. It was a season in which the Bears rolled up 510 points to 14 for the opposition, and a team that would remain undefeated from 1920 until 1924. Cal quarterback Harold "Brick" Muller was named the player of the game and was credited with a 53-yard touchdown pass.

It marked only the second time a Big Ten team had met a Pac 8 squad in the Rose Bowl, with Michigan having played Stanford in the first game in 1902.

Jan. 2, 1950, Rose Bowl, 100,963

PASADENA, Calif. – The Buckeyes avenged a loss to Cal in their first Rose Bowl trip by breaking a 14-all tie in the fourth quarter to snatch a victory from the Bears.

With just more than three minutes remaining in the game, Cal quarterback Bob Celeri was back to punt at his own 16 on fourth down. A low snap forced Celeri to kick the ball off his wrong (left) foot, the ball dribbling out of bounds at the Cal 13.

Three plays advanced Ohio State to the 6, where Jimmy Hague kicked the winning field goal with under two minutes remaining.

It was a dramatic end to a game OSU had dominated early, out-gaining Cal 143-15 in total yards in the first half and driving inside the Bears' 20 three times with nothing to show for it. Two Ohio State touchdowns were called back by penalty.

For the game, OSU held a 255-239 advantage in yardage, gaining 221 on the ground. Fred Morrison topped all carriers with 127 yards for the Buckeyes.

Jan. 1, 1955, Rose Bowl 89,191

PASADENA, Calif. – Woody Hayes made his first trip to the Rose Bowl a memorable one, as the Buckeyes dominated the Trojans in the rain and mud. OSU and UCLA had tied for national championship honors, but the Bruins were excluded from the bowl because of the "no repeat" rule that was in effect.

Led by Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, the Buckeye ground game drove for 304 yards, helping OSU to a 360-206 advantage in total offense. Cassady ran for 92 yards, Dave Leggett for 67 and Bob Watkins for 64. Leggett, the Ohio State quarterback, was named the outstanding player of the game. He completed six of 11 passes on the day for 63 yards and a touchdown.

PASADENA, Calif. — Already proclaimed national champions, the Buckeyes were heavy favorites against the Ducks. But the game wasn't decided until the fourth quarter.

Ohio State drove 79 yards on its first possession to take an early 7-0 lead. Frank Kremblas capped the drive by going in from 1 yard away, then converted the extra point.

Oregon came back to tie it at 7-all before the half, and actually had a chance to lead the Buckeyes in the third period with a field goal attempt that failed from the Ohio State 24.

The game came down to Don Sutherin's 24-yard field goal with 14:02 to go in the game. Oregon was stopped by a fumble on its next possession, and drove to the OSU 47 on its last drive before running out of downs.

Jan. 1, 1968, Rose Bowl, 102,063

PASADENA, Calif. — The Buckeyes put the finishing touches on a perfect 10-0 season and a national championship by coming from behind to beat Southern California. The game had matched unbeaten teams for the first time in the 22-year history of the Big 10-Pac 8 meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson had followed a USC field goal with an 80-yard run to take the Trojans to a 10-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Ohio State answered with a 1-yard run by Jim Otis and a 26-yard field goal by Jim Roman to tie before the half.

OSU would put it away with 14 points early in the final quarter. A USC fumble at the Trojans' 21 set up a Rex Kern pass to Leo Hayden for the final 4 yards, then a fumbled reception cost Southern Cal the ball again at its own 16. Kern, the game's MVP, hit Ray Gillian on the Buckeyes' first down for the score and a commanding 27-10 lead with 10:05 remaining. USC turned the ball over five times on the day, while OSU was error-free.

PASADENA, Calif. — Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett quarterbacked Stanford to a come-from-behind win over favored and previously unbeaten OSU in the 1971 Rose Bowl.

Plunkett passed 30 times, completing 20 for 265 yards and a touchdown.

His performance offset a tremendous rushing day for Ohio State, as the Buckeyes rolled up 364 yards on the ground and actually led the Cardinal in total offense, 439-408. Rex Kern led OSU with 129 yards rushing, while John Brockington added 101 and two touchdowns.

Stanford scored the first two times it had the ball, only to see Ohio State gain a 14-10 lead at the half. After trading third quarter field goals, OSU drove from its own 6 to the Stanford 19 to begin the final quarter. On fourth and less than a yard, the Cardinal defense stopped Brockington short of the first down. Plunkett then ran and passed down the field for the go-ahead score.

PASADENA, Calif. — Led by tailback Anthony Davis, USC broke a 7-all tie at halftime with three third quarter scores. Davis collected 157 of USC's 207 rushing yards and set up a Rose Bowl-record four Sam Cunningham touchdown runs.

The Trojans scored each time they touched the ball in the third quarter, Cunningham twice and Davis once from 20 yards.

The third quarter overshadowed a fine first half effort by Ohio State.

At the half OSU held a 151-75 edge in rushing yards. Archie Griffin tallied 73 yards on 15 carries in the first half.

OSU appeared to be in gear when fullback Randy Keith capped a 56-yard, eight-play drive with 13:37 to go in the first half. But OSU could manage only a Blair Conway field goal in the third and a 5-yard John Bledsoe dash that ended an 87-yard drive with 44 seconds to play.

PASADENA, Calif. — Ohio State used a powerful running attack, led by Archie Griffin's 149 yards, to break open a close game and run past USC. Pete Johnson added 94 yards and three touchdowns for the Buckeyes, who totaled 320 yards on the ground.

OSU fell behind, 21-14, early in the third before scoring the final 13 points of the quarter. The first score was set up by a Cornelius Greene to Fred Pagac pass good for 39 yards to the USC 4. Johnson bulled over for the tally, and a blocked extra point kick left it 21-20.

Ohio State took the lead for good after Neal Colzie set up the go-ahead score with a 56-yard punt return to the USC 9. Greene covered the final yard with 2:12 left in the quarter for a 27-21 lead.

Griffin capped the final scoring drive with 4:35 remaining by dashing 47 yards over right tackle.

PASADENA, Calif. — Flanker Shelton Diggs made a diving catch of a Pat Haden pass for a two-point conversion with slightly more than two minutes left in the game to bring the Trojans from behind and spoil Ohio State's national championship hopes. It ended a wild final stanza in which 25 of the game's 35 points were scored.

The third period was one of missed opportunities for the Buckeyes, who twice had the ball inside the USC 10 but failed to score.

Ohio State had staked itself to a 17-10 lead by scoring on its first two possessions of the fourth period, however. Cornelius Greene engineered an 82-yard drive, covering the final 3 yards himself for the first score. Following a USC fumble at its own 30, Tom Klaban kicked a field goal when the Buckeyes stalled out at the 15.

Haden, starting at the USC 17, took the Trojans 83 yards to the eventual winning touchdown and conversion. The game ended on OSU's ensuing drive when Tom Skladany's 62-yard field goal try fell short.

PASADENA, Calif.—All-American quarterback John Sciarra led UCLA to 23 second-half points to upset top-ranked and previously unbeaten Ohio State. Sciarra hit on nine of 13 second-half attempts for 173 yards, helping the Bruins amass 366 yards in total offense in the half.

Despite the backfield of Big Ten MVP Cornelius Greene, two-time Heisman Trophy Award winner Archie Griffin and national scoring leader Pete Johnson, OSU was limited to 124 yards in the second half.

Ohio State was impressive offensively in the first half, gaining 174 yards and 11 first downs, but managed only a 3-0 lead. Defensively, OSU held UCLA to 48 yards.

But sparked by Sciarra and the running of Wendell Tyler, the Bruins roared back to dash OSU's national championship hopes and spoil a fourth-consecutive Rose Bowl trip for the Buckeye seniors. Sciarra directed drives of 61 and 83 yards in the third quarter, hitting Wally Henry with scoring tosses of 16 and 67 yards.

OSU answered with a 65-yard scoring march to close it to 16-10, but Tyler broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run and close out the scoring.

MIAMI, Fla.—After Colorado jumped to an early 10-0 lead, Rod Gerald came off the Buckeyes' bench to lead OSU to its ninth victory of the season.

Gerald, idle since the seventh game of the schedule with a bone chip in his lower back, rushed 14 times for 81 yards, including 17 on his first snap. That run set up a 36-yard scoring dash by Jeff Logan to get OSU on the board with 3:11 to go in the first quarter.

The Buckeyes went on to score on the next two possessions, beginning with Tom Skladany's 28-yard field goal with 9:33 left in the half. Pete Johnson went in from 3 yards out to cap a 99-yard march following a blocked Buffalo field goal attempt to give OSU the lead for good with 24 seconds remaining before intermission.

Gerald ended the scoring with a 4-yard run late in the fourth quarter, and was later named the back of the game.

OSU outgained Colorado 330-271, including 271 yards rushing.

NEW ORLEANS, La.—In the first meeting between coaching legends Woody Hayes and Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama, the Crimson Tide made a pitch for the national championship with a convincing performance. It also marked OSU's first appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama's Jeff Rutledge was the game's most valuable player. Rutledge was good on eight of 11 passing attempts for 109 yards, including scoring strikes of 27 yards to Bruce Bolton and a 3-yarder to Rick Neal to stake the Tide to a 21-0 lead in the third quarter.

Alabama rolled up 389 yards in total offense, 286 on the ground. Ohio State was limited to 263 yards, and gave up the ball three times on interceptions. The lone Buckeye score was a 38-yard Rod Gerald to Jim Harrell pass which capped an 85-yard drive.

The Buckeyes' defense did cause 10 Crimson Tide fumbles on the day, but Alabama lost only two of the miscues.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — The Clemson Tigers won their 10th consecutive game of the season and 11th overall by holding off Ohio State in Woody Hayes' last game as head coach at OSU.

After Bob Atha gave Ohio State an early 3-0 lead with a 27-yard field goal, Clemson's Steve Fuller, named the game's outstanding player, directed the Tigers on an 80-yard, seven-minute drive. Fuller passed for 25 yards and ran for 36, including a scoring jaunt of 4 yards, in the drive.

Freshman Art Schlichter answered with a 78-yard drive, scoring himself from 4 yards away. Vlade Janakievski's extra point was blocked, but OSU had a 9-7 lead.

Clemson scored the next 10 points before Schlichter tallied again at the end of an 88-yard march with 8:11 left in the game. His two-point conversion run was stopped short of the goal line.

OSU got a chance at victory when Tim Sawicki covered a Fuller fumble on the Clemson 24 with 4:22 remaining. But on third-and-five at the 24, the Tigers' Charlie Bauman stepped in front of a Schlichter pass intended for Ron Springs, and OSU's hopes were dashed.

TEMPE, Ariz. — A record crowd of 66,738 had hardly settled into its seats when Penn State's Curt Warner ran 64 yards for a touchdown on the Nittany Lions' first play from scrimmage.

The rest of the first half, however, belonged to the Buckeyes as quarterback Art Schlichter threw for 244 yards and three touchdowns to stake OSU to a 19-10 lead at intermission. Flanker Doug Donley was on the receiving end of two of those scoring passes and split end Gary Williams hauled in the third.

But after rolling up 339 yards in the first half, the Buckeyes were held to just 73 in the second by a fired up Penn State defense. And while the Nittany Lions' defense was pitching a shutout in the final two quarters, their offense tallied three touchdowns to win the second half and the game.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Underdog Navy put up a valiant fight for three quarters before finally falling to the Buckeyes. The win snapped a string of four-consecutive bowl losses for Ohio State, dating back to the 1978 Sugar Bowl.

Art Schlichter, playing in his final game for the Buckeyes, threw his 49th and 50th career touchdown passes.

OSU led early, 10-0, but Navy, led by quarterback Marco Pagnanelli and running back Eddie Meyers, refused to quit and took a 20-17 lead midway through the third quarter.

Ohio State finally opened a 31-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Navy cut the deficit to three with eight seconds left on a TD pass and a two-point conversion. OSU recovered the on-side kick and ran out the clock.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. – There were those who thought Ohio State was the best team in the country during the last six weeks of the season. The Holiday Bowl did nothing to alter that line of thinking.

In winning their seventh-consecutive game and their second-consecutive bowl, the Buckeyes completely dominated the Cougars.

BYU led only once, 10-7, early in the second period. Tim Spencer's 61-yard run took care of that. Spencer scored two of the Buckeyes' TDs as did his backup, Jimmy Gayle.

Linebacker Marcus Marek had eight tackles to pass Tom Cousineau as OSU's all-time leading tackler.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Ohio State and Pitt combined for 897 yards and scored 30 of their 51 points in the final 15 minutes of play to keep everyone in their seats.

Trailing 23-21 after a 37-yard field goal by Snuffy Everett had given Pitt its first lead with 2:39 to play, Ohio State marched 89 yards for the winning score.

Split end Thad Jemison scored the game winner, hauling in a 39-

Still it wasn't over. Pitt had one more at bat and quarterback John Congemi marched the Panthers to the Ohio 24 before being injured. He watched helplessly as sub Chris Jelic failed in his two tries to produce the winning score before time ran out.

Keith Byars scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes, one on a 99-yard kick return. Jemison, who tied a Fiesta Bowl record with eight catches, was the game's MVP.

PASADENA, Calif. – Ohio State outgained USC, 403-261, but the Trojan defense steadfastly refused to let the Buckeyes cross the goal line.

USC led 17-6 at the half on a pair of TD passes by Tim Green. OSU's Rich Spangler made it 17-9 with a Rose Bowl record 52-yard field goal, but USC offset that score with Steve Jordan's second field goal of the day.

Ohio State finally scored a TD with 7:34 to play on a Mike Tomczak to Cris Carter pass. Tomczak's run on the PAT made it 20-17.

OSU had one final possession and moved to the USC 43. But the next four plays resulted in a sack and three incompletions, and the Buckeyes' three-game bowl winning streak was ended.

Carter, the freshman split end, caught nine passes for 172 yards to shatter Don Hutson's Rose Bowl record.

ORLANDO, Fla. – Three years later and on the opposite coast, the Buckeyes again defeated Brigham Young. But this time the game was in doubt until the final seconds.

Surprisingly, it was the defenses and not the offenses that sparkled. Ohio State held the high octane Cougars to 349 yards, limiting quarterback Robbie Bosco to 261 yards passing—about half his average. And each time Bosco threatened to bring his team back, the Buckeyes thwarted him with an interception, four in all.

All four of those interceptions came in the second half. The first two were by Larry Kolic. Kolic, the Buckeyes' middle guard, picked off his first on the second play of the third quarter and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 OSU lead. That was the last score by either team.

In the fourth quarter, cornerback William White and safety Terry White each had interceptions in the end zone. The latter came with three seconds left.

DALLAS, Texas – Ohio State,

the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl, made a successful debut with a convincing 28-12 win over Texas A&M. The Buckeyes resurrected several defenses from previous years to keep the explosive Aggie offense under control. Ohio State set a Cotton Bowl record by intercepting five Aggie passes, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

Aside from the turnovers and the return yardage, the statistics were fairly even, but Ohio State made the most of big plays.

Buckeye quarterback Jim Karsatos passed for 195 yards, with his prime targets being Nate Harris and Cris Carter.

Chris Spielman, with 11 tackles and two pass interceptions, was chosen "Top Defensive Player" in the game. Spielman's first interception was a 24-yard return for a touchdown that came at a point in which OSU led 7-6.

de the hot arm of Reggie Slack, who accounted for all four Tiger touchdowns, in a 31-14 win over OSU.

Ohio State took an early 14-3 but the momentum changed just before the half when Slack hit Greg Taylor with an 11-yard scoring pass with 11 seconds left to play.

Auburn scored on its first possession after the half as Slack and Taylor teamed up again for 4 yards out.

Two fourth quarter TDs by the Tigers put the game out of reach. Slack, who completed his last 11 passes and was a near unanimous MVP choice, ran 5 yards for the first and also flipped a 2-yard toss to Herbert Casey.

OSU flanker Jeff Graham was an early star for Ohio State, setting up the Buckeyes' second TD with a 68-yard catch-and-run. Graham finished with five receptions for 103 yards, but didn't play the second half because of a pulled groin muscle.

Jan. 1, 1992, Tampa Stadium (57,789)

TAMPA, Fla. — The Buckeyes made their second trip in three years to the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Marvin Graves staked the Orangemen to a 14-0 first quarter lead, throwing a 50-yard scoring pass on the first Syracuse possession and later running 3 yards to paydirt as the quarter expired.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 17, however, when All-America linebacker Steve Tovar blocked a punt that was recovered in the end zone by Tito Paul. The score came with 8:03 to play.

But the Buckeyes' jubilation was short lived. Less than a minute later, Graves connected with wide receiver Antonio Johnson on a 60-yard bomb to bury Ohio State.

Ohio State had two more possessions after Graves' game winner, but did not mount a serious threat either time.

ORLANDO, Fla. — Ohio State and Georgia, two of college football's most storied teams, were paired against one another for the first time in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The two teams qualified for the trip to Orlando by virtue of second-place finishes in their respective conferences.

The two teams battled back-and-forth early and were tied at 14 at the end of the third quarter. Midway through the final quarter the Buckeyes drove deep into Georgia territory and appeared ready to take the lead. But a fumbled handoff, that Georgia recovered at its own 16-yard line, thwarted the OSU drive.

Given new life, the Bulldogs marched 84 yards in 11 plays, scoring the winning touchdown with 4:32 to play.

All-America tailback Garrison Hearst had an All-America day for Georgia, rushing for 163 yards and two touchdowns on 28 carries. But it was the passing of QB Eric Zeier, who threw for 241 yards, that kept the Buckeyes off balance.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — In the early going, the 9-1-1 Buckeyes appeared to be too much for the 6-5 Cougars, jumping off to a 21-7 lead with 14:55 to play in the second quarter. But BYU, healthy for the first time all year, roared back with two TDs and the teams were tied at intermission.

Ohio State regained the lead with 4:11 to play in the third when tailback Raymont Harris scored his third TD of the evening.

Using their vaunted passing game, the Cougars drove deep into OSU territory three times in the fourth quarter with each drive ending on incompletions.

While BYU did most of its damage through the air, the Buckeyes relied on the brilliant running of Harris, who set a Holiday Bowl record with 235 yards on 39 carries. Harris, a 6-2, 225-pound senior, was named Player of the Game, while linebacker Lorenzo Styles, who had eight tackles, including four for losses, was the defensive MVP.

First meeting between Ohio State and Tennessee resulted in a 20-14 Vols' victory and kept the 11-2 Buckeyes from becoming the first team in school history to win 12 games in a season.

Playing in a driving rainstorm, OSU jumped off to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a 2-yard dive by Eddie George. The TD followed a blocked punt by Central McClellion. Jay Graham's 69-yard scoring run with 23 seconds left in the half tied the score and gave UT momentum heading into the break. The Vols took a 14-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 47-yard pass from Peyton Manning to Joey Kent.

OSU battled back to tie the score at 14 on a 32-yard pass from Bobby Hoying to Rickey Dudley with 14:40 to play in the fourth. But Tennessee marched 59 yards in 13 plays on its next possession to take a 17-14 lead on a 29-yard field goal by Jeff Hall. Hall added another three pointer with 2:06 to play that ended the scoring.

PASADENA, Calif. — The Buckeyes snapped a four-game losing streak in the granddaddy of all bowl games with a dramatic, come-from-behind win. The win over previously unbeaten Arizona State propelled the fourth-ranked Buckeyes to an 11-1 record and the No. 2 spot in both major polls.

Quarterback Joe Germaine came off the bench to lead the Buckeyes to the victory and was named as the game's Most Outstanding Player.

OSU took a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter on a 9-yard pass from Stanley Jackson to David Boston. ASU scored early in the second period on a 25-yard pass from Jake Plummer to Ricky Boyer and the two teams were deadlocked at halftime.

The Sun Devils jumped out to a 10-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 37-yard field goal by Robert Nycz. The Buckeyes recaptured the lead moments later when Germaine and senior flanker Dimitrious Stanley hooked up on a 72-yard score, the longest TD pass in OSU bowl annals.

Plummer, on a third-and-11, somehow snaked his way into the end zone to give ASU a 17-14 lead with 1:40 to play. Earlier, Plummer had kept the drive alive with a 29-yard completion on fourth down.

Germaine's responded by calmly marching the Buckeyes 65 yards in 12 plays, hitting Boston from 5 yards out with the game winner.

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Ohio State capped off an 11-1 season with a convincing win over Texas A&M.

The Buckeyes took control early, jumping to a 21-7 first-quarter lead. The Aggies scored on their first possession, driving 59 yards with Dante Hall going in from 9 yards out.

Joe Germaine then engineered an eight-play, 71-yard scoring drive. Following a defensive stop, the Buckeyes marched down the field again, using six plays to go 71 yards with Joe Montgomery's 10-yard touchdown run for a 14-7 lead.

Another defensive stop followed by a huge special teams play gave OSU a 21-7 advantage with just 1:59 to go in the first quarter. After Derek Ross streaked in to literally "take" the football off A&M punter Shane Leckler's foot, Kevin Griffin picked up the loose ball and went untouched into the end zone.

TAMPA, Fla. — In the first meeting between South Carolina and Ohio State, the Gamecocks upset the favored Buckeyes 24-7. The win gave South Carolina Coach Lou Holtz his first victory over the Buckeyes in five tries (0-2 at Minnesota and 0-2 at Notre Dame).

Ryan Brewer, a native of Troy, Ohio, accounted for 214 all-purpose yards and three touchdowns.

Both offenses struggled early and South Carolina led 3-0 at the half. The Buckeyes had a chance to tie it as time expired, but Dan Stultz' 47-yard field goal attempt was wide to the right.

The two teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter. Brewer scored from 7 yards out for the Gamecocks and offensive guard Mike Gurr recovered a Jonathan Wells fumble in the end zone for the Buckeyes.

But it was all South Carolina in the fourth quarter as Brewer (the game's MVP) scored first on a nifty 28-yard screen pass and later on a 2-yard run.

TAMPA, Fla. — With the score tied and virtually no time left, South Carolina kicker Daniel Weaver kicked a 42-yard field goal as the clock expired to propel No. 14 South Carolina to 31-28 victory over No. 22 Ohio State. The kick, which barely made it over the crossbar, spoiled a valiant comeback effort by the Buckeyes who had rallied from a 28-0 third quarter deficit.

Quarterback Steve Bellisari engineered the OSU comeback, completing 21 of 35 passes for 320 yards and two touchdowns.

Phil Petty, the game's MVP, threw for 227 yards and two touchdowns, and Andrew Pinnock scored twice for South Carolina. Bellisari ran for a 2-yard score to close the third quarter, then hit Darrell Sanders with a 16-yard TD pass with 10:18 to go that cut the lead in half. Jonathan Wells' 1-yard run made it 28-21 with 5:02 to go. Ohio State got the ball back on its 11 with 3:56 to play. He went 6-of-6 for 86 yards, tying the game on Sanders' 9-yard catch. Cie Grant gave the Buckeyes a chance for victory at the end, intercepting Petty with 1:12 left.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Ohio State worked two overtimes to rip the national championship from the Miami Hurricanes in one of the greatest college football games ever. Maurice Clarett ran 5 yards for the winning touchdown, and Ohio State's defense turned back one final Miami bid to tie the game. With that, the Buckeyes completed an unbeaten run to their first national title in 34 years with a 31-24 win.

Trailing 24-17 in the first OT, Ohio State converted a 4th-and-14 on a pass by Craig Krenzel. But the Buckeyes then faced a 4th-and-3 at the 5 when Krenzel threw to the right corner of the end zone for Chris Gamble. A flag was thrown from the back of the end zone indicating pass interference and three plays later Krenzel scored from the 1 to send the game to a second OT. In the second OT, the Buckeyes went first and Clarett capped the five-play drive.

The Buckeyes took a 14-7 halftime lead, turning two turnovers into touchdowns in a 78-second span, and extended the margin to 10 points on Mike Nugent's 44-yard field goal. The Hurricanes closed to 17-14 on Willis McGahee's 9-yard scoring run in the third quarter to set the stage for Todd Sievers' 40-yard kick at the end of regulation.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Craig Krenzel improved to an amazing 24-3 as a starter at Ohio State as the Buckeyes claimed a 35-28 victory over Kansas State in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. Krenzel overcame two first quarter interceptions to complete 11-of-24 passes for 189 yards and four touchdowns, finding both Michael Jenkins and Santonio Holmes for two scoring strikes each.

The Buckeyes stormed out to a 21-0 lead in the second quarter, scoring first on special teams before Krenzel hit Holmes and Jenkins to pad the lead, which slipped to 21-7 at the half. After intermission, the Wildcats pulled within seven, but Krenzel and Jenkins teamed up to reclaim a two-touchdown lead. Holmes caught his second TD pass from Krenzel and dragged two feet in the back of the end zone to make the score 35-14. Kansas State added two more scores.

Jenkins finished with five receptions for 96 yards, and ended his career with 2,898 career receiving yards. Kansas State out-gained Ohio State 378-337 in total yards, but the Buckeye defense held the Wildcats to 84 yards rushing. Ohio State ran for 148 yards to go with 189 passing yards. Defensively, Robert Reynolds and A.J. Hawk, the Fiesta Bowl Defensive MVP, each had 10 tackles to pace the Buckeyes.

Tempe, Ariz. — Led by Troy Smith and Ted Ginn Jr. on offense and All-America A.J. Hawk on defense, Ohio State ran roughshod over Notre Dame in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, downing the Irish 34-20 in a game that wasn't as close as the final score indicated.

After Notre Dame opened with a 20-yard run by Darius Walker, it was all Ohio State.

Smith and Ginn saw to that. First they hooked up on a 56-yard scoring pass. Then Ginn gave the Buckeyes the lead for good on a dazzling 68-yard reverse. Smith connected with Santonio Holmes on an 85-yard pass that gave the Buckeyes a 21-7 lead at intermission. Had it not been for two fumbles and a blocked field goal, the margin might have been greater.

A 60-yard TD run by Antonio Pittman sealed the win.

Smith was the MVP of the game. A.J. Hawk was the defensive MVP with 12 tackles, including 3.5 TFLs.

GLENDAL, Ariz. — Ohio State's Ted Ginn Jr. returned the opening kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown, but it was all Florida from there as the No. 2 Gators upset the No. 1 Buckeyes, 41-14, in the BCS National Championship Game.

Ginn was injured in the celebration of his opening kickoff return for a touchdown and the Buckeyes could not recover offensively. Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Troy

Smith completed 4-of-14 passes for 35 yards and an interception and was sacked five times by the Gators (13-1).

Junior tailback Antonio Pittman rushed for 62 yards on 10 carries and his 18-yard touchdown run with 13:32 left in the second quarter brought the score to 21-14 in favor of the Gators, but it would be all the closer the Buckeyes would get.

OSU linebackers James Laurinaitis and Marcus Freeman both collected 15 tackles in the game.

New Orleans (AP) — Making its second straight appearance in the BCS championship game, and its third in six years, No. 1 Ohio State was unable to contain No. 2 LSU in a 38-24 loss at the Superdome. LSU rallied from an early 10-0 deficit, taking a 24-10 halftime lead that held up.

Ohio State (11-2) had little to celebrate after Chris "Beanie" Wells, who finished the game with 146 rushing yards, broke loose for a 65-yard

TD run on the fourth play of the game.

Ohio State made it 10-0 on its next possession. Todd Boeckman hit a wide-open Brandon Saine, setting up Ryan Pretorius' 25-yard field goal. Later, tied at 10, Wells delivered a stiff-arm on a 29-yard romp, and Ohio State seemed poised to retake the lead. Instead, Ricky Jean-Francois crashed through the middle, swung his big right arm and blocked Pretorius' 38-yard field goal try.

Brandon Flynn's perfect pass to Brandon LaFell in the back left corner of the end zone put the Tigers ahead for good, 17-10.

GLENDAL, ARIZ. — Ohio State scored 15 unanswered points in the fourth quarter, including a Todd Boeckman-to-Terrelle Pryor touchdown pass, but it wasn't enough to shake off Texas. Quarterback Colt McCoy hit Quan Cosby with a 26-yard scoring pass for the winning score with 16 seconds left.

Texas trailed 6-3 at the half after being held to minus-9 yards rushing and giving up 140 to the Buckeyes, 96 to junior running back Chris "Beanie" Wells, who missed most of the fourth quarter after he was concussed.

McCoy set records vs. Ohio State with a 41-for-58 showing for 414 yards and two touchdowns. The offensive MVP found Cosby with a 7-yard touchdown pass for a 17-6 lead. Ohio State scored the next 15 points and took a 21-17 lead on Dan Herron's 15-yard run with 2:05 remaining.

The Longhorns then covered 78 yards in 11 plays. Cosby broke free at the 15-yard line over the middle and had nothing between him and the end zone.

Quarterback Todd Boeckman, a senior who lost his starting spot to Pryor after two games, gave the Buckeyes a lift when they needed it. He completed 5 of 11 passes for 110 yards and a touchdown to Pryor, who lined up at wide receiver.

Jan. 1, 2010, Rose Bowl Stadium (93,963)

PASADENA, Calif. — Terrelle Pryor propelled No. 8 Ohio State to a 26-17 victory over No. 7 Oregon. Pryor earned MVP honors, completing 23 of 37 passes for 266 yards and two touchdowns. He also led Ohio State in rushing with 72 yards for 338 yards of total offense.

Ohio State's offense held the ball for 89 plays and a Rose Bowl record 41:37 to keep the high-powered Duck offense on the sideline.

Pryor led a 10-play, 74-yard drive on Ohio State's first possession. Then after Oregon came from 10 down to tie the score at 10, Pryor and the OSU offense went on a 19-play drive that chewed up 8:03 on the clock, leading to a Devin Barclay 30-yd FG.

A Ross Homan INT with just 25 seconds remaining before intermission gave Pryor just enough time to set up a 45-yard Aaron Pettrey field goal as time expired.

Pryor saved his best for last, directing a 13-play, 81-yard fourth quarter touchdown drive for a 26-17 lead, finding DeVier Posey in the end zone from 17 yards out for the touchdown.

Equal credit goes, too, to Ohio State's defense, which limited the Ducks to a mere 260 offensive yards.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — Florida's defense and special teams came up big in the Gator Bowl, recording six sacks and scoring twice as the Gators beat Ohio State 24-17.

Andre Debose returned a kickoff 99 yards - the longest scoring play in bowl history - and Chris Rainey blocked a punt that was returned for a touchdown.

The speedsters helped the Gators (7-6) avoid their first losing season since 1979 and pick up some much-needed momentum after losing six of their previous eight games.

Ohio State (6-7) dropped four straight to finish below .500 for the first time since 1988, and lost seven games for the first time since 1897.

Ohio State fell to 0-10 in bowl games against teams from the Southeastern Conference.

MIAMI, Fla. — No. 12 Clemson narrowly edged No. 7 Ohio State, 40-35, in a wild back-and-forth shootout to win the 2014 Orange Bowl. The Buckeyes totaled 27 first downs and 427 yards, and they had a six-minute edge in time of possession. But they had twice as many turnovers as Clemson.

The Buckeyes rallied from a 20-9 deficit against the high-powered Tigers and scored 20 consecutive points before a flurry of turnovers began when Corey Brown fumbled a punt return to set up a Clemson touchdown. On the next series, Miller threw his first interception, and Clemson had to drive only 38 yards to score and lead 34-29. The Buckeyes regained the lead when Miller led a 75-yard drive and capped it with a 14-yard touchdown pass to Carlos Hyde.

After Clemson mounted a 75-yard touchdown drive and took the lead for good with 6 minutes left, Ohio State had two chances to rally. Miller fumbled when sacked on its first possession, but the Buckeyes got the ball back on an interception by C.J. Barnett. But on second down, Miller threw his second INT with under a minute remaining.

Buckeyes ahead for good early in the third quarter. He also ran for 43 yards and converted a crucial third-down play with a spinning, 1-yard dive and Ohio State clinging to a 34-28 lead.

On the next play, Elliott took a handoff, broke one feeble attempt at a tackle, and was gone for an 85-yard touchdown that essentially clinched the victory with 3:24 remaining.

Blake Sims threw a 6-yard touchdown pass to Amari Cooper with 1:59 remaining. The Buckeyes recovered the onside kick, but Alabama got it back one more time after some questionable clock management. The Tide's final shot ended when a desperation heave into the end zone was picked off by Tyvis Powell as time ran out, Sims' third interception of the game.

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Buckeyes' third-stringer matched Oregon's Heisman winner as Cardale Jones led Ohio State past Marcus Mariota and the Ducks 42-20 in the first College Football Playoff national championship game.

Behind Jones and the relentless running of Ezekiel Elliott, the Buckeyes completed a remarkable in-season turnaround with a dominating performance against the Ducks.

Elliott was the offensive MVP and ran for 246 yards and four touchdowns on 36 carries. In the last three games against Wisconsin, Alabama and Oregon, Elliott had 696 yards rushing.

Jones passed for 242 yards and a touchdown and ran for score. Mariota passed for 333 yards and two touchdowns, but the Ducks' warp-speed spread offense missed too many red-zone opportunities and couldn't unleash its running game against linebacker Darron Lee and an Ohio State front seven stacked with future NFL draft picks.

Even with the benefit of four Ohio State turnovers, the Ducks were held to their lowest point total of the season, four touchdowns below their average coming in.
